

Churches Plan Turner Meet

Christian Groups to Assemble June 28
At Tabernacle

TURNER—Dr. C. F. Swander of Portland, secretary of the state board of Christian churches, has announced that the annual state convention will convene at the Turner tabernacle on June 28, and continue through July 4. The 1943 theme is "More Than Conquerors" and the guest speaker will be the Rev. M. Owen Nelson, famous educator of the eastern and southern parts of the United States.

The large Turner tabernacle which seats several thousand recently has been painted white preparatory to the state meet and a new roof during the summer months.

TURNER—Rev. E. J. Gilstrap returned Wednesday from a speaking tour in eastern Oregon where he was gone for a week. He spoke at Heppner, Athena and Hermiston and showed moving pictures of the Turner Memorial home. He also visited at Ione where he attended his first year of school and his father taught there. Mr. Gilstrap reports that the wheat looks good with the pea harvest prospects excellent.

TURNER—Rev. Gene Robinson delivered the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday in the Turner Christian church to the 17 graduates of the Turner high school. Rev. Paul Jaquith sang "My Task" and Mrs. J. O. Russell played the processional and postlude. Rev. Heath Lowry read from the Old Testament and Rev. Robinson from the New Testament. The benediction was given by Rev. Jaquith.

The church was filled to capacity, honoring the graduates of the 1943 class, Melvin Baker, Clarence Cox, Eloise Fowler, Lois Fredrickson, Edward Hatfield, Frank Hedges, Lois Maxfield, Robert Metcalfe, Carl Schifferer, Jo Petersen, Stanley McNeal, Morris Peterson, Edith Schifferer, Theodore von Eitz, Hildur Warren and Doris Webb.

A picnic for all the grade school children was held at the school house Wednesday, with the teachers and a large number of mothers serving the picnic dinner in the school dining room. The Tillicum club members, which have been working on two PTA quilts for the free hot lunch for school children for next year, were invited to join the grades at the dinner in the dining room.

Seniors and juniors enjoyed a picnic at the coast Wednesday. Freshmen and sophomores went to Silver Creek Falls Thursday for a picnic.

Rotary Elects 3 Directors

WOODBURN—Carl Huber, Elmer Mattson and Walter Schuler were elected to the Rotary club board of directors at the Thursday meeting.

Because of the election, no guest speaker was invited. Instead, one of the guests, Pvt. Al Halter, of the marines, gave a brief talk on his training so far, and his chances to get into the action he so desires.

To round out the program, a discussion period was held. Rotarians pledged themselves to give all possible support to the committee of nine selected from the community at large to direct the drive for a community service men's memorial. And, as many of the members were interested in the furtherance of youth movements such as the Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, and so forth, the next meeting is to be devoted to that program.

Continuous Today from 1 P. M.
