

Where You Get The Most For The Least...Statesman Classified Page

Your New Shoes Should Be Smart, Comfortable

Top left, sandal with nailhead detail; below, calfkin oxfords; right, tailored walking shoe. This season you will want to get shoes that will wear long, feel comfortable and look smart with most costumes. This will mean that your three pairs will need to be fine shoes, as enduring in their fashion appeal as in their intrinsic quality. The three pairs shown are all Delman designs and strike just the right casual note—smart enough to go with summer dresses and suits. The sandal, top left, is made with an open-back and with metal nailheads in design on sabot and bordering the platform of the heel. It is unlined and made of polished calfskin. Below is a pair of oxford of unlined polished antique calfskin with leather heel and tailored extended sole. Right is a pair of sabot tailored walking shoes in the same kind of leather, with natural hand-glove double stitching as outline trim.
