

From the BLEACHERS

If you're holding your breath waiting for the once-heralded city softball season to commence, you can let it out now. There just isn't going to be any, it seems. Director Irv Hale blames it on the manpower shortage — three of the proposed six teams couldn't muster together enough players for even a horseshoe game, so the answer was inevitable. Too bad about that—now we have no Western International ball, no softball, no State league ball, no Junior Legion ball, no soldier bopping parties at the armory, no bowling leagues in action, and no Mellow Moon roller rink. Night sports seem to be definitely nil in the village, and that's not good. We're told they're even keeping the kids in the parked cars off Nob Hill these nights. Tch, tch. Oh, well, we've got the grunt and groaners coming back to town Tuesday night—that'll relieve the monotony a little . . . Speaking of wrestlers, Bulldog Jackson, the stinker of the stinkies, may have been bruised and battered a lot in his scrapes with fellow clowns, cops, Indians, apes, etc., but they haven't managed to beat his brains out yet. The Klondike killer teaches both welding and burning in a Vancouver shipyard during the day, and hauls down upwards of a hundred pieces of that folding green stuff every week. Add to that what Mr. Jackson makes while working in his tights and your answer doesn't total a dumb dodo . . .

Cornell Was After a Schedule

Noted in the "Frisco Chronicle among various first-hand accounts of what transpired during the recent Pacific Coast conference meeting is a statement made by U of Oregon's grad manager and director of athletics, Anse Cornell. Apparently fed up with the bickering by the legislators on the matter of drawing up a schedule, Cornell proclaimed to the boys, "I'm making a new schedule and right here. I don't care if it comes down to five games with Oregon State, I'm going to have a schedule of football games we can play when I go home."

Cornell didn't get his five with OSC, but got two, any way. So instead of just the one fall classic for the state, now we'll have twice that many—Oregon State at Oregon on October 23 and Oregon at Oregon State on November 27.

Not so for the California-Stanford classic, however. Grad Managers Clint Evans of Cal and Al Masters of Stanford say that two "Big Games" between those two in one season is out.

And now that they've lifted eligibility rules in the PCC to the extent that even the coaches might get in long enough to earn a letter, we can't see where Cesar Ed Atherton will have much more to do outside putting on the football tugs and playing himself. And just so he wouldn't be breaching his code, he could play one game with every team in the conference.

In closing the session the members parted with, to use Bill Leiser's words, "Most of the men, however, even Babe Hollingberry of Washington State, left the meeting determined to play football with and for the benefit of whatever men there are on the campus who want to play it in September."

Part of which, if you look at it a certain way, might mean that Hollingberry has cleaned up his woe with the WSC board and will be back with megaphone as usual come September.

Nation's Best, Plus Haegg in Weekend Rompfest

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK, June 18—(AP) Track and field's greatest show in many a year will be staged at Tri-Borough stadium on Randall's Island Saturday and Sunday when the pick of the nation's athletes plus Sweden's great Gunder Haegg come together in the National AAU Junior and senior championships.

The 21 junior events and three of the senior numbers—1500 and 10,000-meter runs and 2000-meter walk—will be decided Saturday. The remaining 18 senior championships will go on the block Sunday with Haegg, world record holder at seven distances from 1500 to 5000 meters, making his American debut against Ensign Joseph Debut Rice, US's premier distance runner and unbeaten in his last 65 starts.

Saturday's program will feature Gil Dodds, Boston divinity student, in defense of his 1500-meter crown against such worthy challengers at Dartmouth's Don Burnham, intercollegiate AAAA, and national collegiate champion, Bill Hulse, metropolitan AAU titleholder, and Private Bill Leonard of Camp Upton.

Lieut. Joseph M'Cluskey, who was a champion in pre-Roosevelt days, will defend the 10,000-meter crown. He now is at the Iowa pre-flight school. Joe has been national champion six times.

Jackson Meets George Wagner In Mat Opener

Tuesday Night Main Event Announced

Matchmaker Don Owen announced Friday that he had definitively signed both Pacific Coast Lightweight Champ George Wagner and super meanie Bulldog Jackson for the main event spot on Tuesday night's opening appearance of the grunt and groaners in the armory.

Wagner's title belt, which is recognized in California, Washington and Oregon since he won it from Jack Lipscomb in Portland two months ago, will not be on the block Tuesday. Knowing how the Bulldog likes his grappling, Wagner insisted Jackson sign a statement wherein he wouldn't use the dirty stuff, but the Klondike killer, through the commission, would have none of the "Queensry junk."

Since Wagner, in wrestling circles also known as "Crybaby," is reluctant to put the belt up in most of his matches, the commission is thinking of exercising its right to force him into title tussles. According to the commission, a champion must defend his title at least once every two months. Wagner has only a short time to go before his two-month period is up.

The balance of Tuesday night's card will be announced later.

Union Protests Fish Ceilings

PORTLAND, June 18—(AP) Ceiling prices on fresh salmon announced by the OPA this week were protested Friday by the Columbia river fishermen's protective union.

