

Miss Smith Married At Home

The wedding of Miss Gloria Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith and Staff Sergeant Robert Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williams of Randolph, Vermont, was solemnized in the home of the bride's parents on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Loyl Vickers of Corvallis performed the ceremony before the flower-banked fireplace. Calla lilies and pink snapdragons were used and tall tapers were arranged in candelabras.

The bride wore a dress suit of rose crepe, and navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of orchids. Her maid of honor, Miss June Ramey, wore light blue suit and a corsage of gardenias.

Staff Sgt. Samuel J. Dreff attended the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the woman's clubhouse. Lilies and snapdragons decorated the rooms, and presiding at the table, which was covered with a white lace cloth and centered by pink and white carnations arranged in silver, and guarded by white tapers, were Mrs. A. L. Kullander of Vernonia and Mrs. R. L. Kullander of Milwaukie. Miss June Ramey, Miss Lillian Holechek, Mrs. Keith Peterson, Miss Connie Johnson and Miss Betty Addison served.

Mrs. E. E. Addison, Mrs. C. O. Sloper, and Mrs. G. G. Madison were in charge of the reception and Mrs. Cora Berry of the decorations. Miss Wanda Messinger played the piano during the reception hours.

When the bride and groom left for a honeymoon at the beaches, the bride was wearing a turquoise blue suit with a white topper and navy accessories. Upon their return they will reside at the Stratton apartments while Staff Sgt. Williams is stationed at Camp Adair and until he leaves for training in the air corps. Mrs. Williams is employed in the Oregon Physicians service.

Relatives attending the wedding were Mrs. Lucy Smith, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kullander, Vernonia; Miss Carrie Quasford, Mrs. Carol Blumberger, Portland, and the bride's parents.

Members of the Salem Junior Women's club were hostesses on Monday night at the woman's clubhouse, at a party for prospective members of the club. Twelve guests were present.

Cards were played during the evening, with high scores going to Miss Elizabeth Bagley for bridge, Miss Kathleen Osborne for pinocchle, Mrs. Amos Bierly for battleship.

The program featuring the club scrapbook, included "Scrapbook Sketches" in which past presidents and committee members gave brief talks on the work of the club. Mrs. Leonard Kephart, the club's first president, discussed the organization and the purpose of the Junior Women's club. Mrs. Clinto Stading, a past president, talked about the federation and its meaning to the Junior clubs. Mrs. Verne Robb discussed philanthropic work of the group and Mrs. Joseph Felton talked on the state and national conventions and talked about the coming state convention in Salem. War service work was discussed by Mrs. Fred Gast and the club's social activities were the subject of Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer's discussion.

The scrapbook, in charge of Mrs. Robert Worrall and Mrs. W. G. Nibler this year was on display. A group of songs were sung by Mrs. Felton, Mrs. Stading, Mrs. Lee Crawford and Mrs. Roy Mink. Miss Margaret Mullen played several piano solos.

Tea was served at a table centered with an arrangement of spring flowers, guarded by ivory tapers. Mrs. Leonard Kephart presided.

Cards were played during the evening, with high scores going to Miss Elizabeth Bagley for bridge, Miss Kathleen Osborne for pinocchle, Mrs. Amos Bierly for battleship.

The program featuring the club scrapbook, included "Scrapbook Sketches" in which past presidents and committee members gave brief talks on the work of the club. Mrs. Leonard Kephart, the club's first president, discussed the organization and the purpose of the Junior Women's club. Mrs. Clinto Stading, a past president, talked about the federation and its meaning to the Junior clubs. Mrs. Verne Robb discussed philanthropic work of the group and Mrs. Joseph Felton talked on the state and national conventions and talked about the coming state convention in Salem. War service work was discussed by Mrs. Fred Gast and the club's social activities were the subject of Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer's discussion.

The scrapbook, in charge of Mrs. Robert Worrall and Mrs. W. G. Nibler this year was on display. A group of songs were sung by Mrs. Felton, Mrs. Stading, Mrs. Lee Crawford and Mrs. Roy Mink. Miss Margaret Mullen played several piano solos.

Tea was served at a table centered with an arrangement of spring flowers, guarded by ivory tapers. Mrs. Leonard Kephart presided.

The committee for the party Monday night included Mrs. Worrall, Mrs. Nibler, Mrs. Wayne J. Page, Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond, Mrs. Crawford, Miss Nellie Forster and Miss Margaret Mullen.

Before the party a special initiation ceremony was held for Mrs. A. D. Stephenson, who is living in Salem while Lt. Col. Stephenson is stationed at Camp Adair.

Servicewomen

What they can do
What they're doing about it

Two Salem women, members of the United States Marine Corps Women's Reserve, were recently ordered to report for their recruit training at Hunter college, New York. They will leave Salem April 29.

They are Private Mary C. McCall, route 2, box 183, and Private Louise Ramage, 1106 Leslie street.

Both women were enlisted through the Salem marine corps recruiting office. Private McCall was sworn in March 24 and Private Ramage, March 25.

After they complete their training they will be assigned to active duty at a marine corps base, or be sent to a specialist school.

Matching her husband's navy blue against the khaki of the women's army, Mrs. Madeline Oliver of Salem enrolled in the WAAC at Portland's recruiting headquarters. Her husband, Kenneth A. Oliver, was recently commissioned an ensign in the navy. She also has a sister, Auxiliary Sabina Morrison, in the WAAC.

Mrs. Oliver is a graduate of Willamette university and is a former student at the University of Washington. Mrs. Oliver has been a cannery employee, newspaperwoman and school teacher.

Her mother, Mrs. Katherine Schmidt, lives in Salem.

Auxiliary Letha Maude Sunzeri, of route two, box 40, Salem, has completed basic training at the First Women's Army Auxiliary Corps Training Center in Ft. Des Moines, and has been selected for specialist training in bakers and cooks school.

YOU WOMEN WHO SUFFER FROM HOT FLASHES

If you suffer from hot flashes, dizziness, distress of "irregularities", are weak, nervous—due to the functional "middle-age" period in a woman's life—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It's helped thousands upon thousands of women to relieve such annoying symptoms. Follow label directions. Pinkham's Compound is worth trying!
