

Service Men

Where They Are—What They Are Doing

Herb Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Grant, 1120 North 18th street, Salem, and who recently graduated from the University of Oregon, has been ordered by the navy to report for deck officer's training at Columbia university, New York City, on June 21. Upon completion of his course at Columbia, young Grant will be commissioned an ensign.

FORTLAND, June 16.—(P)—Major James B. Hardie, marine corps recruiting officer, said Wednesday that although draft quotas are filling major needs a limited number of 17-year-olds may enlist this month.

Leon L. Peavy, Salem, and Donald E. Kempf, McMinnville, were listed among those recently accepted for marine service.

Pvt. Robert C. Abrams, son of Col. and Mrs. Carle Abrams, has arrived at an island post in the south Pacific, they were advised in a letter received Tuesday, first communication from him since they visited him in California just before he went overseas. The letter indicated that the island on which Pvt. Abrams was stationed was not far from a scene of action. He was sent overseas just three months after entering service. He trained at Camp Barkley, Texas.

Capt. Floyd Siegmund left Wednesday to return to his executive duties at the Great Bend, Kans., airbase. He had spent a week here with his parents.

L. Kelly Moore has written his father, J. W. Moore, that he recently "ran into Andy Byrd" of Salem, who told him that he had been with "Chuck" Hagemann until a short time before but that Hagemann had been sent to another base. All three are in the southern theatre of the Pacific war.

In a V-mail letter to the editor of the Oregon Statesman, Pvt. John R. Kelly reported that he receives his paper regularly someplace in the Southwest Pacific and enjoys the service men's column. He also said he enjoyed seeing the pictures of his friends in the Statesman and was glad to know that his service men buddies were safe.

Leon L. Peavy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willfred D. Peavy of 1625 North Capitol street, Salem, entered the marine corps in Portland last weekend. Peavy was graduated from Silverton high school a few years ago and later attended the Oregon College of Education where he played on the freshman basketball team. He was later employed by the Union Pacific railroad at LaGrande.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Larkins of Salem have learned recently that their son, Melvin Larkins, serving with the armed forces in New Guinea, has been promoted to the rank of staff sergeant.

Sgt. Lloyd A. Claggett, son of Mrs. E. F. Patton, 492 South High street, Salem, has been promoted to technician fourth grade at his station in Camp Lee's quarter-master replacement training center in Virginia.

William G. Phipps has returned to Salem from the Aleutian Islands to visit his mother, Mrs. Mamie Phipps, 1760 Berry street. Phipps is an electrician's mate 3/c and has been serving in the navy 17 months.

Ronald Haskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Haskins, has enlisted with the Seabees and will leave for his preliminary training in Williamsburg, Va., June 18.

Egan F. Hoffman, son of Emil Hoffman of Salem, has received his commission as an ensign in the naval air corps at the Corpus Christi, Texas, naval training center. Hoffman was formerly a student at San Jose State college.

Fireman Second Class Franklin Barth arrived Tuesday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barth, 2061 State street, to spend a brief leave. He has been in action in the Pacific. Barth enlisted in the navy last December and took his basic training at San Diego, Calif. He was employed at the Standard Oil company before entering the service.

Mrs. Elmer Asche reports that her two sons have joined the navy, and that one, a Seabee, is now at Camp Peary, Williamsburg, Va., and the other, a fireman first class, is stationed somewhere in the southwest Pacific. Both of her sons lived at Aumsville and were graduates of Gates high school.

GATES—Clyde Barney is the US navy at Farragut, Idaho, visited friends at Gates Saturday.

AUBURN—William Massey, who is stationed at Camp Swift, Texas, is expected home June 27 on furlough.

