WASHINGTON (AP)—In case you've run out of points and can buy no more butter, it may be some comfort to know that the United States senate was in the same fix today.

To solons moodily munching dry biscuits, the senate restaurant manager explained: "No ration points; no butter."

Guest Speakers Commend Pioneer On Fire District

PIONEER - The Pioneer community meeting was held at the play shed Saturday night. Hugh Walker and Glen Wicks of Dallas were guest speakers.

They talked on organizing the community to combat fires and how each man should be ready at all times with his equipment.

They commended the community on its progress in having arrows placed showing where each family lived in case of a fire in the homes.

Roy Black is chairman of the organization for the community. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Wells.

Miss Packer Talks On Tomatoes, Fruits

PLEASANTDALE - Ten members attended the last meeting of the season of the Dayton Home Demonstration Unit held all day Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McFarlane.

Miss Hazel Parker of McMinnville, Yamhill county demonstration leader talked on "Home Management" and she showed two reels. One was on the origin of tomatoes, their culture and uses as a food, and the other reel was of citrus fruits, culture, picking, packing and the many uses as every day foods. A lunch was served at noon.
