

Grange Makes Summer Plans

Delegates to June Convention Named; Posters Judged

UNION HILL—The Union Hill grange met on Friday night for the May meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Priddy and Jerry Nibbler were elected members of the grange.

W. M. Tate, agriculture chairman of the Union Hill grange told about the Marion county coordinating committee and how all governmental agencies were to work together. A letter on farm marketing was explained by Mrs. Floyd Fox of the legislative committee.

Edna Morley and Guy Scott were presented with 4H scholarship to the 4H summer school in Corvallis in June, from the grange. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox were elected as alternate delegates to the state grange convention at Eugene in June.

The social night committee for the June meeting is Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Mrs. Geneva Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. Roma Laif. The June home economic meeting will be held at the grange hall with Mrs. M. M. Gilmour and Mrs. J. C. Krenz as hostesses. The June lunch committee for the grange meeting will be Mrs. Jessie Carter, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Doerfler and Wesley Darby.

The Graces were in charge of the May program which consisted of: a song, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean"; salute to the flag; reading, "Our Flag"; reading, "On the Road to Vagabondia"; song, "There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere."

UNION HILL—The Union Hill juvenile grange, which also met on Friday night, exhibited war posters which were judged as follows: age group of 9 to 16 inclusive were: first—Lucille Jaquet; second, Vivienne Jaquet, third, Agnes Jeanne Darby; age 5 to 9 inclusive, Edon Jaquet.

The juvenile grange purchased one $25 bond and had partly enough money for another bond from the pie social in May. Grange members going to the 4H summer school in Corvallis from the juvenile grange are Edna Morley, Guy Scott, Vivienne Jaquet, Lucille Jaquet, Floyd Fox, Jr., Marjorie Tate and Jeanne Darby.

Shaws Arrive

WEST SALEM—John Shaw, the newly appointed night police officer, with Mrs. Shaw and their four children, have moved from Independence to 1254 Elm street. Mr. Shaw was in the employment of the Southern Pacific railroad prior to his present appointment.

Woods Have Visitors

WEST SALEM—Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wood, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wood, and little son, Larry Lee, spent the weekend visiting his parents, John Stutz, a guard at the penitentiary, was also a Sunday afternoon visitor at the Wood home.

101 to Receive Diplomas At Lebanon; Nearly All Valley Schools Set Closing Exercises

LEBANON—The largest class to be graduated from the Lebanon high school, 101 members, will receive diplomas Wednesday night at the high school auditorium. Charles Walker of Portland, president of Northwestern School of Commerce, will be the speaker. Two students, Donald Cox and Gladys Stone, will speak for the class. Music will be selections by the high school glee club and band.

Sunday night most of the churches in town united in observing the class baccalaureate service. Rev. Claude Pike, pastor of the Evangelical congregation and secretary of the local ministerial association, presided. Rev. Harvey Schmidt of the Presbyterian church preached; Rev. Ralph Kleen of the Methodist church read the scriptures; Rev. H. Ivan Ryan of the Assembly of God led in prayer and Rev. J. T. Baxter of the Church of Christ pronounced the benediction. The high school choir sang "The Lord's Prayer" and two anthems and led the congregation in the singing of the processional and recessional hymns, "Holy, Holy, Holy" and "Lead On, O King Eternal."

Friday afternoon the senior class day assembly was held, the program concluding with a talk by Ivan Jacobsen, the 24-year-old

Visitors Spend Weekend At Turner

TURNER—Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Huddle and daughter, Virginia, of Coquille, were weekend guests of Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Hicks. Huddle is a millwright at a large plywood plant on the coast employing several hundred men.

Bert Peebles has resigned as janitor of the Turner schools and accepted a job as janitor at Camp Adair. He is driving to work daily, but this fall he and Mrs. Peebles expect to move nearer to his work. Melvin Baker, senior student, is substituting as janitor here for the remainder of the school term until a permanent janitor can be secured.

