Rites Read In Army Chapel

The wedding of Cpl. Henry Ross Linfoot and Miss Agnes Hamilton Struthers was held in the chapel of the army air base at Clovis, NM, at a twilight ceremony on June 12. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, now of Portland but formerly of Salem, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Struthers of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Linfoot were present at the wedding of their son, accompanying the bride from Portland.

The altar was decorated with baskets of larkspur and delphinium in rainbow shades. Corporal Jack R. McCoy played the organ before and during the ceremony.

The bride entered the chapel on the arm of the elder Mr. Linfoot. She was dressed in a powder blue ensemble with rose trim, and a large blue picture hat. Her accessories were navy, and her corsage was gardenias and stephanotis and baby breath.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William H. Luke wore a rose-colored ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of pink and blue sweet peas.

Best man was Tech. Sgt. Noel R. Edwards.

The groom's mother wore a navy blue two-piece ensemble with light blue trim, and brown accessories. Her corsage was of mixed sweet peas.

The new Mrs. Linfoot is a graduate of Jefferson high school in Portland. The groom graduated from Salem elementary schools and then from Sabin high school in Portland. Previous to going into the army he was employed at the Albina Engine and Machine-works, and is now attached to the army air base at Clovis.

The chaplain, Theodore Mitzner, is a former pastor of the Patton Methodist church in Portland and previous to that resided in Salem.

The couple will live at 1320 West 7th street, Clovis, NM.

Mrs. A. J. Tobie of Portland was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gilkey.