HAZEL GREEN—Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Clemens and small son left Monday for Wasco, Calif., after visiting several days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clemens. Saturday night Capt. Clemens' sister, Mrs. Ted Rostvold of Monitor, invited friends to her home to visit the Clemens during their stay. Sunday the Ben Clemens invited Mr.

and Mrs. Rostvold and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Clemens and children, Douglas, David and Marilyn, to dinner which was given in honor of the visitors. Capt. Clemens is a commanding officer of an armored division at Camp Cooke, Calif., and was spending a 15 day furlough.

LINCOLN—Harry Ashford, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ashford of Lincoln, is leaving for Monterey Friday. He has been attending radio school in California.

Petty Officer Second Class Pihl A. Williams has arrived in Virginia where he is stationed at Camp Peary, according to the latest message received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Williams of Lincoln. The young man is with the naval construction battalion. Formerly he was refrigerator engineer at the Capital Ice and Cold Storage company in Salem. In speaking of the weather conditions at Camp Peary he says, "Oregon has it over Virginia, at least this section, where even the nights are unbearably hot."

Richard Madsen, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Madsen, formerly of Lincoln and now residing at La Grande, finished high school this June and enlisted in the navy radio school, being sent to Farragut, Idaho. Having passed one examination with flying colors, he will be sent to Chicago upon completing his course. A brother, Robert Madsen, 16, is on duty in lookout service at Eugene.

MARION FORKS—Stanley Chance, whose home is at Mill City but who now is in the army stationed in California, called on friends here Wednesday. He was a driver for the Mill City meat truck before entering the service.

PIONEER—Cpl. Harold Brown, who is on a two weeks furlough from Texas, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown.

Sgt. Ted Coy, brother of Howard Coy and Mrs. Tom Keller, is home on a furlough from Brookley Field, Mobile, Ala. He visited at the Coy and Keller home Friday and Saturday en route to the home of his parents at Roseburg.

HAYESVILLE—Mrs. Leonard Greig has received word that her brother, Pvt. James Sewell, has arrived safely in a foreign port.

BISHOP'S - - Salem's Style Leaders for Men!

Honor a great American - Your Dad

FATHER'S DAY

June

20

WITH A GIFT FROM
BISHOP'S

Since 1890

Dads' Doing without a Lot,
So He Can Keep Buying War
Bonds . . . So Give Him
Things He Really Wants and Needs . . .

Give something useful..

Suits
with every quality advantage!

America's finest Suits by Hart, Schaffner & Marx, Michaels Stern and others.

Men who have understood the economics of daily living have always recognized the fact that quality pays. Now they are more certain of it than ever . . . and when they buy a suit from Bishop's, they buy the better suit . . . because they have one eye on the future. Quality is simply wearability . . . and when you buy a suit from our copious stocks, you know you have a suit that will last . . . for it's cut from quality fabrics, tailored to the most rigid specifications, and designed with seasons ahead in mind.

Summer Tropical
Worsted
$29.50

Others $35.00 to $60.00

BISHOP'S

Since 1890

Just What Dad Wants -

A NEW
STETSON HAT

From Bishop's
$5.00 up.

Give Him

ARROW SHIRTS

Every new style, color and pattern in this great selection. (Plain white and patterns) $2.24 up

ARROW TIES $1.00 up

Beautiful, new patterns in the fine Arrow Quality.

Belts & Suspenders $1.00 up

By Hickok. Newest designs for Summer wear.

SPORT SHIRTS $1.00 up

Smooth, new styles in every shade.

SWEATERS $5.00 up

All Wool. Every new shade. Every Style. Slip on and Button.

SOX pair 45c up

Phoenix and Holeproof. Every wanted new pattern.

SHAVING SETS $1.00 up

Lotions, Powders, Etc.

BILL FOLDS $1.50 up

Fine Leather

PAJAMAS $1.95 up

Bright new patterns in cool, comfortable fabrics for Summer wear.

BISHOP'S

Since 1890

FOR ARROW SHIRTS

Finer Apparel For Men And Boys

BISHOP'S - - Salem's Style Leaders for Men!