

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

BOMBS FOR TYPHOONS—The RAF's fast Typhoon fighter now can carry two 500-pound bombs, one of which is shown being fitted to the plane. Note 20-mm. cannon in wing.

STADIUM INTERLUDE—Fritz Reiner (left), noted conductor, and Artur Schnabel, Polish pianist, chat during intermission of a Lewisham Stadium concert in New York.

FLOWER HAT—Garden nasturtiums and sungold veiling are combined by Film Actress Leslie Brooks to make a smart summer hat to wear with cool, short dinner dresses.

GARDEN TUTORING—Junior Carson, 3 years old, gets first hand instruction in horticulture from his father, Jack Carson, stage and screen actor, in their Hollywood garden.

SHEEP FOR CLOTHING — AND FOOD—On a sheep ranch near Coaldale, Alberta, graze some of the animals expected to raise western Canada's sheep population to 1,000,000 this year. Most are Rambouillets, noted for fine fleeces and mutton.

DEVIL MASK—A tank welder at the York Corporation plant, York, Pa., wears his idea of war paint.

BEAMS FROM BERLIN—This unusual photograph of German searchlight beams was made from a British plane bombing Berlin. Vibration of plane produced the "steps."

NEW BATTLE GROUND—Long John, Jr., Ute Indian construction worker at the big Geneva steel works being built near Fruita, Utah, looks over the area where his forebears engaged Mormon pioneers in battle in 1849.

FUR-LINED—Rating high among coats for the coming season is this nutria-lined box-type of Forstmann fleece in a new shade of green called winterpear, for street or dress wear.

PEASANT BALLET—Girl dancing students go through the spirited routine of a peasant ballet in a display of folk dances at Sydney, N. S. W., charity affair.

'HI 'YA SOLDIER!—Actress Ann Sheridan, who thinks the nation's girls should salute Army privates and greet them with a "Hi 'ya soldier!" as a gesture of respect, demonstrates her idea by saluting Private Roy E. Stover.

WORK-AND-PLAY ARRANGEMENT—In this Chinese neighborhood a fenced-in playground accommodates younger children while parents work in their victory gardens.

SNOOD HAT—Stark white with American Beauty roses is the dashing color combination of the snood hat worn by Nan Wynn, film actress. The straw braided hat is worn back on the head. A striking black and white print dress completes her outfit.

ECUADORIAN FLIERS ON VISIT—Aviation officers of Ecuador's navy watch a 300-caliber soldier demonstrate how to take a rifle apart at the ordnance exhibit in the Chrysler building, New York. Left to right are Capt. Edmundo Casvajal, Capt. Ernesto Delgado, Capt. Luis A. Ariza, Capt. Rafael Ramos, and their guide, Capt. E. C. McElhany, USMC.