By DAVE HOFF
EVANSTON, Ill., June 11—(AP)—New York University's Violets, the strongest eastern team to enter the National Collegiate in more than a decade, dominated preliminary trials in Friday's preliminaries of the 22nd annual N.C.A.A. track and field championships and at once became favorites to end Southern California's eight-year reign in Saturday's finals.

N.Y.U. placed names of its athletes on Saturday's finalist roster seven times, but has even more strength than that. For its outstanding 300-yard and mile runner, Ray Zollner, is ready to go Saturday at those distances over the Northwest University Dyebe stadium course.

Southern California's Trojans surprised everyone who had lightly dismissed their chances of repeating a ninth consecutive time. They qualified six men, including defending quarter-mile champion Cliff Bonland in both the 400 and 220 dashes. Still out to make a contest of it were Washington, with five qualifiers, and California, Ohio State, and the U.S. Naval Academy with four apiece.

Washington's qualifiers were: 140 yard dash—Evert Pitman (best time by Cliff Bonland, Southern California, and John Fuller, Stanford, 49.2 seconds); 22 yard dash—Robert Smith (best time, Harold Davis, California, 22 seconds); discus throw—Richard Yantis (best distance, Fortune Gordien, Minnesota, 140 feet 3 inches); broad jump—Thomas Evans (best distance, Billy Christopher, Rice, 24 feet 3/4 inch); and javelin throw—William Kidd (best distance, George Coak, Iowa State, 292 feet 1 1/4 inches.) Gene Swanner, Washington half-miler, was not required to qualify.

Yankee Margin Mounts With Win Over A's

Etten Bats Former Mates to Defeat

PHILADELPHIA, June 11—(AP)—Big Nick Etten, the former Philly, came back to Philadelphia Friday night to lead the New York Yankees to a 2-1 victory over the Athletics, hammering a homer in the third and scoring the winning run in the eighth after rapping a double to right field.

Etten's two bingles were half of the total the Yankees collected off Orce Arntzen in the eight innings he worked. Pitcher Robert Estalella, battling for Arntzen, singled in the eighth and John Wala, who ran for Estalella, scored the A's only run.

Everett Fagan set the Yanks down in order in their half of the ninth.

Charley Wenzloff went the distance for the Yankees, allowing eight scattered hits as he hung up his third victory against as many defeats. The win boosted the Yankees' lead to three games.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 11—(AP)—The Chronicle said Friday that "prominent alumni" of Washington State college had drafted and were preparing for circulation Friday, a resolution which termed it imperative that Coach Babe Hollingbery be retained at Washington State college.

The newspaper said the group acted because of a fear that Hollingbery would leave his football coaching post of 17 years' standing unless the WSC athletic board modified its decision of last week to slash his $10,000 salary by 50 per cent.

Redlegs Spoil Morning Debut For Cubs, 7-4

8307 Early Birds See 11 a.m. Tilt

CHICAGO, June 11—(AP)—The largest crowd to see a morning game in the major leagues this season—8307, of whom 5307 were paid—turned out at 11 a. m. to see the cellar Cubs and Cincinnati Friday, and the Reds cut loose a 14 hit attack, including Ray Mueller's first 1943 homer, to win, 7-4.

Ray Starr shut out the Chicagoans for seven innings while the Reds were giving him a 7-0 lead. Starr weakened in the eighth, however, and allowed four runs before Clyde Shoun came in.

The Reds had a wild sixth inning in which Gerry Walker led off with a single and then scored all the way from first base on a pop single back of shortstop by Frank McCormick, who slapped at a pitchout when he saw Walker break for second on a hit and run. McCormick's hit dropped back of Shortstop Lenny Merullo, who was running to cover second. Singles by Steve Mesner, Eric Tipton and Eddie Miller meant three more runs and brought in Hi Bithorn to relieve Lonnie Warneke.

Haegg Hampered by Stubborn Stiffness in Legs, Headache

HANOVER, N.H., June 11—(AP)—His legs stiffened by his 27-day voyage from Sweden, and a headache irked record-smasher Gunder Haegg Friday as he went through his fourth day of training for his American track debut.

Haegg has been complaining about the condition of his lower legs since he moved into his Dartmouth conditioning quarters on Tuesday. Since then he had run about 25 miles over the Hanover golf course and through many of the wooded ski trails hereabouts, and succeeded only in loosening his thighs.

In addition, Haegg has treated the speedy legs that enabled him to break seven world records to daily steam baths and has had them massaged for an hour at a time by Sig Steinwall, his trainer.

"Gunder is worrying because of the stiffness in his stubborn," Steinwall said, "but I think he is too impatient."

