They do not replace any others, but are to be additional members. The council is a policy forming body, active in organizing, now called only in a crisis or when a definite change in policy is contemplated.

Relocation Is Suggested

(R-O) was reported to have been denied admission to some of the conference sessions, proposed that the investigation be made by the house special committee headed by Rep. Smith (D-Va.), now investigating whether government agencies have exceeded authority granted them by congress. He said he had filed with that committee a complaint that American officials in charge of the conference are exceeding their authority.

He also declared that conference delegates were being denied free access to the daily press, when the press was critical of the conference.

Trial Examiner Cuts Testimony In AFL Hearing

PORTLAND, Ore., May 24 (AP)—Further testimony on an AFL claim of monopoly in west coast shippings was barred Monday in the national labor relations board hearing on labor contracts of three Kaiser company shippings here.

Trial Examiner Robert N. Denham, who ordered the halt, said the only issue remaining would be whether an appropriate bargaining unit existed at the time the AFL signed closed-shop agreements with his yards. The CIO contends only a minority of workers was on hand.

Following announcement that the board in Washington had denied a defense request for a 60-day recess, the decision indicated the hearing, now in its 62nd day, would be concluded shortly.

Heavy Bombing Hits Ruhr City

was made up of four-engined giants capable of lugging Britain's biggest block-busters, had to cross the Ruhr's defense system, regarded by the British as the world's most concentrated network of guns, planes, searchlights and detectors. Thirty-eight of the big bombers failed to get back.

Defenses Beaten. When the last planes reached Dortmund, however, smoke already was billowing up as high as 15,000 feet and one pilot said "the flak had become so moderate it didn't worry us." The taming of the guns was accomplished in spite of the fact the Nazis keep an estimated 750,000 men employed on the air raid defenses of western Germany.

It was only 12 days ago that the RAF had set a new record for the weight of bombs dropped by unloading 1,500 tons on Duisburg, another vital Ruhr city. But that mark far surpassed in Sunday night's deluge of scores of four-ton and two-ton block-busters and tens of thousands of incendiaries on Dortmund, whose importance to the Nazi war machine had increased with the transfer there of numerous industries from off-battered Essen.

The number of planes attacking Dortmund were not disclosed, but the air ministry's terse communique, held back six hours longer than usual for meticulous checking, employed the rare superlative "very great strength" in describing the size of the raiding force.

Butchers Rap Point Ration System Here

The point system in rationing is discriminatory against employees in certain occupations, Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of the state declared in their annual convention here Sunday. The organization passed a resolution favoring instead the A, B, and C cards system.

Protest also was voiced against uncontrolled cold storage locker systems, which the convention maintained, benefits the few, and against the rationing of sausage. Increased production of livestock and all foodstuffs was urged by the 70 delegates.

Herman Fahbush, Portland, was elected president for his eleventh consecutive term; J. D. McDonald, Portland, secretary-treasurer for his seventh term. Mayor I. M. Doughton welcomed the convention, which heard Patrick E. Gorman, Chicago, international secretary-treasurer of the union; Del E. Nickerson, Portland, executive secretary of the Oregon State Federation of Labor, and Gertrude Sweet, Portland, of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers' union.

Dental Group Plans Conclave

The golden anniversary convention of the Oregon State Dental association in the Multnomah hotel, Portland, June 11 and 12, is expected to attract many dentists from Marion county.

This convention marks the founding of the association 50 years ago, according to Dr. Neal L. Zimmerman, Portland, who is president. First president was the late Dr. S. J. Barber, Portland, and Dr. W. C. Logan, long-time mayor of Astoria who died recently, was second president.

The predominate theme will be war and its many problems affecting the dental profession, Dr. Zimmerman said.

die east and Malta-based squadrons, however, had accounted for at least a dozen more.

Against this wholesale destruction of enemy air power over and on Italian soil was an announced allied loss of 18 planes of the northwest Africa air force, a ratio of nearly 17 to 1.

Lightning fighters equipped with bombs spread havoc in parts of Sardinia yesterday. At Carloforte harbor, on the southwest corner of the island, they scored a bomb hit on a 200-foot ship and sank three smaller vessels. Another Lightning formation shot a factory building, barracks, a gun emplacement and a radio office near Carloforte. At Iglesias, 18 miles northeast of Carloforte, an important zinc works received direct bomb hits.

It was announced that heavy RAF bombers based in the middle east smashed at San Giovanni, on the toe of the Italian boot, Saturday night, scoring bursts on railway sidings. Long-range RAF fighters were reported to have attacked enemy shipping in the Aegean sea off Greece, seriously damaging several vessels.

ODT Curtails East's Retail Deliveries

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—The Office of Defense Transportation Monday restricted all wholesale and retail deliveries in the north eastern gasoline shortage area. Retail delivery of 15 commodities—including soft drinks, alcoholic beverages, ice cream, magazines and radios—was entirely cut.

The ODT ordered the following changes in local delivery services, with few exceptions:

- 1. The number of retail and wholesale deliveries which may be made in one week from one point of origin to one point of destination is limited according to the commodity delivered.
- 2. All Sunday deliveries except of ice and fresh milk and cream are forbidden.
- 3. The delivery routes of each company must be immediately rearranged so that they neither duplicate nor overlap.

