

Penney Employees Open July War Bond Drive

Employees of the J. C. Penney company store in Salem are pictured at a victory breakfast meeting at which plans for another successful July war bond and stamp sales drive were outlined. At the booth which appears in the center background, more than ten million dollars' worth of bonds and stamps have been sold in the past year. The campaign, with $300,000 sales for the month as its goal, opens today.

J. C. Penney War Bond Sales Drive to Be Launched Today

For employees of the J. C. Penney company, July 1 means more than the starting date for "pay as you go" income taxation. It marks the opening of a nationwide war bond and stamp sales drive in the company's 1610 department stores. In a similar campaign last July total sales amounted to $8,422,553.85 and Penney employees are determined to make it at least $10,000,000 this July.

In the Salem store of the J. C. Penney company, as in all others throughout the land, war bonds are being promoted as "July's best buy." Last July the Penney store employees here sold $150,000 worth of bonds and stamps and are determined this July to exceed $200,000.

American Legion auxiliary members will be in charge of the war bond booth in the foyer of the store each business day throughout the month. This is the booth in which more than $10,000,000 worth of bonds and stamps have been sold in the past year.

Bruce Cooper of the Penney staff here, a national and district prize winner in the July, 1942, contest, is out to repeat. He won two $50 bonds in last year's campaign. Again this year, stores and individual employees will compete for state and national awards.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, who accorded the J. C. Penney company congratulations upon its showing in the 1942 drive, has prepared a message of appreciation and good wishes in advance of the new campaign.

"I am advised," Secretary Morgenthau said, "that the J. C. Penney company and all of the employees of the company have volunteered their services to promote the sale of war bonds and stamps all through the month of July in every Penney store."

"Thrill and savings are today important to every one of us, as well as to the nation. Every time you sell a war bond or a war saving stamp you are helping America in its war effort. Looking at the splendid record that you have all made, I am sure that your activity in July will not only be highly successful, but will generate enthusiasm throughout all communities where you do business. Good luck, and my thanks to each and every one of you!"

The 304,000 is about 6 per cent more than last year and 45 per cent higher than the 10-year average. Production increased in every section of the state, particularly east of the Cascades where grain feed yields were up sharply last year.

Government Seeks Protein Source

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—To supplement the rapidly shrinking supply of soy bean meal, the federal government is seeking new sources of protein livestock feeds. Senator McNary was informed by the agricultural adjustment administration that whale meal will be available for this purpose in some mountain states, but probably not as far west as Oregon. Liver and cottonseed meal has been obtained from Latin America and New Zealand, and some may be allocated to western states.

Colonel Makes First 'Chute Jump as Test

(By WILLIAM R. FRYE)
WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—The colonel comes from Missouri and laboratory tests left him skeptical—he had to see it to believe it.

So Lt. Col. William Randolph Lovelace 2nd, surgeon and air force expert on high altitude equipment, made his parachute jump from 40,000 feet—the highest on record in this country—to convince himself and everybody else that the emergency oxygen equipment furnished to army aviators is all that laboratory tests indicate.

It was his first jump, and he said today at a press conference that it would be his last for a while, although his only injury was the freezing of his left hand. The jerk of his opening chute flipped off his heavy glove in 50 below weather.

Otherwise, Lovelace reported, he suffered no discomforts—the heavy regulation clothing, including oxygen mask, goggles and helmet, protected even his face from the cold.

Lovelace jumped from an army bomber near Ephrata, Wash., last Thursday. The parachute opened automatically, and the shock "blacked out" the colonel. He regained consciousness at about 30,000 feet, and by the time he got down to 8,000 feet was fully recovered.

He landed in a wheat field, and was picked up immediately and taken to Ephrata airbase hospital for treatment of his frozen hand.

"It's going to be all right," he said.

It took him 23 minutes and 51 seconds to float down, he said, adding with a grin that this time "was almost exactly what laboratory calculations said it would be."

Crop Outlook Unfavorable, Survey Says

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—Except for severe long-standing drought conditions in the far southwest where some livestock is reported to have perished for lack of feed and water, weather of the past week encouraged favorable development of the nation's food and livestock feed crops.

Improvement in prospects was reported by the weather bureau in a weekly crop summary which stated that growth, especially of warm weather crops, had been very rapid. The week was said to have been generally favorable for cotton, corn, wheat, truck and miscellaneous crops.

Nevertheless, war food administration officials expressed the opinion that insufficient improvement had been made the recover the full setback caused by the unusually cool, wet spring weather and floods.

The darkest spots on the weather and crop map came from persistent dry weather in western Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and southern Utah, a shortage of moisture in sections of the east and frost damaged vegetable crops in the far west.

There were reports here Wednesday indicating that another suit may be filed attacking the entire act on the ground that a provision authorizing confiscation of the devices is unconstitutional.
