

Family at Surprise Dinner

Mr. R. P. Hanson of 180 East Miller street was honor guest at a family dinner on Sunday, in observance of his 78th birthday which will be July 22. The picnic dinner was a surprise and was given at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Carl Allport.

Attending were four generations, Mr. Hanson, his son Leon Hanson, his granddaughter and great grandson, Mrs. Q. Fuqua (Doris Hanson) and five-month old Claude Fuqua.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Heckman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allport, Mrs. Minnie Ritchie, Mrs. Fuqua and Claude, Mr. Dean Allport and Miss Jacqueline Allport. Mr. Hanson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culver and son, Howard, of Portland came later in the afternoon.

Miss Bailey Wed in East

Miss Grace Bailey and Ensign Clarence J. McCusker were married in Chicago July 1. The ceremony followed the graduation of Ensign McCusker from naval officers' training school. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Bailey and Ensign McCusker is the son of Mrs. C. J. McCusker of Portland.

For her wedding the bride wore a brown and white polka dot costume suit, a large white hat and a corsage of orchids.

The marriage vows were exchanged in the chapel of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago, with Dr. J. L. Anderson performing the ceremony.

A luncheon in the Drake hotel followed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and attended Willamette university, where she was a member of Beta Chi sorority. At the University of Montana she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Later she took training as a laboratory technician at Emanuel hospital in Portland. She has been employed at the Barnes Military hospital and was recently transferred to Wesley Memorial hospital in Chicago.

Ensign McCusker attended Grant high school in Portland and Reed college, and was graduated from Oregon State college. He later attended the University of Oregon Medical school for two years before enlisting in the navy. He is a member of Nu Sigma Nu medical fraternity.

Ensign McCusker reported for duty July 9 in New York City where the couple will make their home.

Tea Given for Visitors

Three visitors in Salem were honored at an informal tea Wednesday, when Mrs. Clifton Mudd entertained Mrs. Dorothy Ryan of Lake Charles, Louisiana Mrs. F. C. Caley of Wichita, Kansas, and Mrs. Mae Reed of Los Angeles, California were the special guests.

Mrs. Ryan is the mother of Mrs. Gordon McCoy. Mrs. Caley is visiting as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Caley, and Mrs. Reed is the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jordan.

Mrs. Curtis Cross has returned from a 10-month stay in California and plans to make her home here. Part of her stay was spent as an employe in a defense plant in Turlock. Mrs. Cross attended the launching of the SS Eugene in Long Beach, Calif., when her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Cross, was sponsor. Mr. Cross, a first class petty officer in the navy, was home on furlough at the time of the christening.

NORTH DALLAS—At an impressive service Friday at 9 o'clock in the Evangelical Menonite Brethren church in Dallas, Miss Erna Dick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dick, became the bride of Mervin Olfert, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wall. The bride wore a white satin gown cut in princess lines with long sleeves and a train. Her fingertip length lace-edged veil was caught on her head with a tiara or crown effect headpiece. Her bouquet was of bouvardia and American Beauty roses.

Her bridesmaid was Miss Leona Rupp of Seattle. Best man was Mr. Arnold Brandt of North Dallas.

The candle lighters were Miss Wilma Dick, sister of the bride, and Miss Sophia Olfert, sister of the groom. Rev. D. P. Schultz officiated.

The altar was backed with pink gladioluses and regal lilies. An archway of fern and pale blue hydrangeas completed the setting.

Mrs. William Dick and Mrs. A. C. Wall were afternoon gowns of pastel shades and corsages of pink and white carnations.

A male quartet composed of Waldo and Henry Wall, Heis and Ben Friesen sang.
