overtaken by a British destroyer

A U-boat was located early this month off northeastern Brazil with insufficient fuel to reach an axis or neutral port and unable to submerge because of engine damage. It was reported that when the British destroyer came upon the surfaced raider there was fight-ing going on in the submarine in which some of the U-boat crew

A few minutes after crewmen picked up by the British, these reports said, a violent explosion sent the U-boat to the bottom. Persons who talked with cap-tured U-best erew members who are still in Recife, said the prisoners knew nothing of the axis defeat in north Africa and stubbornly refused to believe there had been a rout in Tuni-The Edifots was reported sunk 415 miles off the Brazilian island of Fernando Noronha.
