Scheduled for presentation on Easter night, "The Easter Victory" combines both the brilliant and the soft and tender passages within its compass. The Easter picked up at the garden story is picked up at the garden sepulcher where Christ was laid. From there on, the Easter story is unfolded through a series of well written choruses, solos, duets and a quartet. Rene Bronner and H. W. Petrie collaborated in the production of the cantata, the former preparing the text and the latter composing the music.
