

Sports Trail

By Whitney Martin
Wide World Sports Columnist

NEW YORK, July 20—(AP)—No body in authority yet has said that the army-navy football game might not be played this year, so now would seem to be a good time to put in a plug for it, as it's always a good idea to start moving while the other guy is still fumbling for his shootin' iron.

This is strictly a "who said I snitched the watch is a liar" attitude as nobody has accused anybody of anything or suggested that the game should not be played, but there will be objections raised by the anti. There were last year, and the same gents are still around.

Frankly, we can't see any harm in playing the game. The two schools are going to play football, so they might as well play each other as anyone else.

The major objection last year was based on the transportation problem, which was neatly skirted by playing the game in comparative secrecy at Annapolis, Md.

If the crowd still is the main objection, the situation could be handled by playing the game without spectators, as after all a crowd of 10,000 or 100,000 is just a man alone in a telephone booth insofar as general interest is concerned. That is, the people who actually could see the game under any conditions would be a negligible quantity compared with the millions who follow it by press and radio.

As far as transporting the teams to the arena is concerned, that is a minor problem. They even could get a squad in a horse car if necessary, if the race people would let them move out the nags for a little while. We've seen the time when an American horse car would seem quite a luxury. Those French corn cribs on wheels were no bargain.

However, we don't think the transportation of the teams would enter in any argument, as the baseball teams still go around. In fact, in the case of the Dodgers, they go 'round and 'round.

So the sole objection would seem to be the crowd as it pertains to the transportation problem. There would seem to be three alternatives in this situation.

First, they could stage the game in a speaky manner, without spectators, with the nation at large and our far-flung armed forces being given vivid descriptions. After all, that's all they get anyway, except for the 10,000 or 100,000 who might ordinarily see the game.

They might hold it with the attendance rigidly restricted, as last year. And lastly, they might throw the gates wide open and strive for as large an attendance as possible, an old heck with everything.

Senator Mead (D-NY) is one who advocates a bumper attendance, the crowd, under his theory, coming from the large city in which the game might be held. He suggests an attendance of from 75,000 to 100,000 to raise a respectable sum of money, and in advocating a crowd of that size he automatically limits the sites in which the game might be held, as you can just about count the stadiums of that size in the country without taking off your shoes.

You have the stadium in Philadelphia, and Soldier Field in Chicago, and Ohio State stadium, and the Pasadena Rose Bowl, and New Orleans Stadium, just to name a few that come to mind. There are some others, but not many. In fact, Senator Mead's own Buffalo district has a stadium which would like to be filled. We don't know how many that one holds. The senator couldn't be putting in a plug for his district, could he? Anyway, this is all just conjecture just to beat the gun on objections which are sure to come. We have a hunch the game will be played.

Pirates Purchase Maple Leaf Pair

PITTSBURGH, July 20—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday obtained infielder Al Rubeling from the Toronto Maple Leafs for an undisclosed amount of cash and the use of pitcher Harry Shuman on option until the end of the International league season.

The Buccaners are desperately in need of an infielder to replace Shortstop Eugene "Huck" Geary, who quit the club last week to return home. Rubeling is batting a mere .254 but, a spokesman for the Pirates said "that is 100 points higher than Geary was doing."

HEMORRHOIDS (Piles)

Hemorrhoids (Piles), Fissures or Strictures

Such conditions require your health—your dignity—your peace. For 20 years we have successfully treated thousands of people for these ailments. No hospital operation. No confinement. No loss of time from work. Call for examination or send for FREE descriptive booklet.

Open Evenings, Mon., Wed., Fri., 7 to 9:30

Dr. C. J. DEAN CLINIC

Physician and Surgeon

11 E. Cor. E. Broadway and Grand Ave. Telephone East 3018, Portland, Oregon

Bluejacket Tops 'Tam' Golf Circus

Sailor Shoots Par For Day's Medalist

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO, July 20—(AP)—Bill Chambers, a sleepy sailor from Great Lakes, beat the twilight to the last green and posted an even par 72 to become the medalist Tuesday in the Tam O'Shanter all-American amateur golf tournament.

