

Bible School Plans Complete

Opening Date Set June 1; Mennonites Plan School

WEST SALEM — The opening date of the Methodist church Bible school has been changed to June 1-7 from 9 to 11:30 each day. All children from three to high school age are welcome. There will be a small registration fee to cover cost of supplies.

Handiwork will consist of such things as making simulated glass windows, bird houses, wall plaques, tents, etc. A great deal of preparation is being made so that the courses being offered will be interesting. Games will be a part of the program.

Miss Pearl Sherlock, who is the director of religious education in the Oregon conference for the Methodist church, will meet with the teachers on Friday at the parsonage at 2 p. m. to discuss plans for the school.

The superintendent for the beginners department is Mrs. Thomas Alcorn, with Mrs. H. C. White, Mrs. Eldon Newberry, and Miss Bonnie Dickson as assistants. Mrs. Charles Cotes will be superintendent of the primary and junior department. Mrs. D. W. Bradford, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Ridel Kelsie and Miss Marion Burns are to teach in these departments.

Mrs. W. C. Schultz is to superintend the intermediate department with Mrs. Charles Ross as her assistant. Mrs. G. E. Vosburg is registrar; Mrs. Donald Kuhn is secretary of supplies; Mrs. Ridel Kelsie is director.

There is still a need for seed catalogues, wall paper of any size or color, paper, odd pieces of material such as unbleached muslin and prints.

Rev. A. L. Loewen of the Mennonite church with Mrs. Loewen and small son will leave Friday to attend the general conference which meets at Buhler, Kas., May 26 to 30 inclusive. Rev. Henry Hooge will fill Rev. Loewen's pulpit next Sunday. The Mennonite vacation bible school will begin June 15.
