

4H Clubs Plan Exhibitions

Achievement Days Being Set; Talk Summer Activities

KEIZER—Plans for an Achievement Day program are nearing completion. Sewing clubs one and two will give a style show, modeling garments made through the year. The first year Cooking club has organized a kitchen band and will play and sing "The Tin Pan Band." Their display will be biscuits and muffins, with explanations of how to make them. Mrs. Kimbal is the leader.

In camp cookers, first and second years, the children will put on a skit. Their first outdoor meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Black, the leader, recently. In the two and three Sewing clubs, members will model dresses and aprons. Exhibitions of Woodworking clubs one, two, three and four will be on display in the basement of the old school building where they will be judged.

FAIRVIEW—"Teaching a Calf to Lead" was the subject of the 4H calf club meeting Saturday morning at the home of Russell Lehman, leader. Each member made a rope halter for his calf. Lehman attended the county 4H leader's meeting Friday night at McMinnville.

RIVERDALE—Work on the 4H posters which pupils of the upper and lower grades will exhibit at the coming 4H Marion county fair was completed last week.

The 4H clubs are rapidly completing their projects and making plans for an achievement day program and exhibition. Leaders of the various clubs are: Mrs. Raymond Eyerly, livestock; Mrs. Barbara Brassfield, cooking; two Mrs. Elsie Carpenter and Frances Nowak, the two health clubs.

The annual Achievement Day program for the 4H clubs will be held Monday night April 26, at eight p.m. All parents and friends are invited.

LABISH CENTER—Barbara Jean Russ has been elected the new secretary of the lower grade Victory Health club. Irene Bibby is the president.

PRINGLE—The 4H Cooking club met after school on Wednesday and voted to continue meetings through the summer as a canning club. Officers elected were Darlene Crossler, president; Norma Holden, vice president; and Jeanne Conklin, secretary and treasurer. The name for the club is the "Victory Canners." Meetings will be held at the various homes and a different method of canning demonstrated at each.

Mrs. Clara Girod, principal of the Pringle school, will be the leader and the group plans to meet once a week for instructions.

SIDNEY—The Happy Cookers completed all record books and discussed them at a recent meeting. It was decided not to send a demonstration and judging to the spring show. The club decided to make a banner to carry in the parade April 30.

The Victory Cookery club two chose Betty Fish and Betty Wintermatal to be the demonstration team and Karl Grens and Alfred McCanna to be the judging team.

Four new pupils who have entered the Sidney school are Frank, Van, Jesse, and Norman Chambers.

Students in Valley Schools Participate In War Effort Activities, Plan Graduation

KEIZER—Pupils have mailed their entries to the Sears, Roebuck "Write an Essay" contest for judging. The essays review crops in the children's victory gardens, and how they are to be preserved. The produce from the gardens will be judged at the county fair this fall. Entering from Keizer were Lora Nelson, eighth grade; Marvin Black, seventh grade and George Baldwin, sixth grade.

Keizer grade school was visited by public health officials this week who gave tuberculosis tests to children in the first grade. The students are studying a poem.

Winning the oral spelling contest among the second graders were Norman Willmot, Fred Rose, Shirley Jean Brantner, Robert Savage, Phyllis Coon, Merle Holmes, Sherrill Brinkley, Ina Shierfield and Vilda Hampton.

Third graders who were in a bike accident were Nancy Lea Savage and Dona O'Connor. All students in the third grade were found to have gained in weight and height.

Fourth grade students are studying Switzerland while the fifth grade is turning to Alaska. Fifth graders are being examined in geography and arithmetic as school will end in six more weeks.

Mrs. Mary A. Pincus, teacher of the sixth grade, resigned to go with her husband, who has been called into the service. When he is sent overseas, she will make her home with her parents in Vermont. Mrs. Perdus will teach the sixth grade. Pupils in the class gave a farewell party for Mrs. Pincus, presenting her with farewell gifts.

Colonials and pre-colonial days and early explorations are being studied by the seventh grade. Pupils bought $16.50 in war stamps.

The tin collection is being conducted still by the eighth grade. The boys are ahead by two cartons. All are making plans for graduation.

All students are making health posters to be exhibited on Achievement day, April 21. The posters will be judged first on Achievement night and later at the fair, where winning posters are to be taken.

RIVERDALE—The pupils of Riverdale school have completed and sent in their "Schools at War" scrap book to Mrs. Agnes C. Booth, Marion county school superintendent. The scrap book was furnished by the treasury department and when completed contained a description of the word that the Riverdale students are doing

First Aid Under Fire Is Being Practiced

SILVERTON HILLS—First aid, setting up field hospitals and work of the medics in the open are being experienced this week by medical corps men from Camp Adair at the Silver Creek recreational area.

Officers of the civilian defense, the civilian defense drivers corps, the Red Cross motor corps were all invited to the field Thursday night to inspect their contracts for 1943-1944.

LABISH CENTER—The pupils of the school are cooperating with the government in the second tin drive. Neighbors are asked to give their cans to some pupil or to leave them at the school. The drive will continue until the middle of May.

Bill LaFountain entered the second grade last Thursday. He formerly attended the Keizer school. He is living on the Briley place which the Raglands recently vacated.

County tests were given in the lower grades last week and achievement tests were given to the fifth and seventh grades. The pupils have been making Easter bunnies and baskets.

The students of the school have a war stamp drive on. They are trying to see how many life preservers they can help buy by May 15. Each preserver costs $5 and it is hoped that at least $250 worth can be purchased.

WEST SALEM—The drive for the collection of tin in West Salem is being conducted by the children of the school, with remarkable success. This drive ends May 19. Every can and scrap of tin should be collected and delivered to the school on or before that date.