Chambers, a third class storekeeper at the world's largest naval training station, fingered a day's growth of beard and smiled broadly as friends whacked his back and congratulated him.

His par 72, together with his 73 yesterday gave him a 36-hole total of 145—the lowest card in 250 tacked up by his predecessors who started out at the crack of dawn.

Chambers, who raced with nightfall Monday around the Tam course, never heard the rosters crowd, for after returning to Great Lakes, he spent the night studying how to become a second class storekeeper. He took the test before hurrying out to the first tee at noon today.

"That's what was on my mind," he smiled. "Gosh, how I hope I stepped from a third class storeman to a second class storeman."

His four birdies thus became somewhat incidental to his ambition of climbing up the navy's ladder. But they made his golf card read 36-36.

Walter Kroll, 27, who has been runner-up for the South Bend, Ind., city championship five times, registered a 38-35—73 to total a 147 for runner-up medalist honors.

Bracketed at 148 was a pair of Chicago veterans, Art Doering and Steve Kovach.

The qualifying deadline was 180, and the only better known competitor who failed to get in was Gus Moreland of Peoria, Ill., with 80-81—161.

Wilford Wehrle of Racine, Wis., who failed to live up to rave notices Monday when he zoomed to a 79, rallied for a 70 Tuesday—the only sub-par round to be produced by the horde of some 250 players seeking 64 qualifying berths in Tam O'Shanter's all-American amateur golf tournament.

Wehrle posted a 78 on his signed card Monday, which should permanently have sealed the matter in all accordance with the standard code of golf. But the Tam rules committee saw fit Tuesday to make a change.

Although most of the scores continued to creep upwards, three amateurs managed to match par. Steve Kovach, the Pittsburgh steelworker, pounded out 38-34, the last nine being the lowest trip of the tournament; Donohue trumped with 36-38, and Art Doering of Chicago managed 35-37.

Sgt. Joe Louis, the heavyweight boxing king, took 86 swings Tuesday for 36-hole total of 173 and failed to qualify.

Averages Sink, Amerk Batsmen

CHICAGO, July 20—(AP)—Those leading American league batting averages have quit looking quite like a war worker's income tax and have begun to resemble the hitting marks of Joe Shortstop from the corner sandlot team—much to the distress of such young men as Guy Curtright, Vern Stephens and Dick Wakefield.

Where once the league's statistician was privileged to compile such remarkable figures as "Ste phen, .448," "Higgins, .363," and "Hockett, .342," he sat down today and scrawled off "Curtright, Chicago, .333; Stephens, St. Louis, .327; and Wakefield, Detroit, .323," without once referring to his table on astronomical mathematics.

That left other places in the top ten to Oris Hockett of Cleveland at .315, Luke Appling of Chicago at .309; Bob Johnson of Washington at .296; Pinky Higgins of Detroit at .294; Roy Cullenbine of Cleveland at .289; Chet Laabs of St. Louis at .288, and Johnson of New York at .293.

Wakefield remained ahead in total hits with 109, Stephens in home runs with 13, and Etten in runs batted in with 58. Ken Keltner of Cleveland was credited with the most doubles at 25 and John Lindell of New York and Rudy York of Detroit were tied in triples at seven. The 24 stolen bases by George Case of Washington were tops in pilfering.

Pitching honors continued to rest with Orval Grove of the Chicago White Sox and Hal Newhouser of the Detroit Tigers. Grove had the best winning mark with eight triumphs and no defeats, and Newhouser led in strikeouts with 93.

Giant Hurler Optioned

NEW YORK, July 20—(AP)—Fitcher Tom Sunkel, who has been with the Jersey City club on option, Tuesday was recalled by the New York Giants and his contract immediately assigned to the Montreal club of the International league in a straight cash deal, the Giants disclosed Tuesday.

Montreal is owned by the Brooklyn Dodgers, who sold veteran outfielder Joe Medwick to the Giant last Friday.

Browns Boost for Future; Sign Sewell, Show Faith

ST. LOUIS, July 20—(AP)—Officials of the St. Louis Browns are just oozing confidence these days in baseball, their club and its manager, Luke Sewell. That confidence oozed right onto a coroll signing Sewell to a few two-year contract.

