Reeves Post Invites County To May 3 Meet

SILVERTON—Delbert Reeves post seven, American Legion voted at Monday night's meeting to invite all posts of the county to be present Monday night May 3, when the department commander, Hugh Bowman, will make his official visit.

These plans were, in part, suggested by the commander on account of the great distance he must drive from the eastern part of the state to visit valley units, and the impossibility of obtaining gas for more than the one trip.

The legion is active in the bond drive and satisfactory progress was reported by the bond chairman, C. J. Towe.

The annual pet parade will be Saturday, May 8. As has been his donation of past years for the youngsters who take part in the parade, Alfred Adams of the Palace theatre, will be host to the group in a specially arranged program of pictures, educational and fun, at the theatre during the afternoon. The committee named by Arthur Gottenberg, commander, includes Frank M. Powell, C. J. Towe, John Demos, Gladwyn Hamre, George Towe and Lewis Hall.

To serve with the Veterans of Foreign Wars Memorial Day program committee will be C. J. Towe and F. M. Powell, named by the commander Monday night.

The post met with the unit and their guests from Mt. Angel after the business session for a white elephant sale as a benefit for child welfare work, an informal "sing" and a late supper.

Church Members Hang Plaque at Camp Adair

PERRYDALE—A large group from the Presbyterian church of Dallas went to Camp Adair Sunday to hang a plaque in the recreation room which they furnished. The junior choir were taken along and all attended services at the chapel. Women of the group took cookies and cakes. Plaques from the Polk county Red Cross are being hung in the rooms at the rate of about one a week.

The plaque to be hung in the room furnished by the Ballston, Bethel and Perrydale Womens clubs will go in soon, it is hoped that it will be possible to make the trip at night so many of the men can visit the rooms also. The groups have a number of articles to take to the room in addition to the furnishings already there.

Mrs. Lydia Conner of McMinnville spent the first of the week at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell. Wednesday night she went to Sheridan with Mrs. Guy Lee to visit her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Morrison, who makes her home with Mrs. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Staavern had as their weekend guests her cousin, Edward Polna, who is stationed at Camp Adair, and Miss Lulu Everson of Salem.

Miss Peggy Houk of McMinnville spent the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Houk.

Lert Lee, who is employed now in the Seattle shipyards, spent last Wednesday here visiting his parents. Mr. Lewen is driving the school bus now that Lert is gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Flanery of Salem were Saturday dinner guests at the Bom Mitchell home.

Miss Plett Discusses Scope Of Child Welfare Work At Legion Auxiliary Meet

SILVERTON—The inclusive scope of child welfare work being accomplished by the local program of the Marion County Health association was brought to the minds of members of Delbert Reeves unit seven, American Legion auxiliary, Monday night, when the child welfare chairman, Mrs. A. J. Titus, made arrangements for Miss Erma Plett, Eugene Field health nurse, to speak to the group and their initiatory guests from Mt. Angel auxiliary at the fireplace club rooms of the armory.

"The smaller children in the homes," said the speaker, "come in for the most serious attention in respect to balanced diet and protection from serious results from communicable disease." It is not easy, she explained, to contact all mothers in homes as to the family meals that are best for children and for this reason much readable literature is prepared for this cause.

Adults as well as children are eligible for tuberculin tests and the first stages of preventive treatment following. The association's plans are not to interfere with the choice of physicians for children of pre-school age or in school, but in cases where the parents cannot afford regular physician care, the same attention is given the child in need of such.

The work in the schools this year differs slightly from that of the past in that the general tests are giving way to those pupils who particularly need attention. The most commonly administered vaccines are for prevention of the more serious communicable diseases such as diphtheria, small pox and tuberculosis.

Miss Plett praised the auxiliary chairman, Mrs. Ernest L. Starr, as well as Mrs. Titus, in their help continuously at the pre-school and school clinics.

Mrs. Titus planned a white elephant sale for the child welfare fund, with F. M. Powell as auctioneer, with the results of $13.55 netted for the work. The local need for aid has not been so evident during the past year but the future work is being planned for. Mrs. Titus has had 17 years state and county as well as town and unit ing a plaque honoring men in service and also asked the unit to attend the Saturday night Legion party May 8 at the Legion hall as a benefit affair.

All committee head reports showed activities. Members are to bring their mothers or some other guest to the regular Mothers day program. The juniors, reported by Mrs. Nell Black, advisor, are sending an Easter basket to their adopted girl at Fairview Home, Salem. The girls wrapped the white elephant sale articles, gathered articles for Camp Adair rehabilitation, sold PTA tickets for the benefit program, and are buying their fourth bond.

Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg, president named her nominating committee to include Mrs. Zanita Hutton, Miss Ina Harold and Mrs. C. J. Towe; and the pet parade committee; Mrs. Carl Haugen; Mrs. T. P. Heidenstrom, Mrs. C. J. Towe, Mrs. Lewis Hall and Mrs. A. J. Titus. For the month of May rummage sale the president named the committee, Mrs. T. P. Heidenstrom, Mrs. Ernest L. Starr, Mrs. Nell Black and Mrs. John Demos.

A late social hour was observed.

experience in child welfare work and accomplished unusual results by her efforts.

The initiatory team from Mt. Angel included Mrs. Fred Lucht, president; Mrs. Cleus Zutsch, sergeant at arms; Mrs. LaVerne Norton, musician; Mrs. May Heggie, chaplain; Mrs. Clifford Norton, first vice president; Mrs. A. G. Treager, second vice president; Mrs. Fred Frosser, junior vice president; and the four initiates, Mrs. R. E. Wik, Mrs. Alfred Peterson, Mrs. Caddie Hutchens and Mrs. Lawrence Rothenfluch.

Others from Mt. Angel included the president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Frank Walker, who was honor guest of the Silverton unit. Mrs. Walker invited the Silverton group to Mt. Angel to the Easter Sunday dedicatory ceremonies in present-

Window Peeper Caught, Silverton

SILVERTON—Samuel G. Ford, 30, who has a two-year penitentiary jail sentence back of him, by his own admission in Florida, is in Marion county's jail awaiting sentence on a window-peeping charge preferred against him in justice court Monday. Judge Alf O. Nelson will pronounce sentence Friday.

Ford was interested in the Mrs. J. C. Owens household Sunday night. Mrs. Owens and her son took after Ford and caught him in an adjoining lot where they held him until police, called by other members of the household, arrived. Night Officer Victor Grossnickle placed Ford under arrest. Ford's previous stretches, one at the penitentiary in Florida and one in a jail, were for house breaking and automobile theft. His bail was placed at $1000.