The pupils sent Lucille Rogers, who was seriously injured some time ago, a plant. The upper grade pupils also each sent letters to inform her of school activities and encourage her. She will be unable to return to school this home of Mrs. Olive Hedges. Mrs. Carl Irvin and Mrs. Thelma Tallent spent Monday night and Tuesday in Portland.

Mrs. Will Mattison and Mrs. Doris Miller were Portland visitors Wednesday.

Grange to Hold Contest Again

Canning, Jelly Making Trial Set; Reider Talks on Labor

FAIRFIELD—The Marion county Pomona grange met at Fairfield Wednesday with Rex Hartley, the Pomona master, in charge.

Memorial services were held for three members, Mrs. Ida Nipple of Stayton, Ben Simpson of Ankeny and W. H. Jackson of Butteville.

Mrs. Verna Scott, Pomona home economics chairman, gave a report on the home economics clubs in the 15 granges in the county. She also announced that the canning and jelly contest will be held again this year. Miss Frances Clinton talked on the work of the home demonstration units throughout the county and told of a meeting to be held at the YMCA in Salem on May 3 to plan the program of the home demonstration agent for the coming year.

County Agent Robert Reider spoke on the farm prices, farm labor program in Oregon and in Marion county. The year around farm laborer from the middle west states may be secured for work on the farm. Seasonal labor will not be as easy to secure as in former years, so we shall have to depend on our own community to help.

Appearing on the afternoon program were Mrs. A. B. Wiesner, Mrs. V. D. Scott, Rosalie Scherber, with Mrs. F. T. Fox accompanying group singing.

Legislative topics were discussed by Roy Rice, Oscar Lee and George Sandner. Mr. Sandner was named alternate delegate to the state grange convention at Eugene in June.

Mrs. A. B. Wiesner was appointed Flora of Pomona grange, the office made vacant by the death of Mrs. Myra Hendricks.

Reports of the progress of the county's two juvenile granges, Silverton Hills and Union Hill were

Valley Churches Announce Preparations For Good Friday, Easter Sunrise Services

SILVERTON—Easter church services began Thursday night in many of the local churches including Catholic and Lutheran.

At Trinity church there will be Good Friday services at 10:30 a.m. and at Immanuel church there will be Good Friday services at 7:30 p.m. Calvary Lutheran church also will observe Good Friday, as will the Catholic church.

Easter will be observed with special programs in all churches with the exception of Trinity, where church members will join with Immanuel for the 11 o'clock services. However there will be an Easter sunrise service at Trinity at 8:30 and an Easter program by the Trinity Sunday school at 10 a.m. At the 11 o'clock hour at Immanuel, the Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr will speak on "He Is Risen" and there will be special music by the joint choir directed by Mrs. Tom Anderson. Immanuel Sunday school will give a special Easter program at 3 p.m.

Easter songs will be featured at the 9:15 Sunday school hour at the Methodist church with Fred Yaker, superintendent, directing. At 11 o'clock the Rev. O. Leonard Jones will speak on "From Darkness to Dawn" and the choir will provide special music. Baptism and the receiving of new members will be featured and the Easter offering will be dedicated to the world service. The young adults will meet Sunday night at the home of Orle Russell.

Miss Olga Johnson will direct the special Sunday school programs at Calvary Lutheran church Sunday at 10 o'clock and at 11 o'clock the Rev. O. C. Olson will speak on "Easter Means Victory." Special music is being arranged by the choir. The Sunday school members will give a program Sunday night. The Naomi society of Calvary will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. K. O. Rue.

Sunrise services will be held at the Christian church at 6 a.m. with Pauline Neal as leader, and speakers Robert Neal and Glenn Holman from the Northwest Christian college as speakers. A mixed quartet will sing and Marilyn Moe will play the violin. An Easter breakfast will follow. Bible school will furnish the program at 9:45 a.m. with J. J. Johnson as superintendent. At 11 o'clock the Rev. E. Gilbert Cayes will speak on "An Event which given by Mrs. F. T. Fox, county juvenile matron.

The next meeting will be the third Wednesday in June at Macleay.

Changed the World." Mr. and Mrs. Cayes will sing "A Vision of Angels" from the cantata, "Resurrection of Hope" by Carrie B. Adams. Christian Endeavor will meet at 7 p.m. and at 8 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Cayes will speak on "Not Far from the Kingdom." Mrs. Cayes will be soloist. On Good Friday night, Rev. Cayes will talk at 8 o'clock on "What Jesus Teaches About the Final Judgment."

TURNER—In observance of Good Friday, union services will be held at the Turner Methodist church at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon with the pastor, Rev. Paul Jaquith, presiding. Other churches of Turner will participate in the pre-Easter service.

Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Turner Christian church, special pre-Easter services will start for a three day period, featuring Allan Lee, baritone, of Yakima, Wash. The pastor, Rev. Gene Robinson, will preside. The church choir will sing at each service under the direction of Mrs. Grace Braley.

WEST SALEM—Rev. Riddell Weisie returned from Junction City where he has been assisting Rev. William Tennant in conducting pre-Easter services. Beginning Monday night, the speakers discussed topics effecting everyday living and helping to shape the social life of the post war world. Subjects under discussion were "The Leader," "The Present Day Opportunity," and "The Might of the Anguished."

Under the last topic, the two pointed out that the greatest danger lies not in sabotage or internal enemies, but in the excuse, "I'm too busy."

Rev. Kelsie conducted an Easter communion service at West Salem Thursday. Mrs. Kelsie led the intermediate league at the parsonage Tuesday. Topic for discussion was, "What Vocation or Profession Shall I Choose for My Life Work?" The program included group singing.
