Mountains Learn Of Building Plan

AUMSVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain have received word that a government project taking over the site and surrounding territory at Richmond, Wash., where Mr. Mountain was principal of schools for several years, has required all property to be vacated. The site will be used for the government, by the Du Pont company. For just what purpose was not revealed to Mr. and Mrs. Mountain, who have a son buried in the cemetery there.

The information stated that the present plan is to leave the cemetery intact. The present conditions regarding buildings and homes will be changed to meet the needs of a population of 1300 people. This will include a large scale housing problem, new school buildings, office buildings a bank and the work project. This is located on the Columbia river, where the Yakima joins it. As to climate, the hottest summers to be found in Washington are there, along with the biggest waterfalls.

Lebanon Holds Rose Exhibit

Mrs. Ford Wins First Prize; War Stamps Given

LEBANON—While the number of entries at the annual rose show held Saturday were fewer than in previous years, never have there been more beautiful specimens exhibited, onlookers agreed.

The show was held the last day of the carnival but even so there were not as many visitors as usual because the carnival was patronized largely by children and many of the people who are most enthusiastic rose lovers were busy with war imposed tasks.

Prizes of war stamps were given on a point basis. Blue ribbons counted 15 points; red ribbons 10 points and white ribbons 5. Awards were made to the four exhibitors receiving the highest number of points.

Flowers were entered in two divisions, roses and arrangements of other flowers. It was specified that the roses exhibited should all have three stems to a vase with the roses' own foliage and no other greenery, and the roses to be in the bud or half opened stage.

Prize winners were: Mrs. Clair Ford, Mrs. Thomas Dillard, Mrs. Clarence Shlmanek with Mrs. George Alexander and Mrs. Theodore Crusen tying for fourth place. Honorable mention was given to Mrs. Ray Gleason and Mrs. Oliver Gunderson.

Mrs. Clara Amos of Lebanon, and Mrs. Russel and Mrs. Keeney of the Sweet Home garden club were the judges.

During the afternoon and night all members of the Lebanon Garden club took turns in receiving and roses were donated so that each visitor to the show received at least one choice blossom.

Mrs. Joella Larson had a display of roses not entered in the competition to show her father's flowers. Another table was devoted to the display of roses which were not entered in competition but because of imperfections but because they were not arranged in the manner specified by the committee.

Mrs. T. J. Vogel, president of the Lebanon garden club, had made Mrs. Olaf Ohlsted chairman of the rose show committee. Mrs. Elmer Register and Mrs. Ray Gleason served as clerks and received the entries. Others who worked on the displays were: Mrs. Harley McKinny, Mrs. Tex McKinny, Mrs. Harry Horning, Mrs. Philip Lanning, Mrs. C. C. Whitler and Mrs. Lawrence Hollingsworth. Mrs. Oliver Gunderson, publicity chairman of the club, prepared the notices.

Families Move At Sunnyside

SUNNYSIDE—Paul Cammack and family have moved onto the Burlington place on Jackson Hill. The house was formerly occupied by the Cliff Feller family.

LUMBER MARCHES FORWARD

★ WE NEED MORE LUMBER!

LOGGERS! The shout for "more lumber"—and for more plywood and pulp products—comes from our forces in Africa . . . in the South Pacific . . . and from millions of troops in England poised ready to strike at the heart of Nazidom!

They need more invasion barges—more deadly Mosquito bombers—more sub chasers—more ammunition cases—more ponton bridges! WOOD, and MORE wood is needed desperately! But there is a real shortage of saw logs now!

That is why the War Manpower Commission wants every available logger on the job right now. This government agency is urging loggers to quit shipyards and other war industries and to FIGHT IN THE WOODS. If you have a friend who's an experienced logger, but who is not now working at the trade, urge him to get on the job. He can obtain a Certificate of Availability from his present employer on instant notice. Ask him to then inquire at the nearest U. S. Employment Office for assignment to the location where he is most desperately needed. ACT NOW! Your promptness can help win this war!
