Scioans Take County Exams

Teachers to Wind Up Year on June 3; Scholarships Told

SCIO — County examinations in arithmetic, spelling and geography will be given May 25 to fifth through eighth graders at Scio. Seventh and eighth graders will be given achievement tests May 27, and second and third graders will be given final tests May 28. There will be no grade school June 3, when teachers will correct papers and make reports to the county superintendent. All children will report at 9 o'clock June 4 to receive final report cards for the year. Next year's beginners have been attending the primary department this week to get acquainted with school. Scio eighth graders and teachers plan a skating party at Albany May 26 in lieu of graduation exercises, according to Mrs. Leslie Taylor, grade principal. Graduates include: Patsy Martin, Marilyn Schunk, Jeanne Smith, Wanda Sims, Hilda Fleming, Betty Voytek, Pat Denmore, Helen Fleming, Margaret Standley, Phillips Morris, Denell Zander, Tommy Abrahams, Dona Abrahams and Harold Fox.

The grade school has issued an invitation to the public to attend a play day June 2, when games and races will feature the morning program, a picnic lunch on the school grounds will be held at noon, and a program and baseball game will be attractions of the afternoon. June Cyrus, Scio high school graduate this spring, has been given a one-year tuition scholarship to Oregon State college. Miss Cyrus, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Cyrus of Scio, is among 126 graduates in the state to receive the higher schooling opportunity on the basis of scholarship and activities. She was among 12 seniors competing for the Aaron Frank scholarship in Portland last week, in which Don Grosh of Portland was chosen for the four-year scholarship. Last year's Guernsey calf will send Carmen Westenhouse to the 1943 4H summer school at Oregon State college, according to plans announced by the young dairy club member. Carmen, the daughter of Mrs. Gladys Westenhouse of Richardson Gap neighborhood, was a scholarship to the school offered by an Albany firm. She is participating this year in the corn club as well as a dairy club.

Schools Join Graduation, At Union Hill

UNION HILL — Eighth grade graduation exercises were held at the Union Hill grange hall on Monday night for the graduates of the Union Hill, Silver Falls, Valley View, McAlpin and Shaw schools. The hall was beautifully decorated with mixed flowers. Corsages made by the Union Hill Women's club were made and given to each girl graduate and the teachers of the different schools. The program was as follows: March by Mrs. Dolph Heater; song, "Star Spangled Banner" led by Mrs. Frances Duerst; flag salute led by Guy Scott and R. V. Hitchcock; invocation, Rev. Caldwell; group singing, "America the Beautiful" led by Mrs. Duerst; number by Valley View school, "School Days," Peggy Moon; play, "The Voice of the Flag," McAlpin school; song, "Mellow Mountain Moon," by Dickie Thurman and Henry Bartels of Shaw school; recitation, "My Dream Ship," Elvera Henry of Union Hill school; song, "There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere" by Union Hill school; class history by Patricia Heater; class prophecy by Edna Morley; address by Rev. Caldwell; presentation of diplomas by Dolph Heater; singing, "America," led by Mrs. Duerst; benediction, Rev. Caldwell.

Graduates: Union Hill, Max Eugene Hatner, Patricia Mary Heater, Edna Lois Morley; Silver Falls, Harvard Richard Barney; Valley View, James Wesley Gringrich, Ralph David Hofstetter; McAlpin, Fred Louis Lang, Martha Marie Lang; Shaw, Polly Meyers and Dorothy Stagman.

Californians Visit

UNIONVALE — Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Monroe of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived Saturday for a visit with their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Westfall and from here they left Monday to be guests of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cork at Clatskanie. Mr. Monroe is a retired policeman in his home city and they are looking for a permanent location.

Two Will Receive Diplomas Tuesday At Pratum Exercise

PRATUM—Two pupils, Wanda Rodgers and Paul Unruh, will receive diplomas at the eighth grade graduating exercises to be held at the Pratum school Tuesday night, May 25. The class has chosen yellow and white for colors and the snowball for the class flower. The motto is "Step by step, we'll reach the top." The decorations will be planned to correspond to the motto. Dr. Robert Moulton-Gatke of the Willamette university will give the graduating address. Wanda Rodgers will read the class prophecy. Paul Unruh will read the class will.

The practice on the play is proceeding in spite of difficulties due to continued illness on the part of the players. School will close with a picnic at the school Friday, May 28. A committee of the student body will arrange various races and stunts for the forenoon and a ball game in the afternoon. Baccalaureate services will be in the Memorial church Sunday night, May 23 with Rev. D. J. Unruh in charge.

Father Is Visiting With Mrs. Hennies

CLOVERDALE — Mrs. Gertrude Hennies motored to Kings Valley Tuesday and brought back her father, William Anderson, who formerly made his home here. He has spent the winter with other daughters at DeLake and at Kings Valley. Mr. Anderson's health is very poor and he has been under the care of a doctor for some time. Mrs. Hennies taught school in Stayton last year. Elmer Guenther has returned to his work in the Portland shipyards after several days absence because of the flu.
