

FBI Man Tells Kiwanians of US Protection

One of the most pressing problems here at home in connection with the war effort is sabotage, R. P. Kramer, special agent for the FBI, told Salem Kiwanians Tuesday, while reporting that so far there has been "no successful act of foreign-directed sabotage in the United States."

Out of the 8000 reports of suspected sabotage, all were attributed by the FBI to negligence, carelessness or to indirect sabotage, which Kramer defined as that committed by persons who have no connection with foreign agencies and who have no intention of wrong doing but who impede the war effort.

In 1939 the FBI started organizing the United States against sabotage by suggesting a program to protect government plans and workmen in industrial plants and

Teachers Get 1st Pay Rise In 14 Years

EUGENE, April 22—(AP)—The state board of higher education Tuesday authorized the first general pay boost since Oregon's higher education system was created 14 years ago and announced appointment of Dr. David W. E. Baird as dean of the University of Oregon medical school.

Approximately 60 per cent of the increase in wages and salaries to employes and staff members of the state's institutions will go to those making less than $200 monthly, more than 74 per cent to those receiving less than $250. This is the breakdown:

A 25 per cent increase for staff members making $1,200 annually or less; 20 per cent for those between $1,200 and below $1,800; 15 per cent on the first $1,800 only for those making more than $1,800. The increases are effective as of April 1.

Chancellor R. M. Hunter said that funds provided by the last legislature would not be adequate to cover the increases but institutional budget reductions would take care of the remainder.

Dr. Baird's elevation from acting dean of the Portland medical school becomes effective June 30. He will succeed Dr. R. B. Dillehunt, whose health is causing him to retire. Dr. Dillehunt, who has been dean since 1920, will become dean emeritus.

Dr. Baird, 44-year-old native of Baker, will receive a salary of $7,000 annually. He graduated from the school in 1926, became assistant professor of medicine in 1932, associate dean in 1937, acting dean in 1941.

The board estimated the system's annual operating budget would be about $3,225,000, trimmed some $200,000 by non-replacement of staff members called to war work.

SEBRING, Fla., (AP)—"Lots of business, but nobody to wait on the customers," C. H. Yarbrough, pharmacist, said Saturday in explanation of closing his thriving drug store.

He hung this sign on the door: "Closed on account of no help."
