

Wedding Rite Read At Church

INDEPENDENCE—At an impressive ceremony at the Calvary Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, Miss Lillian Holechek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holechek of Independence, became the wife of Sge. Robert Tiernan, son of Mrs. Margaret Sorgie of Washington, Pennsylvania. Rev. Ralph Wagner officiated.

The ceremony was performed before an altar banked with bridal veil and fern and guarded by lighted white tapers in tall candelabra. Baskets of salmon snapdragons and calla lilies were also used. Mrs. C. O. Sloper had charge of the decorations. Preceding the ceremony Miss Frazier, sang "Because" and "At Dawning" and was accompanied by Miss Margaret Mullin who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white chiffon marquisette dress, fashioned with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was caught up with a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore a pearl necklace. Her flowers were white carnations, lilies-of-the-valley centered with an orchid. Miss Bessie Holechek of Albany was bridesmaid for her cousin. She wore a gown of aqua chiffon and carried amber-colored roses. Johnny Holechek was ring bearer, and Retha Lavonne Holechek was flower girl.

Best man for Mr. Tiernan was Staff Sergeant Albert Hansen. Ushers were Clarence Primus, Leroy Amon of Mt. Angel, Braden Daggett of Albany and John Holechek.

The bride's mother was dressed in a navy blue silk suit and wore navy accessories. Her corsage was red roses. Mrs. Sorgie who came from Pennsylvania for her son's wedding wore a navy blue silk suit with white accessories. Her corsage was also of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the Woman's club building. The clubhouse was decorated with narcissus, iris, bridal wreath and fern. The serving table was covered with an eyelet embroidered cloth. The table was centered with a wedding cake which was topped a military bride and groom. The cake was guarded with crystal candelabra with burning white tapers.

Mrs. John Holechek cut the cake. Mrs. Keith Peterson poured. Mrs. Leroy Amon of Mt. Angel cut the ices. Miss June Ramey officiated at the punch bowl and Miss Marvel Coon had charge of the guest book. Serving were Misses Betty Zumwalt, Louise Melvin, Betty Addison and Connie Johnson.

Following the reception the young couple left for a brief honeymoon at the beach. For going away Mrs. Tiernan wore a suit of aqua blue with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids. On their return they will live in Salem.

Mrs. Tiernan is a graduate of the Independence high school and attended Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. For the last year she has been employed in Salem by the Oregon state liquor board. Mr. Tiernan is a graduate of the high school at Washington, Pa., and attended Washington college. Prior to entering the army he was assistant manager of a department store in his home town.

The PLE and F club met with Mrs. Mary Aplin Wednesday night. After a short business session "500" was in play, prizes going to Mrs. C. J. Pugh and Miss Daisy Hayden. Refreshments were served by the hostess at a late hour.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT—Some leftover meat in your refrigerator, a few leftover vegetables, carrots or an onion, leftover gravy can all be used up in one fell swoop, or rather in one meat pie. Combine cooked meat (cubed or diced), diced vegetables and gravy in a baking dish and top with a biscuit or pastry "lid." We like to vary our crusts with a teaspoon of caraway or celery seeds in the biscuit or pastry dough, and it's fun to cut it into a variety of shapes. Season the meat mixture well and bake the entire in a hot oven until the meat and vegetables are piping hot and the crust browned. If a meat pie sounds tempting and you haven't any leftovers, just make a savory stew according to your favorite recipe, pour into a casserole and top with a pastry or biscuit "lid."

LIBERTY—Mrs. W. R. Dallas was hostess at the last meeting of the season of the Liberty Woman's club at her home Thursday. Due to threatening weather the luncheon was held indoors instead of picnic style.

The annual election of officers was held and these will head the club next season: president, Mrs. S. B. Davidson; vice president, Mrs. Mason Bishop; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. John Daseh. The new officers were installed by Mrs. Bishop. The standing committees made reports of year's activity.

It was announced that the club will go forward in the next season with one meeting a month for Red Cross work and the second meeting will be devoted to the home demonstration program sponsored by the home demonstration agent for the county.

The club again is sponsoring the newly organized Girl Scout troop. Mrs. Dorothy Stewart is troop leader and Miss Jacqueline Judd assistant leader.