The tie that binds (terms were not announced) will keep Luke here through 1945, a period of history which some observers predict may be void of baseball. Such an observation President Don Barnes astutely peep-pooed.

"Here we are in the middle of a war year and attendance every day has held up remarkably well," Barnes asserted Tuesday. "The government attitude toward baseball is favorable; the public and the men in the armed services want the game to continue. So I see no reason why it should not go ahead."

"I see only a favorable future, for baseball and for the Browns. I am planning ahead accordingly."

STATESMAN SPORTS

By Al Lightner, Sports Editor

Bulldog Clips Ross In Mat Headliner

Jackson Josiles Champ in Third Heat; 'The French Angel' Scheduled Tuesday

By TRAVIS CROSS

The hated yet popular mat hombre, Bulldog Jackson, found his "night to howl" at the local armory rasilin' arena Tuesday night as the Alaskan toughie took two-out-of-three fall match from Pacific Coast Champion Tom Ross in a non-title exhibition staged amid howling hoots from the season's top crowd.

The Bulldog, particularly cocky last night after he had defeated Mel Peters Monday in Portland while Ross was "taking the count" from Ernie Pilius, combined a hammer lock and arm muscle stomp forcing Ross to give out with the mercy call.

A series of rough and tumble belly blows together with a rousing body slam brought the crowd to its feet but sent the Bulldog flat to the mats.

With the score technically all even, Ross opened what was later "third fall fireworks" with a two-leg kick to Jackson's molars, what there are of 'em, but even that failed to stop the ferocious, win-bent Jackson and he returned long enough to again use the upper arm muscle stomp. Ross evaded that one for the minute, however, but Jackson slyly slipped in a quick groin kick that brought agony plus to the champ. From there on out, seconds in length, Jackson took advantage of Ross' weakened condition and wound up the match with a lusty series of arm stomps.

In the preliminary bill, MIM Olsen took two quick falls from Bill McKahn after the latter had won the first fall while in the opener, Mel Peters and Tex Hager fought to a stalemate. Peters scored high on the first fall with an air spin followed by a body slam while each tended leg-locks and stiff arms in the final stanzas.

An announcement from the ring last night revealed that "The French Angel," nationally famous wrestling star, has been booked for Salem next Tuesday night, July 27.

Replacement To Be Mulled

Arrangements for carrying on Willamette university's athletic program in the absence of Roy S. "Spee" Keene, athletic director who will leave next Sunday as a lieutenant-commander in the United States navy, will be discussed by the university's executive board at a meeting Friday in Portland. President G. Herbert Smith said Tuesday.

President Smith indicated that he is not in favor of the employment of part-time coaches, as such a program usually is associated with professionalism.

Lt. Commander Keene will report for duty at Fort Schuyler near New York City.

Arky Vaughan Reported Okeh

CINCINNATI, July 20—(AP)—Manager Leo Durocher of the Brooklyn Dodgers learned Tuesday night that Arky Vaughan, his slugging third baseman who has been in a New York hospital for treatment of stomach ulcers, would rejoin the club Wednesday in time to play in one of the two games scheduled with the Cincinnati Reds.

Vaughan left the club after Sunday's doubleheader at Boston to enter Memorial hospital in New York and earlier today Durocher had been informed he would not be able to return to the club before Thursday night.

Olinger Captures City Swimming Crown

The graceful diving of Bud Suling and Buck Kephart scored sufficient points to pull an otherwise lousy Olinger tank corps "over the top" and at the same time saw up a sweet 67-65 victory for the northeast playground in city-wide swimming and diving competition at the Olinger pool Tuesday afternoon.

Tom Drynan's Olinger squad were nursing a near 10-point deficit when the aforementioned lads gave off with a smooth enough exhibition to gain themselves each a tie for the top spot in the 14 year and older diving class, Dean Allport

NBA Ratings Place Bivins Top of Heap

Said Head Contender For Joe Louis' Title

WASHINGTON, July 20—(AP)—Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland was named a logical contender for Sergeant Joe Louis' heavyweight crown and Sluggo White of Baltimore moved into the already-muddled lightweight picture in new quarterly ratings announced Tuesday by the National Boxing association.

