Property Tax Waiver Banned By New Law

After August 15 of this year there can be no waiver of interest on delinquent personal property taxes of any year, Sheriff A. C. Burk declared Wednesday, reminding the taxpaying public of Marion county that amendments to state tax legislation which go into effect June 9 of this year have changed considerably the restrictions and allowances in the process of "catching up" on tax payments.

Delinquent real property taxes of 1930 and prior years will be permitted no waiver of interest after August 15, 1944, under the amended law, but 1935 taxes are, under that statute, included with those of 1934 and prior years, and made subject to waiver of interest.

August 15 is substituted for December 31 as final date for payments of taxes each year to secure waiver of interest on delinquent taxes of 1935 and prior years.

Under the remade law all property owners who pay in full on or before August 15, 1943, their taxes for the first six months of 1943 and those for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, may secure a waiver of interest on payments of delinquent taxes of 1935 and prior years, providing each such payment of delinquent taxes is not less than one-quarter of the taxes of the earliest year of delinquency and is made on or before August 15, 1943.

Although the amendments will not be law until June 9, the benefits under it are available to all taxpayers now, Burk said Wednesday, acting under advice from the state tax commission.

WU Players to Present Famed 'Arsenic and Old Lace' Here

Comedy and suspense are combined in the production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" Saturday at the high school auditorium as the Willamette university players present their May week-end play.

A Broadway hit which starred Boris Karloff, "Arsenic and Old Lace" features murder and weird atmosphere together with riotous comedy in a fantastic situation.

The play is directed by Mrs. Margaret Ringwald.

Dale Golluh plays the part Karloff made famous as the mad villain of the piece. Charles Lovell appears as his accomplice, a plastic surgeon who changes the faces of fugitives.

Two sweet old uncles of the villain exhibit the hereditary taint by mercifully poisoning elderly gentlemen who are alone in the world. They are played by Lois Phillips and Edna Mae Hopper.

Bob Simmons plays another nephew who imagines himself President Teddy Roosevelt.

Romantic leads are played by Leonard Steinbock and Lenore Myers. Corydon Blodgett has been on the force temporarily for twelve years until he can get his play produced. His hard-boiled superior is played by Hal Adams.

Bob Ratcliff plays the part of a minister. Leroy Long an elderly gentleman on whom the old ladies have designs. Marion Crews the superintendent of an insane asylum who comes to take the old ladies and is himself taken.

Loren Winterscheid and Ed Hughell play two unsuspicious policemen. Bill Habernicht is cast twice in the role of corpse.

Lost Resignation Puzzles Officials

Officials here Wednesday were wondering what became of the resignation of C. M. Ryerson, member of the state industrial accident commission.

Ryerson said Tuesday that he had submitted his resignation to Governor Snell on January 14, to become effective July 1.

Snell Wednesday denied that he had received Ryerson's resignation.

Rotary Club Hears Address On Champog

The truth about Champog abides midway between the two extreme viewpoints, Leslie M. Scott, state treasurer, told Salem Rotarians at their luncheon Wednesday. The provisional government was established, he declared, in 1843 at the two Champog meetings, May 2 and July 5.

Taking for his topic "Torturing History, or a Plague on Two Houses," Scott said it was not true that the Champog decision "saved Oregon for the United States," nor was it on the other hand true that a provisional government had been established in 1841. In that earlier year, he said, what happened was that the Methodist missionary party arranged through "committee action" for the proposing of Ewing Young's estate.

The speaker quoted from an unpublished document, the 1844 report of the provisional government's legislative committee to the legislature, a reference to the decision "last year" to establish a form of government. He quoted several authorities to the effect that no government existed in 1842.

As for the story of Joe Meek's dramatic call for a "divide" at the May 2, 1843, meeting, Scott said it may have been literally true but certainly was "allegorically true" since there was disagreement between the American and Canadian settlers and the Americans won out.

The Champog centennial's "pedigree" is clearer than that of the Old Oregon Trail, for the trail had been traversed as early as 1819 and the great migration of 1843 followed a "beaten path," Scott observed.

The speaker was introduced by Charles A. Sprague. Music week recognition arranged by Miss Ruth Bedford included violin numbers by Geraldine Schomker and songs by a girls' sextette from the Episcopal church junior choir.

Sugar is Energy you Need

THE REASON that sugar is rationed is not to deny you sugar... it's to make sure that you and 135,000,000 other U.S. citizens can all share the available supply of this great energy food.

How much sugar you will be allotted this summer for table use—and for canning—will depend on many things. One of these factors is the amount of sugar America produced last season.

We're proud that western sugar beet growers and Spreckels Sugar Company, working together, were able to add 300,000,000 lbs. of Honey Dew sugar to the nation's supply. All in a single season.

Three hundred million pounds is a lot of sugar in any part of the world. Produced on our West Coast, it will go a long way toward helping meet Army, Navy and Lend-Lease needs—and millions of civilians' needs as well.

It's good to know that this home-grown Honey Dew sugar is as pure and sweet and fine in grain as any sugar in the world. Perfect for table use—ideal for home canning. Get your full share—all that U.S. ration coupons provide for your family. Spreckels Honey Dew is available at most grocery stores. It's a sugar we know you'll like.
