

Dallas Council Adopts Budget

Salary Increases Talked for Officers; Reports Read

DALLAS — The city council met Monday night in the council chambers. The budget was adopted as drawn, there being no opposition. It became effective July 1.

J. T. King, former police officer, was appointed to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of W. H. Springer.

Ordinance to amend the present bill posting ordinance had its first reading.

Ordinance to allow increases in salary of $25 for street commissioner and city marshal; $15 for the auditor and $10 for city police had its first reading.

The June report of the city marshal was read and ordered filed. The quarterly report of the water commission was read and ordered filed.

Swegle People Leave on Trips

SWEGLE — There were a few Swegle families out of the city over the holiday weekend and a few more reported guests.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bulla were in Corvallis visiting at the home of Mr. Bulla's sister and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mr. Wilson's brother and wife from Portland and Robert Hensell left Monday morning for a week's fishing at Paulina lake. It is Mr. and Mrs. Wilson's vacation week from their work at the state hospital.

Wilbur Runner spent two days in Portland visiting at the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack La Bosc.

Miss Methine Bulla and Miss Alice Blanchard were at Taft beach on the coast for three days over the weekend.

Guests over the weekend at the Otis Dawes home were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dawes and two children from Portland.

Cane Fruit Crop Ripening

Dallas Needs 150 Cherry Pickers; Irrigating Starts

DALLAS — One hundred fifty more cherry pickers are needed, according to Preston Doughton of the farm labor office. He reports that picking is keeping up well and that the fruit is not spoiling as yet. The pickers are well ahead of the cane berries.

A platoon from Salem is picking at the J. A. Reeves patch. Cherry picking is about completed at the E. H. Harris, Harold Stapleton and Fred Elliott orchards.

The soldiers from Camp Adair were highly commended for their part in harvesting the fruit over the weekend.

UNIONVALE — Youngberry picking is in progress at the one-acre field of Neal Stoutenburg and Lester Holt, it starting here Tuesday. The small crew of pickers harvested 76 crates of berries weighing approximately 13½ pounds apiece.

Mrs. Clark Noble lashed but four boxes of picking 20 crates, carrying off top honors. Mrs. Louis Maceo picked 19 crates and Mrs. Holt was third with 14 crates. Three cents a pound is being paid for the work and thus far only local residents have been employed.

J. S. Coomler is hauling the berries to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Stoutenburg of Carlton came to Unionvale over the Fourth of July to gather wild blackberries and Royal Anne cherries to can for next winter's use.

Mexicans are hoeing corn at the Marion Boulden farm.

GRAND ISLAND — Harry Tompkins reports that 23 Mexican laborers are weeding five acres of table beets at his farm and that the work is very satisfactory.

Irrigation has been started in almost every type of truck garden on the Grand Island farms except melons. The showers during May and June prevented the need for the usual early irrigation.

Mildred Mehrer Arrives for Visit

SMITHFIELD — Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Wall and family motored to Portland on Wednesday on business and also called on their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mehrer. Little Mildred Mehrer came back with the Walls to spend several days visiting with relatives in and around Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Starr of Portland spent the weekend at their summer home here. Before their return to Portland, they purchased Royal Anne cherries from Sol N. Ediger.

Wilma Dee Sloan left for Paradise, Calif., on Tuesday morning after spending a week with the E. W. Wall family here.

Walls Visit In Portland

NORTH DALLAS — Mr. and Mrs. Abraham C. Wall, accompanied by their father, Rev. Jacob Wall of Dallas, went to Portland Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mehrer and family. They also were accompanied by Mildred Mehrer, who had visited relatives at Smithfield and Dallas for the past few days.

Sol H. Warkentine has been working since last Thursday in making hay. He is employed at the Dallas sawmill and it was shut down for repairs over the past weekend thus giving him the needed time for seasonal work.

Visitors at the Abe Fischer home on Tuesday morning were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wiebe and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gerins, all of Lapine. Wiebe is a niece of Abe Fischer.

Rev. H. H. Dick left on Friday night for Montana and other points of the middle west to attend to church conference business. His duties are that of field representative of home mission work of the Evangelical Mennonite Brethren conference of North America. He will be gone several weeks.

Soldiers Feted On Fourth

Nobles Entertain 50 USO Hostesses, Adair Men at Ranch

INDEPENDENCE — Mr. and Mrs. William Noble and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Noble of Seattle were hosts to a group of soldiers and junior hostesses from the Independence service men's center at the McLaughlin hop ranch on the Fourth of July. Transportation for over 50 soldiers and the hostesses was provided. The picnic grounds were near the lake where motorboats were enjoyed. Horseshoes, archery and baseball were enjoyed, followed by a weiner roast provided by the hostesses. Dr. Mae Hall, director of the service center was also present.

A covered dish dinner was given in the yard of the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McBee Monday afternoon. Following dinner the group attended the review at Camp Adair.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sprague and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. James Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Melford Nelson and family, Miss Mary Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomas, Mrs. F. B. Spencer and daughter, Miss Myra Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. McBee.

A picnic at Hazel Green on Monday was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert, Mrs. S. J. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hubbard and son and Mrs. Willard Lawrence and son.

Rev. Loyl Vickers of Corvallis was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Gladys Olsen and Glen Olsen of Molalla visited Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hoffman. Glen left this week for service with the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plessinger and son of Portland spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oberon.

Mrs. Hugh Amsherry returned Monday from a two-weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Knickerbocker at Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Krieg and daughter of Portland visited this weekend at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Knott.

Mrs. George Kirkland of Portland, Mrs. Irma Kylio, and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Fratzke and family spent the weekend at the Hoover cabin on the Santiam.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kelley enjoyed a picnic dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelley and family Sunday at the Dallas park.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kelley and children of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nelson and children of North Bend were dinner guests Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kelley.

Plaque Committee Sets Meeting; Plans Progress

WOODBURN — The committee arranging for the erection of a plaque at Woodburn to honor former residents there who are serving in the armed forces will meet tonight at the American Legion rooms in the city hall to complete arrangements and count total contributions.

Contributions will be accepted still, although most were made by July 1. Work on sand blasting the shaft and erecting it will start soon.

Mrs. Bauman Goes on Vacation

MT. ANGEL — Mrs. Ivo Bauman left Tuesday on a two-weeks' vacation in San Francisco where she will visit with her sister-in-law, Miss Eustelle Bauman, and Miss Therese Ficker, both employed there.

Mrs. A. Taylor of Portland, a niece of Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber, is visiting at the Faulhaber home for a few days prior to her return to Minnesota to make her home with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hortsch, while her husband, who has been drafted into the service, is away.
