Takes New Post

EARLE W. HEADRICK

KSLM Officer Gets New Job

Earle W. Headrick, associated with radio station KSLM for nine years, the last four as sales manager, will this coming weekend become affiliated with the R. L. Elstrom company, dealers in paints, roofing, floor coverings and similar building supplies.

Mr. Headrick brings to his new position 23 years of sales experience including several years dealing in paints and roofing. For several months recently he was associated with the Oregonian radio division in Portland, resigning to return to Salem where he and his family have long made their home.

In announcing this contemplated change, Mr. Headrick said he had been anticipating this opening for several years.

Scouters Raising Funds to Employ Field Executive

MT. ANGEL—Scouters in the Mt. Angel district are planning to contact 175 individuals and business firms as their part in soliciting funds which will enable the Cascade area to employ a field executive to supplement L. L. Leighton, present scout executive, it was learned Monday.

Herman Schwab is directing the drive in the Mt. Angel area and other leaders in nearby communities also are following the central office plans to put a scout executive in the field and thereby increase the vital war time activities of the scouts.

Anthony Traiger was appointed scout master for the Mt. Angel troop and William Kilmington and William Beys were selected as assistant scout masters.

Representatives of USDA Spray Lehman Field

FAIRVIEW—J. T. Lockwood, representative of the US department of agriculture from Forest Grove and head of the laboratory, and Max Rehrer, also of Forest Grove, spent Wednesday at the Russell Lehman farm supervising the application of poison bait spray for the 27 acre field of hairy vetch which showed a 30 to 40 per cent infestation. The two men have been friends of Lehman since he was stationed at Walla Walla, Wash., 12 years ago engaged in the work which they are doing now.

Members of the 4H Club who attended the two weeks summer school at Corvallis and returned Friday were Sherman Lehman and Sam Johnson. Laura Mae Goodrich, a member of the Webfoot 4H Sewing club, who also attended, returned Friday too.

In Portland—E. C. Grady, manager of the Standard Oil company here, was a business visitor at the company's main office in Portland Monday.

Probation Group Meeting Set June 25-26

The Oregon Probation association headed by its president Allen East of the University of Oregon medical school staff will play host to the Western probation and parole conference in Portland at the Hotel Benson on June 25 and 26, it was announced Monday by Fred Finsley, vice-president of the conference.

Oregonians prominent in court, educational and correctional fields will feature the two day joint sessions of the group. Marshall Dana of the Oregon Journal will speak on "The Press and the Correctional Field" at the opening day's luncheon and Warden George Alexander of the state penitentiary, Ernest M. Jachetta of the state liquor control commission, Dr. Samuel Haig Jameson of the University of Oregon, juvenile institution heads and court attaches will discuss various phases of the attack upon wartime increase in delinquency and crime.

Speakers from other states include Richard A. McGee, president of the American Prison association and supervisor of public institutions for the state of Washington, Frank W. Hagerly, member of the Washington state board of prison terms and paroles, Sidney G. Swain, United States probation officer for Spokane, and Oscar Lowder, chief agent, state department of adult probation and parole from Salt Lake City, Utah.

Finsley, state director of parole and probation, asserted that the western probation and parole conference, made up of judges and

Equalization Board Meets

The state board of equalization, identical in personnel with the state tax commission, opened its annual two weeks session on Monday to consider assessment of utilities and hear appeals from other assessors.

The commission will meet next month to decide to levy a state property tax for next year. Late in July it will decide how much of a reduction to make in taxes on incomes earned this year, these taxes being payable next year.

Gov. Earl Snell has estimated correctional workers throughout the 11 western states, was conducting several regional meetings owing to wartime restrictions on travel. The conference was founded in Portland in 1936.

Steiner to Act As Governor

W. H. Steiner of Fossil will become acting governor of Oregon about 2 a. m. Wednesday when Gov. Earl Snell will cross the state line on his way to Columbus, Ohio, to attend the annual national conference of state governors which is scheduled for three days starting June 20. War-time and post-war problems are to be discussed.

Steiner, president of the senate, will be acting governor for about ten days.

Old Age Program Funds Sufficient Despite Ration

Funds sufficient to carry on the old age assistance program which Gov. Earl Snell proposed in his inaugural message and which the 1943 legislature approved will be available despite the state liquor commission's pint-a-week rationing scheduled, the governor said Monday.

Goal of the governor's program is an average allowance of $38 a month. The maximum permitted under regulations for federal matching is $40 a month. The average now is $27.50, compared with $24.50 four months ago.

"If the liquor supply drops further, the state can issue certificates of indebtedness," the governor said. "Also, the new pinball tax revenues will be of great as-istance in maintaining the pension level."

The governor discounted rumors that a special legislative session would be needed to provide pension funds.

Woman Worker Dies

Believed to be Oregon's first woman shipyard accident victim, Helen B. Russell, 47, Portland, died at a Portland hospital of injuries suffered in a fall while at work June 2 at the Swan Island yard.

Around the table with a pound of meat

It's quite a trick to make a pound of meat go all around the table and satisfy all the appetites. However, it's been done for generations in foreign countries, and some of the creations have become masterpieces of the culinary world. The secret, of course, is to use the meat in tiny pieces, so that the flavor is distributed throughout the dish. Nutritionally, it's sound practice and one we can well afford to adopt these days.

CHOP SUEY—Cut meat into tiny pieces, brown in hot fat, add sliced celery, onions, shredded cabbage (in lieu of bean sprouts), and seasonings to taste. Add a little water, cover pan and simmer for 15 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Thicken the broth slightly with flour or cornstarch. Serve over steaming, fluffy rice.

CREPES DE BOEUF (French) Add chopped, cooked beef to pancake batter. Make large, thin pancakes. Spread with butter or substitute, sprinkle with parsley, roll up and serve plain or with gravy or sauce.

NOODLE DELIGHT—Saute small pieces of meat and mix with cooked noodles, cooked green beans or okra, and wedges of fresh tomato. Pour in greased casserole and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 15 minutes or until heated through and flavors are blended.

MEAT PIE—Dice a pound of meat and prepare as for stew, using several vegetables cut in uniform pieces. Thicken gravy slightly and pour stew into greased casserole. Cover top with pastry or with mashed potato or cornmeal crust. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) for 20 minutes or until well browned.

CREAMED GROUND HAMBURGER—Brown a pound of ground beef or pork and cook until meat separates. Blend in 4 tbsps. flour, add 2 1/2 cups milk and cook until thickened, about 10 minutes. Serve hot over toast, hot biscuits or baked potatoes.

CHILI CON CARNE—Brown a pound of diced or ground meat with chopped onion. Add 3 cups tomatoes, cooked or fresh, season with chili powder, garlic, salt and pepper and simmer for 15 minutes. Add 3 cups cooked beans, any kind, and heat thoroughly.

VICTORY GOULASH—Brown stew meat, lamb or beef, then cook in water until tender, adding sliced onions, tomato wedges, celery, fresh corn, peas or string beans. Serve with boiled potatoes.

Buy One More Vegetable Fresh Every Day And Help Make Your Canned Food Ration Go Farther

Here's one wartime request everybody can cheer over because this means it's patriotic to buy vegetables fresh... with crispness, sweet flavor and tenderness all in them. More. The vegetable which is fresh not only tastes better, but is tops in vitamin values, too. That's why Safeway rushes produce straight in from the farm... cutting out needless delays and in-between costs, thus giving you the fresh produce at the lowest price because their system of pricing produce by the pound saves you money in wasted, wilted leftovers. Remember at Safeway you pay only for what you can use today... while it's at its best.