Boxers serving in the armed forces dominate the list. Division champions whose titles NBA has "frozen" for the duration include Louis of the army, light heavyweight Gus Lenevich of the coast guard and middle-weight Tony Zale and welterweight Freddie Cochran of the navy.

Bivins, ranked in the heavyweight class for the first time, was rated behind Billy Conn and Melio Bethina, both of the army, as a heavyweight contender.

Following Bivins were the "outstanding boxers," Tami Mauriello of New York, Lee Savold of Des Moines, Ia., and Turkey Thompson of Los Angeles.

The lightweight crown was left vacant. President Abe J. Greene of the NBA said, however, that he hoped to establish an undisputed titleholder soon by bringing about a clash between Sammy Angott, retired champion, and Bob Montgomery, New York recognized lightweight king. White and Besu Jack, former New York champion, also figure prominently in the picture, Greene said.

Henry Armstrong, only man ever to wear three boxing crowns at the same time, who now is embarked on another comeback campaign, was listed as a contender for Cochran's title.

NBA made few changes in its listings. Practically all of the contenders and outstanding boxers, as well as those with the honorable mention label, are ring veterans. Most of the youngsters who normally would make up the crop of promising ring prospects now are in uniform.

Seals Blank Padres, 4-0

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, not only continued to set the pace for the National league batters this week but stepped up the beat seven points to a .338 average.

Johnson and his teammates combined to develop a wild streak in the seventh inning when the home club scored its last run off three errors and two walks, without a hit. Errors were charged to Catcher Saikeld, Second Baseman Wheeler, and Shortstop Morgan, while Johnson walked Egan to force in the run.

San Diego.....000 000 0-0 5 2
St. Francisco.....021 000 10x-1 10 1
Johnson and Saikeld; Joyce and Sprinz.

Stan Musial In Nat Saddle

NEW YORK, July 20—(AP)—Stan Musial, the sophomore slugger of the St. Louis Cardinals, not only continued to set the pace for the National league batters this week but stepped up the beat seven points to a .338 average.

His authoritative hitting was more than sufficient to keep him on top, although the veteran Billy Herman of the Brooklyn Dodgers also improved his mark by four points to .332 to stay in second place and Stan Hack of the Chicago Cubs climbed eight points to .330 and third place.

While this trio of hitting stars was moving upward Ellsworth "Babe" Dahlgren of the Phillies, who led the league for many weeks with an average that was in the .340-.350 neighborhood, continued to slide downward. In the last week his percentage dropped from .323 to .317 and Tuesday he was in fourth place.

Based on 200 or more times at bat in games played before Tuesday the others in the select society of ten leading hitters were Lonnie Frey, Cincinnati, .314; George Kuroski, St. Louis, .312; Frank McCormick, Cincinnati, .310; Walker Cooper, St. Louis, .308; Arky Vaughan, Brooklyn, .307; and Augie Galan, Brooklyn, .306.

Ernie Lombardi, big catcher of the New York Giants who was last year's batting king, had a .311 average, but had been at bat only 147 times.

Early Birds to Get Birds

Sewell Sinks Phillies, 1-0

Hurler 8th Straight Win in 'Hot' Fracas

PITTSBURGH, July 20—(AP)—Truett (Rip) Sewell hurried his eighth straight victory for the Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday night, shutting out Philadelphia 1 to 0 and allowing but five hits before 11,996 fans. The Bucs bunched three of the five hits allowed them by Dick (Kewpie) Barrett in the second inning for the lone score.

The Pirates' rally came during an argument between Umpire George Magerkurth and players on the Pittsburgh bench, which ended in the banishment of Bob Elliott and Max Butcher.

The argument started over a called strike with Elbie Fletcher at bat. Elbie singled and Frankie Gustine sent him to second with another single. After Vince DiMaggio fanned, Al Lopez laced a single to center and Fletcher chalked up the run.

