Where They Are—What They Are Doing

Shipfitter Third Class Leonard D. Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris E. Wells of Marion, spent his nine-day leave at home visiting relatives and friends. He left for San Francisco Thursday to await further orders. He has been stationed at the Bremerton, Wash., welders school for the past six months.

Kenneth Dike, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Dike of Gates, who recently graduated from the Corpus Christi naval training school as an aviation radio technician second class, is now taking an advanced course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston.

Ronald Max Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lee Smith of 1325 North 17th street, has enlisted in the navy V-5 program for students under 18 years of age who wish to complete their high school courses while on inactive service with the navy.

Captain Lowell L. Eddy is now a flight surgeon in the army medical corps in Sacramento, Calif. Captain Eddy was a graduate of Willamette university.

Jack R. Heidinger, a graduate of Salem high school, has recently also been graduated from the naval signal school at Urbana, Illinois, where he received the rating of petty officer, 3/c. Heidinger qualified for the naval air corps examinations in St. Louis, Mo., by being second in his class.

At present he is in Norfolk, Va., awaiting transfer to the naval air station.

Staff Sgt. Clarence Krechter recently returned to Salem to visit his mother, Mrs. B. M. Krechter. Sgt. Krechter has been on duty with the army at Camp Forest, Tenn., and has been in the army for the past year and a half.

B. E. Krefl, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Krefl of 3175 East Frederick street, Salem, is now a trainee in the army specialized training program at Baylor university in Waco, Texas, and has recently been made a temporary officer to serve as squad leader.

Charles J. Andrews, son of Mrs. Nettie Andrews, 1310 North Winter street, is just beginning his advanced training to become a pilot in the army air corps at Foster Field, Texas. Andrews was a member of the Oregon national guard and served in the army at Fort Clatsop, Fort Stevens and Fort William Henry Harrison before joining the air corps. Since then he has been training at San Antonio and Stamford, Texas, and Enid, Okla., before going to Foster Field. He attended Aumsville schools and worked at the Marion hotel as a bell boy before entering the army. He will graduate in August with a commission as second lieutenant.

Mrs. Andrews has two other sons in service. Thomas is in the navy as a gunner's mate third class and is serving on a transport. Pfc. Forest is in New Guinea in the medical corps of the army.

NORTH HOWELL—Sgt. Alan Wiesner, who was home recently during a furlough, writes that he has been transferred from the signal service supply depot in Los Angeles to the newly established Camp Abbott near Bend, Ore.

James Matherly, second class petty officer in the United States navy, spent the past five days in Salem on furlough, visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Hugh McCain, and his grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Harrington. He left Wednesday for Chicago where he will enter an advanced school for aviation machinists.

PIONEER—Mrs. Wesley Harrett received word from her husband that he is in North Africa with US forces. She had not heard from him for some time.

FAIRVIEW—Roy Compton is in the army stationed at a Hawaiian base, according to the latest news received in a recent letter.

PORTLAND, July 7.—(P)—Navy recruits announced Wednesday included William D. Clarke, Independence, and Gerald G. Merriam, Silvertown.

Brother, Sister Both in Navy

Equal opportunity for brother and sister now extends even to the armed services. Above are pictured Warren "Bud" Wolf and Geraldyn "Gerry" Wolf, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Wolf of Salem. Both young people are now in naval reserve service.

SHS Principal's Children—Son, Daughter Both in Navy

Parallel careers of brother and sister formerly stopped short at military service—but not in this war. Warren "Bud" Wolf and Geraldyn "Gerry" Wolf, son and daughter of Principal Fred D. Wolf of Salem high school and Mrs. Wolf, are both now in navy reserve service; Bud at Park college, Parkville, Mo., for officer's training, Gerry awaiting assignment to the WAVES indoctrination school at Hunter's college, Columbia university, New York City.

Both entered grade school at the old Lincoln school, attended Leslie junior high and graduated from the senior high school where both were members of the Honor society. Bud enrolled in the navy V-1 program and attended University of Oregon one year, majoring in architecture and allied arts. He was a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

Gerry attended University of Idaho and Willamette university and was employed as junior weather observer at the weather bureau here prior to her enlistment in the WAVES. In announcing her enlistment, Chief Robert B. Fal-

214th Liberty Ship Launched

PORTLAND, July 7.—(P)—Oregon Shipbuilding corporation Wednesday launched its 214th Liberty ship, the Delazon Smith, named for an early-day Oregon publisher and senator.

Kaiser officials said the yard will send Liberty ships down the ways Friday and Saturday and the launching of the seventh aircraft carrier, the USS Manila Bay, at the Vancouver yard is set for Saturday.

Woman Suicide

Mrs. Henry Matthebeck, 39, Vanport City, leaped five stories to her death from Portland's Providence hospital where she had been undergoing treatment for asthma.

Hills Pioneers Plan Meeting At Club House

SILVERTON HILLS—The Silvertown Hills Pioneer association will meet Sunday at the Silvertown Hills Community club house and grounds with Mrs. L. O. Hadley as president. Following a basket dinner at noon, a program and a business session will be held during the afternoon. Contests will be featured with Mrs. George Benson arranging for these.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hadley and daughter, Jeanne, of Siletz, were weekend guests of the F. H. Hadleys and the L. O. Hadleys.

A single unit milking machine was installed during the weekend at the L. O. Hadley ranch. The Hadleys are now milking ten cows.

Oregon Posse Takes Honors

Salem Riders Tops At St. Paul Rodeo; Nelson Is Winner

ST. PAUL—Sweepstakes award for being the most outstanding mounted group in Monday morning's western parade of St. Paul's eighth annual rodeo was the Oregon mounted posse of Salem. This same mounted posse also was presented with a large gold cup and a $50 war bond for being the best western drill team in the final show's exhibition drill.

Queen Betty Manegre made the presentation to Capt. Lee Eyerly of the mounted posse. Yamhill county sheriff's posse was runner-up in the parade, while the Clackamas county sheriff's posse claimed second honors for its exhibition drilling.

George Nelson, Wamic rancher, was judged the best all-around cowboy of the four shows and was presented with a $50 war bond by the rodeo association. A capacity crowd of nearly 18,000 persons attended the four shows according to Sec. Carl J. Smith of the association.

Violate Basic Rule

WEST SALEM—Walter G. Wagner of Portland and Sam Muchnick of Salem, each posted $5 bail for violation of the basic rule. Melvin Louis England, West Salem, was cited to appear in police court for the same offense. Louis Henry Probst, Independence, posted $2 bail for failing to stop at red light.

Byrnes Slated For Address

NEW YORK, July 7.—(P)—War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes will join other Washington leaders in a special broadcast to business leaders of the nation on July 14, explaining the role that advertising plays in creating a better home front, the war advertising council said Tuesday.

Other speakers on the NBC nationwide broadcast at 1:15 p.m. EWT, will include Donald Nelson, chairman of the war production board; Marvin Jones, war food administrator; Elmer Davis, office of war information director, and Chester L. La Roche, chairman of the war advertising council.

Cherry Picking Progresses at Fairview

FAIRVIEW—Cherry picking is in progress at the Peter Parvin and E. W. Mathews Royal Anne orchards. Some of the Royal Anne orchards on lower levels have already been harvested.

Jake Tompkins had 23 Mexicans weeding five acres of carrots for him and he took them to Turner where they picked 3000 pounds of cherries for his father-in-law, Howard Hunsaker, who was unable to get other help.

Drives Through Light

WEST SALEM—Isaac Moses from South Carolina posted $2 bail for driving through a red light. Gerald Kelley of Salem was cited to appear in police court for violation of the basic rule.