Angels Nipped Again, 2 to 1

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11—(AP)—The San Francisco Seals evened up their baseball series with the Los Angeles Angels at two apiece Friday, winning 2-1 in a game played in 1 hour and 17 minutes.

It was a pitchers' duel between Al Epperly of the Seals and "Red" Lynn of the Angels. The latter allowed four hits to Epperly's five but lost on a first inning rally.

A walk to "Frenchy" Uhalt, singles by Henry Steinbacher and George Metkovich and Gus Suhr's sacrifice fly accounted for the Seals' two runs in the first.

From the BLEACHERS

By AL LIGHTNER

Ken Penner, of whom we've written heaps, since we look upon him as a fine baseball manager, brings to town his Sacramento Senators Monday for a twilight game against our adopted Camp Adair Timber Wolves. Will be the first showing of the Sacs as a whole in our village, but not so for Penner. As skipper of the Bellingham club of the Western International league (now our own and defunct Salem Senators), Penner bossed the Chinooks to a crushing 18-3 win over the Willamette U nine in the spring of 1938 right down here on Sweetland field.

Recollecting that day, George "Duke" Windsor was wheeling 'em for Spec Keene's outfit, but found that his big curve was just ripe for the Pennermen to plaster into the south bleacher seats for automatic two-base hits. Although time-exaggerated by now, it seemed a dozen or so of the high flies plopped into those inviting seats for doubles. Actually only eight got there, including the one we got. (Just had to get that in.)

Had Lots of Local Talent

Clowning Wes Schulmerich joined the Chinooks that day, but being in poor condition settled for merely smirking the bases while Frisco Edwards worked behind the dish. Also there were later inimitable Bucky Harris; Dwight Aden, back to do diamond murder to the club that had reared him; Scotty McDonald, the Pacific university third-sacker; Jim Farmer, the Bend pitcher; Ernie Bishop, lazier manager of the Klamath Falls State league club; Joe Annunzio, who later caught for Portland Beavers; Tim Marble, the rifle-armed shortstop, brother of Alice the tennis queen; Jim Track, now outfielding for Philadelphia A's; Eagger Ardavia and Bill Fleming, both major league flingers finally, with the former now in the navy "on leave" from New York Yankees and Fleming still with Chicago Cubs.

For opposition, what there was of it, Keene used Windsor, Anton, Nunnenkamp and Gatchel as pitchers, with Jimmy Robertson and Hal Moe as catchers and Dwight Catherwood, Bob Hagedorn, Verdell Ragsdale, Johnny Oravec, Lee Shinn, Johnny Kolb, Durb Southard and Art Baird in the other spots.

Sac Game Should Draw Good Crowd

All of which doesn't have a blessed thing to do with next Monday's Sacramento-Timber-Wolf game outside the fact that Manager Penner's coming to town again. We doubt if he's got the club to administer anything like an 18-3 beating to the Wolves as did his Chinooks to the Beavers in '38. In fact, from where we sit now it looks as if the hard-hitting soldiers have the club capable of ending Penner's winning streak here.

All in all, it should be a good game, and with ball games as scarce in the village as they are these days, it should draw a good crowd.

Grounders and Pickups With Splashes

As if he hasn't already got enough troubles what with the war and all, Lt. Bob Duffy, athletic officer for the Timber Wolf division, ups and gets himself married next Tuesday. Now there's a gent who's a real glutton for punishment. Incidentally, the Timber Wolf-Sacramento game here Monday will be Duffy's farewell party for two weeks. Gotta have a honeymoon, you know . . . Luckiest guy in the world? We nominate Charlie Petersen. Lefty O'Doul has finally taken him off third base, and it wasn't on a stretcher. How Pete has kept healthy on the "Frisco hot corner this long is mystifying to say the least . . . But Ward, the northwest's No. 1 Simon-pure golfer, is now a first looney in the air force stationed near San Francisco . . . And Big Cy Greenlaw, the ex-Vancouver and Fort Lewis pitcher who can play on our team any time he wishes, finds air corps duties at Fort Selfridge, Mich., so numerous he can't find time to pitch any more . . . In re Fort Lewis, the Timber Wolves are attempting to line up a game for the village park with the Warriors on July 11. Duffy and Warrior Manager Morrie Arnovich have already broken the ice for mentioned Sunday date.

The Sports Front—15 Years Ago:

June 12, 1928—Salem baseball fans may have a treat in store for them early in August, it was learned yesterday. The University of Illinois baseball team, from the school that developed Red Grange and other famous football players, is coming to Oregon to sail for Japan and may stop over long enough to play the Senators on August 9 or 10 . . . Bob Boardman yesterday announced the coming Northwest YMCA tennis tournament, for which arrangements are now being made.