Asserting the ceilings were under 1942 prices, the union asked OPA headquarters in Washington to readjust ceilings to prices originally demanded of packers.

Henry Niemela, union secretary, said fishermen received as high as 18 1/2 cents a pound for salmon last year and had asked a maximum of 18 cents this year. The OPA maximum was set at 17 cents.

Tex Hughson Hands Yanks 3-1 Setback

7th Win in 2 Years Over Champs; Joe Gordon Is Goat

NEW YORK, June 18—(AP) Tex Hughson found his Yankee "cousins" just about the same as usual Friday and pinned their ears back for the seventh straight time in two years.

This time tall Tex turned in a four-hitter, fanned nine and batted in a run as he led the Boston Red Sox to a 3 to 1 victory over the American league champs.

Hughson's most "friendly" cousin turned out to be Joe Gordon, who had one of his worst days as a Yankee. The somewhat flashless flash committed two errors, both of which had something to do with the Red Sox run-making, and he fanned three straight times boosting his total "whiffs" for the year to 38.

In another ten-rounder Joe Kahut, 165, Woodburn, Ore., dethroned Lou Pitts, 167, Pittsburgh in a hard-fighting brawl. There were no knockdowns although Kahut staggered Pitts in an early round with a right hook. The more experienced Pitts had Kahut in trouble several times with his sharp-shooting, but in the end Kahut's power won out.

Other results:
Mel Robert, 137, Portland, technical knockout over Leo Romaniello, 139, Portland; Al Cella, 127, New York, knocked out Babe Fenton, 127, Roseburg; Bobby Brock, 142, Portland, dethroned Billy Roberts, 140, Portland; Jack Ferguson, 205, Portland, knocked out Ken Racine, 192, Portland.

Occupation's Debut a Win

CHICAGO, June 18—(AP) Proving himself a worthy challenger to Count Fleet, John Marsch's Occupation, the 1942 juvenile champion, won his three-year-old debut at Hawthorne Friday in his first start since going lame last fall when he finished second to the Count in the Pimlico futurity.

Occupation, a 1-5 favorite, best Best Seller by half a length over Friday's six furlong test. Ten lengths behind Best Seller was Vinum, while Shuteye ran last in the four horse field. There was betting to win only and Occupation paid $2.60. His time was 1:11 1/5.

Schanz Twirls 11th Victory

SEATTLE, June 18—(AP) San Diego's Padres ran wild for six runs in the ninth inning Friday night to turn a close baseball game into a 10 to 2 rout of Seattle.

Iowa U Signs 'Slip' Madigan

IOWA CITY, Ia., June 18—(AP) Edward P. "Slip" Madigan, former football coach at California's St. Mary's college, Friday was named head coach of the University of Iowa to end for him a three-season separation from the sport.

Madigan, who coached the Gaels for 19 years and developed some of the nation's outstanding eleveners, will take over the reins here for a six-month period beginning July 1, succeeding Dr. Eddie Anderson, now an army major.

The board in control of athletics at the university did not disclose what plans it had for a coach after next January 1.

This lifted the "phantastic Phils" into the National League's first division, since Pittsburgh lost. It also marked the fifth straight start-back—the seventh in eight starts—for the desperate Dodgers, and left them with just a slim one-game hold on second place. Philadelphia 000 000 001-10 13 1

Seeded Stars Come Through

Betz, Corbett Vie For Tennis Title

By WATSON SPOELSTRA
DETROIT, June 18—(AP) Five showdown singles matches and a surprise intervention by the United States Lawn Tennis association Friday stripped the 33rd national play courts of all but seeded players—Pauline Betz of Los Angeles and Nancy Corbett of Chicago, and four men.

Top ranking Miss Betz, who won the title in 1941 when it was last contested, breezed through a 6-1, 6-0 decision over Pearl Peterson of Detroit. Saturday Miss Betz will meet her Rollins college, Fla., pal, second-seeded Miss Corbett for the title.

Top seeded Billy Talbot of Cincinnati, defending champion, Seymour Greenberg and third seeded Jimmy Evert of Chicago gained quarter-final victories to continue their title fights Saturday. Meantime, Earl Cochell of Los Angeles got in without playing through the disqualification of 18-year-old Charles Hubbard of Long Beach, Calif.

On instructions from Charles S. Garland of Baltimore, chairman of the USLTA amateur rule committee, Hubbard was barred on the grounds that he still was under suspension for playing illegally in a tournament in April, 1942, at Santa Monica, Calif.

Reds Edge Bucs 1-0 in 14 Heats

PITTSBURGH, June 18—(AP) The Cincinnati Reds got the jump over Pittsburgh's Buccaners Friday as they opened a four-game series, with third place in the league standings at stake, by taking a 1 to 0 decision in 14 innings behind the superb hurling of Ray Starr.

Lonnie Frey's triple, his third hit of the afternoon, an intentional pass to Estel Crabtree and Gee Walker's run-scoring single broke up the game.