Walter Jaquith of Newberg spent the weekend in Turner with his son, Rev. Paul Jaquith, pastor of the Turner Methodist church. Rev. N. Sherman Hawk of Salem, formerly pastor in Turner who now is retired, was also a Sunday afternoon guest of Rev. Jaquith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holcomb of Salem were visitors in Turner during the week. For a number of years they resided in the Cloverdale district. Lt. Keith H. Holcomb, USNR, on duty with the Pacific fleet, was a recent overnight guest of his parents, the first visit home in a year. Supt. J. O. Russell and Mrs. Russell entertained recently for members of the Turner school board and their wives. Following games and contests, refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Webb, Mrs. Charles Standley and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Riches.

Silverton Seeks 2 For School Board

SILVERTON—Two vacancies instead of the usual one vacancy will have to be filled on the Silverton school board by election in June. The term of T. T. Leonard expires and he is being urged to seek reelection, but has not yet made a statement. The other vacancy is the unexpired two years of the late Glenn Price term. Arthur Dahl was appointed some weeks ago by the school board to serve in Mr. Price's place until election. He is also being urged to seek election for the remaining two years of the term.

Board members who hold over are Lloyd Larsen, four years; W. E. Tomlinson, three years, and C. A. Haidle, present chairman, one year. Chosen to serve as the budget committee for the coming year are Harry Carson, Earl Adams, Merlin Conrad, Glenn Briedwell, M. E. DeGuire, Christian Peterson and Errol Ross.

Exercises Friday

FRUITLAND—The Fruitland school will have graduation exercises Friday night at 8 o'clock. Those receiving their diplomas are Alice Stewart, May Erickson and Gene Shamberger.

American who was held a prisoner in Norway by the German gestapo.

PRINGLE—Graduation exercises, unique in their studied informality marked the completion of grade school careers of the 13 eighth graders at Pringle school Monday night. Members of the class popped up at surprising moments with pertinent remarks, but it was all part of the program. The stage decorations in blue and white, the class colors, prepared by the seventh graders, also were noteworthy.

Jerry Nibler, assistant county 4H leader, commencement speaker emphasized the necessity in these times for continuing education at least through high school in view of civilization's growing complexity. Diplomas were presented by Earl Strausbaugh, school board chairman, after the class had been presented by Mrs. Clara Girod, principal.

Each of the graduates had a part on the program which included: Hollis Hilfiker, salutatory; Don Strausbaugh, class history; Jeanene Conklin, class prophecy; Dorothy Holden, class creed; Robert Ewing, tribute; Orval Ramey, address to seventh grade; Betty Zimmerman, class poem; Norbert Norton, parting gift; Delbert Fromm, "The World's needs"; John Hickman, class will; Delma Fromm, class inventory; Carolyn Curtis, valedictory; Lyle Lorentz, response to school board chairman's remarks.

Two seventh graders, Darrell Crossler and Duane Kottke, also participated in the program. Mrs. Leona Back played processional and recessional music. The class flower was the yellow rose and the class motto "The brightest star shines alone."

THE TOWN PUMP

By Stan

SPEAKING FOR YOUR STANDARD SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN

Switch in time!

A switch in time can sure save tires from an untimely end. With the average car, the back tires wear out twice as fast. To squeeze all the wear out of all your tires, switch them around every 5,000 miles. 'Course you should have your Standard Service Man check your tires' air pressure every week, but don't forget to ask him to switch them every 5,000 miles—sure. You can get as much as 10,000 extra miles out of a set of tires by switching regularly.

"C" Book Tire-Inspection Due!

Yep, that three months is about up. May 31 is the last day for "C" Book holders to get tires inspected. Better go down today, and duck that last-minute jam. Any Standard Service Man qualified as a tire inspector will be glad to help you.

No slump at this pump!

You motorists have had to get used to a lot of wartime changes. But there's one thing you can always count on—Standard Gasoline Unsurpassed. When you put Standard "Unsurpassed" in your tank you get all around gasoline performance even higher than specified by Uncle Sam for military motor fuel.