Georgia Eleven Pep Beckoned Hopes to Play By Uncle Sam

ATHENS, Ga., June 11—(AP)—President Harmon W. Caldwell said Friday the University of Georgia hopes to continue intercollegiate football next fall, but observed that players would be drawn of necessity from a handful of 16 and 17-year-olds.

Georgia's football team, led by All-America Frankie Sinkwich, won the Rose bowl championship last January 1 and the Orange bowl championship the previous year. The team lost only one game each season.

Becker Bounced Back to Minors

CHICAGO, June 11—(AP)—Heinz Becker, the big first baseman who batted .340 for Milwaukee last season to finish second in his teammate Eddie Stanky in the American association hitting race, was sent back to the Brewers Friday by the Chicago Cubs.

Becker, subject to 24-hour recall, batted .145 in 22 games with the Cubs this season before Phil Cavarretta, who had been counted on to play center field, replaced him at first base.

Woodburn 9 Plays Sunday

WOODBURN—The Woodburn Junior American Legion team will play a nine composed of Woodburn high school ball players Sunday in Legion park at 2:30 p.m.

Novo Hangs Kayo on Hartnek

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11—(AP)—Lena Novo, 204, the Van Nuys, Calif., heavyweight essaying another comeback, polished off Paul Hartnek, 190, Omaha, in rapid and business-like fashion Friday night with a third-round knockout.

Novo opened cautiously, then tore in with a heavy body attack in the third round that dropped Hartnek for a nine-count and then put him out for keeps after 1:53 minutes of the round. Hartnek, carried to his corner, did not revive for several minutes.

Novo's next stop on the comeback trail will be Chicago, where he meets Lee Savold June 25.

They're Off Again Barton's 4-Master Brings Beaver Win

SEATTLE, June 11—(AP)—First Baseman Larry Barton's three-run homer in the third inning provided all the punch Portland needed Friday night for a 4-to-2 baseball victory over Seattle.

The win gave Portland a two-to-one edge in the team's Pacific coast league series.

Les Floyd and Rupert Thompson had singled in the third to get on base before Barton lined the first pitch by Syl Johnson, the aging former major leaguer, over the right field fence.

The Beavers added a run in the fourth on a single by Stan Rogers and a double by Floyd.

Johnson singled home Seattle's first run in the fifth for his second hit of the evening. Hal Sueme had doubled ahead of him. Seattle's final run in the sixth came on a walk, a single and an outfield fly off winning pitcher Bill Herring.

Wolves Scuttle Guardsmen 6-0 (In 2 Frames)

CAMP ADAIR—(Special-Camp Adair's powerhouse Timber Wolf ball club was polishing off the Portland Coast Guardsmen here Friday in a twilight game when someone pulled the string and off Jups responded by ending hostilities at the end of the second inning.

The Wolves were out front by 6-0, having counted all six in the second panel. Gene Connor opened the heat by smacking a triple off Guardsman Herb Foulk, then in rapid succession Sabrinsky was safe on an error, Ledbetter fanned, Calhoun singled and so did Curt Hohle, the pitcher, and Gus Gregory. Frye walked. Beau Bell skied to deep center, Rich was safe on an error and Connor, who had started the misery for Manager Johnny Leovich's crew, ended it finally by popping up to Johnny Grana at second base.

Hohle held the Guardsmen hitless for the only two frames he got to work, and even in that short time Gregory gave an exhibition of sparkling shortpatching by handling five assorted hippety-hoppers to start all but one of the six outs First Sacker Bell made.

The game was supposed to be a final warmup for the soldiers for their game with Sacramento of the Coast league in Geo. E. Waters park, Salem, on next Monday at twilight. Instead, it turned out to be just another round of batting practice.

Seagulls Hold Banquet Here

Officers, coach, trainers and members of the Camp Adair "Seagulls" boxing team held what was hoped to be their annual banquet last night at the Marion hotel, and celebrated their successful ring season.

Capt. Al Gridley and Lt. Charles Freston were in charge of the luncheon with team Coach Oscar Luiza and Trainers Phil Barlett and Johnny Grigulinas assisting. Fiteufers present were Bert Collier, Eddie "Jitterbug" Collins, Henry Miranda, Frank Borrego, Bobby Moses, Tony Carbone, Johnny Ferrara, Nat Weintraub, Meryl Harshman and Frankie Labella.

The Seagulls tied for the team title in the recent Timber Wolves division boxing tournament, during which Moses won the division's welterweight crown, Weintraub the middleweight, and Labella the junior welterweight titles.
