The village's only representative (as far as he knows) at the navy's school at University of Minnesota, Electrician's Mate Third Class Dan Morley, our city softball player and writer of last summer, home on short leave with brand new Mrs. Morley. Brand new since they've only been married a month.

Sports Sparker Sums Up Situation

Eye-witness info on two of our ballgaming ex-Senators, Ron Smith and Charlie Petersen, comes from your old friend and "Sports Sparker" Ron Gemmell, who happened to be on hand at the game in which Smitty got beat by the Seals last week. Fact is, the info concerns more than just Smith and Pete, to wit:

"Was out to see the Seals and Twinks play what is entitled Double-A baseball yesterday and the day before. It's pretty sorry ball, though, Al. Too many has-beens and aren't-yets. Such scum-bags as Sad Sam Gibson, Babe Herman and Gusie Suhr are just too damned old, while kids like Tod Davis, Art Lilly and Ronnie Smith just aren't quite ready.

"Smith started for the Twinks and the same old youngster trouble was evident. He was nervous, didn't go clear through with his delivery, was trying to aim the apple and hence was just wild enough to keep himself in trouble. He does look like a prospect, however, with a lot of work and some good advice needed.

Shame Pete Rides the Splinters

"He'd have had to pitch a runless game to beat the Seals, as Ray Harrell was hotter than the Tunisian tussle—shutting off the Stars with a first-inning run on two of the five hits he allowed.

"Charlie Petersen is still riding the splinters, while fly balls he'd have in his hip pocket drop all around the aged Steinbacher and Trenchy' Uhalt. O'Doul hasn't as yet given him a looksee in the far patches. He's been using him at the 1B post most of the time."

"And while in the vicinity, here's what Sna Francisco Chronicle Bob Stevens gathered while watching Smith have his debut rained: "Young Ronnie Smith, fresh out of the defunct Western International league, made the Texas steer destroyer (Harrell) work for his win, and might still be wheeling and dealing had not an error victimized him in the first panel. Lean, fast but wild, Smith was only two runs behind the count when he was lifted for a pinchhitter in the eighth."

What Happened to Frits Waskowitz

What happened to Air Corps Capt. Frits Waskowitz, in 1937 the Washington Husky triple-threat, as told by Correspondent Ira Wolfert to Bill Leiser, "Frisco Chronicle sports ed:

"He was a captain and a great flyer and immensely popular with his outfit. He was flying in formation on the rear right in his B-17, the "Blue Goose."

"They were attacked by Jap Zero planes and set one afire. An unusual accident followed. Fire in the cockpit of this one Zero forced its pilot to rare back, pulling the stick with him, and turning his plane straight up and into the under belly of the B-17. Captain Waskowitz' plane, still loaded with bombs, exploded in mid-air."

His death has been officially reported.

On the Salem Golfers

By THE TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE

The "unknown soldier" showed up on the Salem layout Saturday, only this one was very much alive. So much in fact that he holed out his tee shot on No. 8 for an ace.

"Say, what's your name?" he was asked, as hole-in-ones are few and far between.

"Uh-uh," declined the happy one. "Ain't supposed to be out here today, so no name please."

A number of first round matches in the City Open were battled off Saturday with the following results:

In the championship flight Bob Sederstrom defeated Bob Burns 1 up; Harry Wahlgren downed Jack Nash 1 up; "Monk" Alley tripped Bill Goodwin 3 and 1, and Glen Lengren upset the meet's medalist, Bill Stacey, 2 up. Also in the championship flight terrific battle was waged between Pat Petrol and Millard Fekar with the former nailing Fekar finally 1 up after 25 holes.

First flight matches wound up; O. E. McCrary downed Bob King,

2 and 1; R. N. Baldock defeated Al Gustafson 2 up; Eugene Kitzmiller tripped up Bud Waterman 1 up; Jim Sheldon whacked Leo Estey 2 and 1.

In second flight play Hi Haman ousted R. Merrill 1 up and then did likewise to Ted Chambers 1 up also. Chambers had earlier eliminated H. Wood 4 and 3. Buzz Fisher defeated Steve Kraus 4 and 3. John East downed Jack Emilen 4 and 2.

E. C. Payne defaulted to "Doc" Bates and R. I. McLaughlin measured off Ross Coppock 2 up to complete the day's tourney firing.

"Lefty" Don Young was again persistent with his movements for a committee of one on an unannounced something or other. Whatever it is and just what Young wants will be announced Monday.