The club will make application for the purchase of a pressure canner for use of the women of the community. Since these may be purchased by groups working cooperatively, the club will then make the cooker available to women and charge a small fee for its use. This is to eventually pay for the cooker. Women interested in using the pressure cooker are asked to get in touch with Mrs. C. W. Stacey.

OAK POINT—Mrs. Grove Peterson and Mrs. Z. Bartel entertained the Independence Rural Woman's club at the Peterson home Tuesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Clyde Comstock opened the meeting with the flag salute, the singing of America and the club motto. The club received $11.70 from their share of the sale of Farm Journal and Farmers Wife magazine.

It was voted to have the annual club picnic with the school children at their school picnic on the school grounds June 5. Mrs. Hugh Rogers, Hazel Hughes and Mrs. Grove Peterson were appointed to assist the teacher in planning games and to purchase prizes. The club voted to furnish refreshments to soldiers at the USO center in Independence Saturday night, May 22. The next regular meeting will be the second Tuesday in Oct. Mrs. Ralph Kletzing, jr., was a guest.

INDEPENDENCE—A shower honoring Mrs. Francis Krieg of Portland was given Friday night by Mrs. Lyle Storey at her home. Guests enjoyed games and visiting. Mrs. Krieg received many lovely gifts.

Present were Mrs. Krieg, Mrs. George Knott, Mrs. Irma Kylo, Mrs. Dean Girard, Mrs. Guy Travis, Mrs. R. M. Stapleton, Miss Maxine Carey, Mrs. William Fuller, Mrs. Homer Plunkett, and Mrs. Lyle Storey.

Today's Menu

Volunteers Work on Rationing

Women of Salem are responding generously to the war price and rationing board's call for volunteer workers to serve during the "canning sugar rush" which begins today according to Mrs. Florence Bell, head of that phase of the office's work here.

Fifteen from the Salem Woman's club were listed Friday for such assistance, while the Council of Church Women is outlining a plan for regular aid at the rationing office. Several bridge clubs are to give a full day at regular intervals and other women's groups are expected to volunteer similarly, Mrs. Bell said Friday night.

Office hours at the rationing office are 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., and the discomfort encountered last year has been largely done away with since quarters have been established in the Nelson building, corner of Chemsoketa and Liberty streets. On the ground floor the new office has sufficient floor space to make unnecessary such crowding as was experienced in the city hall council chambers last year.

A reminder that each applicant must bring ration book No. 1 for each member of the family for which a canning ration is sought was issued Friday by Mrs. Bell, and a clarification of the status of those persons who have already secured a small canning ration for rhubarb. The sugar allocated for the rhubarb will be subtracted from the 25 pounds allowed per person.

Mrs. Dixon Visits

CLOVERDALE—Mrs. Margaret Dixon, Portland, visited last weekend with Mrs. Nellie Hamilton. Years ago Mrs. Dixon taught school in the Crawford district.

Left, cream colored blouse with ruffles; top right, plaid blouse; below, classic white shirtwaist. Ever since the first spring collections appeared, the vogue for blouses has been growing. Designers have put out new lines to supplement the already large collections, adding new style tricks and making excellent use of the new fabrics. Soft styling continues to be the keynote of the blouse symphony. The three models above are good examples of these smart suit accessories. At left is a blouse whose creamy lace ruffles and matching cream colored rayon crepe are used in very feminine fashion, with lingerie touches at wrist and neckline. Top right is a plaid acetate rayon taffeta in bright rose, green and blue. It has a tricky convertible scarf neckline. The classic white shirtwaist, below, has a two-button closing, full sleeves with tight wristbands, and is made of snowy corded rayon marquisette.

HIS BASEBALL FINAL

* yours a month ago!

Chances are he's eating up the diamond dope that was old stuff to you a month ago—even two or three months ago. A soldier on the battlefield is like that. The longer he is away from his homeland the closer he clings to the things of his former life—such as baseball.

From all the world's fighting fronts soldiers send the same request—for MORE news, for the season's ball schedules, clippings of their favorite sports columnist, gags, cartoons—anything for a laugh and a boost in spirit. And when they get it they pass the precious news around from hand to hand till it's worn out.

It's never enough—and it can't be. After all, a soldier doesn't expect to have today's newspaper delivered to his foxhole.

You, on the home front, are luckier, and next time you pick up your newspaper you might give that a thought—in deference to the boy pictured above.