The order becomes effective at 12:01 a. m. Thursday, May 27. Exemptions permitted include deliveries to farms and ships and deliveries of newspapers, certain mine products and explosives, medicines, telegrams, and US mail.

The exemptions apply only to frequency of delivery, however, and not to the 40 per cent mileage out in commercial "T" gasoline rations ordered by ODT Saturday.

Heavy Return Made on Tax

The state tax commission has received more than 250,000 taxable income tax returns with receipts of more than $12,000,000 accounted for up to this time, it was announced here Monday.

These returns involve 1943 tax collections based on incomes for the year 1942. Last year's taxable returns numbered approximately 160,000. Officials said it probably would be two or three weeks before all returns received up to April 1 would be tabulated.

Under a 1943 legislative session law state income taxes may be paid quarterly instead of semi-annually as under the previous act. Second installment payments are due July 15.

Total state income tax payments for this year may exceed $18,000,000, based on present returns, tax commissioners said.

Defense Officials End Inspection Tour

Jerrold Owen, state civilian defense coordinator, and other officials connected with the state defense council, returned here Monday from Seattle where they attended an evacuation demonstration in which more than 2000 persons were removed from an island by means of ferries and other water transportation facilities.

"When we come home, we're going to show up the boys and girls we left behind us," boasted the man in khaki. Twenty-mile hikes, he maintained, have hardened him.

What, I asked, did he think the Victory garden was doing for his dad?

So, I started checking. More suntan cream so far has gone to gardeners than vacationers, some druggists declared, and included are several of the masculine variety.

There's some argument about whether the price of cabbage and cauliflower is up in the avocado class because there are fewer truck gardens this year selling to the markets or because there are fewer purchasers on the retail side of the counter.

If the man of the house plays golf Saturday afternoon while his wife gardens, he's required to garden Sunday while she rests, and he boasts more about it than about his golf score—for good reason?

The portable radio has found its resting place on a board in the garden instead of in the comfortable outdoor living room.

When Sonny comes home, he's very likely to find the portly civilian he left behind him wearing the trousers he discarded because of his own increasing waistline, opines one veteran of World War I, who asked that his name be left out of it, perhaps because so far he thinks he has taken off only an inch.

Camp Adair Naturalization Court Slated

CAMP ADAIR, Ore., May 24, 1943—A regular civil court session will be held May 28 for the first time at Camp Adair and probably the first time at any military establishment in the country, it was announced here today.

Judge L. G. Lewelling, circuit judge for Linn and Benton counties, will preside at the court session when approximately 50 soldiers will become full-fledged United States citizens. Examinations of the men will take place May 26 and 27, and the oath of allegiance will be administered by Judge Lewelling at the court session.

President for the ceremony will be Major General G. A. Cooke, commanding general of the Timberwolf division, who will address the new citizens, Brig. General J. E. Dahlgren, Col. Gordon H. McCoy, camp commander, and other officers.

The naturalization program has been under the direction of Lt. Col. J. W. Bonner, judge advocate general for the Timberwolf division, in cooperation with R. J. Norene and Worthington Blackman, of the US immigration and naturalization service. By carrying the naturalization work on the post the men have been able to qualify for citizenship and yet continue their full training schedules, it is pointed out.

Dairy Industry Is Warned to 'Look Ahead'

The Oregon dairy industry was urged to look ahead to the post-war period when production will not be nearly as heavy as at the present time, in a statement issued Monday by A. W. Metzger, chief of the dairies and foods division of the state agricultural department.

Metzger particularly mentioned the necessity for advertising dairy products during the war period as a means of keeping established brands of products before the consumers. "Such a program would save the industry millions of dollars at the close of the war," Metzger declared.

He urged that the present high standard of Oregon dairy products be maintained.

at Goodyear where officials estimated 14,000 were missing. The Goodyear Aircraft Corp., the firm's warplane subsidiary, operated normally.

The idle factories manufacture such items as gas masks, barrage balloons, life belts, airplane deicers, tank treads, anti-aircraft guns and machine gun clips as well as all types of combat and civilian tires, spokesmen said.

Goodyear said it would ask Mayor George Harter to assign police to the No. 1 plant for future shift changes. Harter conferred with undisclosed union leaders and said "it is very hopeful that all workers will be back on the job by Tuesday morning." There was no union confirmation.

The WLB pared to three cents an hour its panel's recommendations of eight cents, declaring the higher figure, which the unions sought under the "little steel" formula, would unbalance the industry-wide and Akron wage structure.

The WLB said workers' straight time hourly earnings average $11.51-$12.00, and Goodrich calculated its factory workers' April pay, including overtime, averaged $13.11 an hour and $53 weekly. The case went to the WLB nearly a year ago.

Tax Deadlock Sinks Deeper

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—Efforts to compose senate-house differences in pay-as-you-go tax legislation hit a low ebb Monday night. Democratic members of the conference committee were unable to agree even among themselves despite advancement of a new compromise proposal.

Chairman George of Georgia said after a two-hour session of the democratic senate and house members:

"We just have not agreed, that's all."

Reportedly discussed was a proposal to abate the first $100 of accrued taxes for all persons and require them to pay 25 per cent of the lesser of either 1942 or 1943 levies over the next two years while they are becoming current.