By SID FEDER
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 24 (P)—There's no Bourbon to speak of or to drink, transportation is a joke unless you're looking for some, and even the country ham is rationed—but they're running the 69th Kentucky derby here next Saturday right on schedule.

And from it will come either the greatest horse since Man's War or the biggest bust since the two-back bill was invented for "investment" purposes on the out-burners.

For if Count Fleet doesn't win this big barn dance at the downs come May day the blue grass will be broke, the hard-boots will check up on those "do you need money?" radio programs, and in general, the folks will discover the back end of the old race track gag about "chicken one day and the feathers the next."

That's how much they're counting on Mrs. John D. Hertz' whim-bag to do what his Daddy Reigh Count did in the mud here back in '28. And up to now the Hertz hurricane hasn't done a thing to make you believe he can't. Even Saturday morning, with a cut hind foot that's just healing up, he splashed over a sloppy track to a zipping 1:16 six furlong workout.

Take 5-2 Win From State Pen Tossers

It took 'em 11 solid innings to do it, but Willamette's Bearcat ballgamers kept up their winning ways Saturday despite the week-long layoff previously and bashed out a 5-2 win over the Prison Grays. The combined hurling efforts of Bill Hanauka, Ammon Adams and Hal McAbee muffled the bad boys with five blows over the distance, but Tom Ward, big Grays' righthander, matched all three 'Cat servers for 10 innings, and despite allowing seven hits through the tenth went into the 11th with a 2-2 tie.

Then Don Hilton, Bud Larson and Clint Cameron, the 'Cats' 1-2-3 punch all season, whopped out successive singles with Clint's driving the first tally. An error, a fly ball and an infield out and the Keene clan had three and victory.

Cameron had the most fun at the Grays' expense by socking a perfect 4 for 4. He also took charge of the 'Cats' first run, when in the fourth inning he drove Larson across with a smash to right.

Hanauka was touched for one run in the second on hits by Storm and Bailey. A hit by Fuller, a stolen base, a fly and an infield out got the only other Prison run off McAbee in the seventh.

The 'Cats go to Corvallis next for their second of three games this season against Oregon State.

With 4-Hitter; Webfoots Leading

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 24-(P)—Oregon State knocked the University of Washington out of first place in the northern division Coast conference baseball race Saturday behind Don Cecil's four-hit pitching, 7 to 0.

Cecil, making his first conference appearance, struck out 10 and scattered Washington's hits, three of them by second baseman, Wenke.

The Staters scored one run in the second inning, and took a commanding lead in the third as Bill McCluskey doubled with the bases loaded to drive in three runs. McCluskey drove in another run in the sixth with a single. The Beavers last two tallies came in the eighth on a single, two walks and two errors.

The result dropped Washington into second place, boosting idle Oregon in front. Oregon State remained in third place.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 24-(P)—Seattle won its first Coast league game of the season Saturday, overcoming San Diego's five run, first inning outburst to nose out the Padres, 7 to 5. The Rainiers tallied for three runs in the ninth to halt their five-game losing streak.

Bill Lawrence and Bill Kats, in the role of pinch hitters in the ninth, delivered timely blows to help drive in the needed tallies. Joe Coscarart walked to start the inning, and Lawrence, batting for Hal Suene, doubled. Sylvester Johnson singled Coscarart home.

Kats batted for Pete Jonas and singled to score Lawrence, and Bill Matheson singled to bring Johnson home.

SACRAMENTO, April 24 (P)—Using four pitchers, including Manager Ken Penner, who was celebrating his 47th birthday, in a vain attempt to halt the rampaging Portland Beavers, the hapless Sacramento Senators dropped their fifth loss against a single victory Saturday 9 to 2.

Wayne Osborne, bespectacled righthander, went the route for the Beavers, giving up eight hits.

Portland touched Johnny Pinfar, the Solon starter, for two runs in the first frame, as Johnny O'neil singled for the first of his four hits, Rupert Thompson drew a walk and Larry Barton doubled to right.

Three more Beaver runs crossed the plate in the fourth and with Jim McFadden, 16-year-old rookie from San Diego, on the mound, the Beavers added two scores in the eighth on hits by Redmond, O'neil and Rogers. Penner, who hurled the final frame for the Solons, also was touched for a pair of runs when he walked Barton and Gulle and gave up singles to Redmond and Osborne.
