

Lt. and Mrs. William J. Grijalva, married on July 10 in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church. The bride, the former Norma Hodge, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hodge, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Amelia Grijalva of San Francisco. While Lt. Grijalva is stationed at Camp Adair they will live at the Ambassador apartments. (Jesten-Miller).

Miss Murphy Is Bride . . .

Amid a setting of white gladioluses, pink larkspur, green and white tapers, Miss Lucile Claudine Murphy became the bride of Mr. Paul Maxwell Brunskill at a ceremony read at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian church by Rev. W. Irvin Williams.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Murphy, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Brunskill of Albany.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride was gowned in a gown of white lace and tulle. The dress was made with a lace bodice, long sleeves and a train. The bridal bouquet was of purple-throated white orchids, gardenias and bouvardia.

Mrs. Cecil A. Crafts attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a pale blue dress, made with a bodice of taffeta and skirt of tulle. Her bouquet was of gardenias, pink roses and bouvardia and she wore matching flowers in her hair.

Miss Nancy Ann Kirkpatrick of Lebanon was the organist, playing the wedding march from Lohengrin before the ceremony and Mendelssohn's wedding march after the vows were read. She also accompanied Mrs. Hugh Kirkpatrick of Lebanon who sang "Because" and "At Dawning." Candles were lighted by Mrs. Claude E. Sutter and Mrs. Walter Kropp.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Murphy wore a gown of emerald green, with lavender accessories and hat and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Brunskill wore dusky rose, with an orchid corsage.

Best man for Mr. Brunskill was Mr. Kenneth A. Murphy, and ushers were Mr. Claude E. Sutter of Berkeley, Mr. Raymond Barrett and Mr. Vincent Hurley of Albany and Mr. Alexander Aitken of Eugene.

After the ceremony, a garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on the north Pacific highway. In the receiving line were the newly married couple, their attendants and parents.

Mrs. Percy Kelly of Salem, Mrs. Walter Stuart of Albany, and Mrs. Guy Lewelling of Albany poured. Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Rex Davis and Mrs. John J. Gill of Lebanon cut the ices. Serving the bride's cake was Mrs. Fred Ward of Albany and serving the groom's cake was Mrs. Jake Stuart of Albany. Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mrs. Howard Jenks were in charge of the gift table. Serving were Mrs. John Summers, Albany; Mrs. Walter Kropp, Albany; Miss Nancy Ann Kirkpatrick, Lebanon; Mrs. L. J. Young, Mrs. Charles Garrison and Mrs. Edwin Frank, Salem.

When the bridal couple left on a short wedding trip, Mrs. Brunskill was wearing a pale blue silk crepe suit with navy and fuchsia accessories and hat, and an orchid corsage. They will live at Spirit Lake, Idaho, for the remainder of the summer.

The bride is a graduate of University of Oregon, a member of Hermian, physical education honorary, Amphibians, the swimming honorary, and Alpha Psi. She took her master's degree at Temple university, Philadelphia, where she was a member of Phi Delta Gamma, woman's graduate scholastic honorary. She is principal of Linnton school in Portland.

Mr. Brunskill is a graduate of Oregon State college school of pharmacy and a member of Phi Kappa Phi. He is now chief pharmacist's mate at the naval training station at Farris, Idaho, having returned from 20 months of active duty in the Aleutians.

Don't Look Now . . .

but . . . the navy blue uniforms of the midshipmen at Willamette, now seen in numbers on Salem streets compliment the sun and khaki of the soldiers and makes us residents realize that there really is a navy. Probably many of the boys were admonished by their mothers many times to wear neckties and dress up when going out, but it takes Uncle Sam to make them wear fatigue uniforms until their neckties come.

Wonder if . . . some of the girls in town who are now khaki-wackey will become blizie-wuzlie?

A real thrill . . . We have gone to circuses off and on for the past—well, several years, but had forgotten how much fun it really is. This year we went with two nieces, one of whom had never seen a live elephant, and for once, she was utterly stumped. They were much bigger than she had expected.

An interesting question . . . Donald Voorhees, young American conductor, has issued a request for suggestions for pieces to be played on the great day Hitler surrenders. It should be interesting to know what type of music Americans will want.

Oh, yes . . . we don't know whether to be flattered or hurt. We note that always hovering somewhere around our own Friday morning broadcast, there's the program called "Sentimental Songs." We used to follow Edna Wallace Hopper, who ended her program with "they're taking me off the air, they're taking me off the air!" but we find we have outlived her—at least as a radio broadcaster.

Brief and to the point . . . Mrs. James T. Brand, speaking to members of the Girls' Service organization of which she is an adviser, said, "No one's knees, either front or back, are pretty after he or she is six months old."

As we see it . . . Fortunately we only break our glasses on rare occasions, so hadn't read all the periodicals of the optical company. We found an up-and-coming copy of the April, 1942, New Yorker rather interesting after glancing through a newsy December, 1941, Life. We looked around for the August, 1942, number of Time to find out what's going on in the world these days but concluded that they haven't received their copy yet. Perhaps one has to get into the doctor's office via the route of a broken leg or a troublesome sinus to see a copy of those more recent magazines.

Some 250 guests have been invited to the ceremony.

Miss Herrick is a graduate of Salem schools, where she was a member of the Snikpoh dramatic society. She served as worthy advisor for Chadwick assembly Order of the Rainbow for Girls, and this year was an officer in Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. She attended Oregon State college, Willamette university and Capital business college. She has been employed at the Oregon state accident commission this year.

The groom attended St. Joseph's college, Princeton, N.J., for three and a half years and entered the army at Boling Field, Washington, DC. He was later transferred to San Francisco and then Gray Field, Ft. Lewis. He is now a warrant officer in the air force, serving as personnel officer at Gray Field.

Miss Baldock Will Marry . . .

Miss Dorothy Alice Baldock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Baldock, will leave tonight for Louisville, Kentucky, to marry Lt. George James Arens, son of Mrs. and Mrs. L. O. Arens.

The wedding, the exact day of which will be decided when she arrives, will be read by Dean Elwood L. Haines, of the Christ Church Cathedral in Louisville.

Lt. Arens has been transferred from Camp Lee, Va., to Ft. Knox, Kentucky, recently.

Au Revoir Party . . .

Mrs. Walter Winslow, Mrs. George Lewis and Mrs. John H. Carlin were hosts on Friday afternoon at a party at the Carlin home, honoring Mrs. E. C. Miller, who will leave Monday for Illinois to live. Twenty of Mrs. Miller's close friends were invited.

Mrs. Miller has been active in the Methodist church since living in Salem, and has served as superintendent of the primary department of First church for the past 12 years. She will live in Champaign, Ill., her old home.

Guests who came to the party brought letters for Mrs. Miller to open on the train. The afternoon was spent informally.

The hostess arranged baby breath, larkspur, delphinium and sweet peas to center the refreshment table.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Hardwick Rees (above), married at the post chapel of Selbridge Field, Mich., on June 17. The bride, the former Eugenia Ruth Thomas, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Thomas of West Salem, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Clara Rees of Salem. Chaplain Hugo K. List officiated. Mrs. Rees is a graduate of Salem high school and Capital business college. Mr. Rees attended Willamette university, University of Oregon and Capital business college and is stationed at Selbridge field with the air force.