Manager Frankie Frisch had to send Tommy O'Brien, rookie outfielder, to third base to replace Elliott, because of a shortage of infielders due to Shortstop Huck Geary quitting the team.

Sewell, who ran his season's total to 14 victories against 2 setbacks, used his slowball frequently to throw the Phils off their stride. In the eighth frame he tossed the pitch some 25 feet into the air and it dropped across the plate at Ronnie Northey's knees for a called third strike, bringing a vigorous protest from the outfielder.

Rip fanned Schoolboy Rowe, pinchhitting in the ninth, to end the game, after he had put two runners on base by walks.

Phila.....000 000 0-0 5 0
Pitts.....010 000 0x-1 5 0
D. Barrett and Livingston; Sewell and Lopez.

Stan Musial In Nat Saddle

NEW YORK, July 20—(AP)—Stan Musial, the sophomore slugger of the St. Louis Cardinals, not only continued to set the pace for the National league batters this week but stepped up the beat seven points to a .338 average.

His authoritative hitting was more than sufficient to keep him on top, although the veteran Billy Herman of the Brooklyn Dodgers also improved his mark by four points to .332 to stay in second place and Stan Hack of the Chicago Cubs climbed eight points to .330 and third place.

While this trio of hitting stars was moving upward Ellsworth "Babe" Dahlgren of the Phillies, who led the league for many weeks with an average that was in the .340-.350 neighborhood, continued to slide downward. In the last week his percentage dropped from .323 to .317 and Tuesday he was in fourth place.

Based on 200 or more times at bat in games played before Tuesday the others in the select society of ten leading hitters were Lonnie Frey, Cincinnati, .314; George Kuroski, St. Louis, .312; Frank McCormick, Cincinnati, .310; Walker Cooper, St. Louis, .308; Arky Vaughan, Brooklyn, .307; and Augie Galan, Brooklyn, .306.

Ernie Lombardi, big catcher of the New York Giants who was last year's batting king, had a .311 average, but had been at bat only 147 times.

New Game Rules Issued; Ickes Says Stocks 'Good'

WASHINGTON, July 20—(AP)—Early rising sportsmen will get in an extra half-hour of hunting daily the open season on migratory birds this year.

The 1943 hunting regulations, announced Tuesday by the interior secretary Harold Ickes, permit shooting to begin a half-hour before sunrise, 30 minutes earlier than last season. As last year, it must end at sunset.

This good news for the nation's 5,500,000 bird hunters was accompanied by word from Ickes' fish and wildlife service that game stocks this season would be "decidedly big" with the "greatest southward flight of ducks and geese in a couple of decades." Normally 15 to 20 million are bagged annually.

Furthermore, it was reported that the government probably would make some additional ammunition available to sportsmen, although "not much" should be expected. Wildlife service officials expressed belief that many hunters already are well stocked.

All in all, they said, it should be a "very good season" for those who have plenty of shells—and can find the time and gasoline to get out hunting.

The fall 70-day hunting season begins September 25 in the northern zone, October 15 in the intermediate zone, and November 2 in the southern zone. Iowa and Pennsylvania were placed in the northern zone at state officials' request.

Bag limits were unchanged except that Sora were included with Coot so that 25 Sora or Coot—not more than 25 in the aggregate may be taken daily. Last year, the limit was 15 on Sora, 25 on Coot alone.

The new regulations, with an eye to the meat shortage, permit sportsmen to retain birds lawfully taken for as long as 45 days—15 more than last year—after the close of the season in the state where the kill was made.

Andy Pafko Still Tops Coast Loop

LOS ANGELES, July 20—(AP)—Andy Pafko's inflated batting average suffered a 10-point decline during the past week, but the hard-hitting Los Angeles outfielder continued to lead the Pacific Coast league sluggers through games of last Sunday with a neat .380. Pafko was at bat 25 official times during the week and garnered only six safe blows.

Jehany Dickshot of the Hollywood Stars lost eight points but continued in second place with a robust .374. Les Searnsella, Oakland, jumped from fifth place to third with an average of .354, while the Stars' mighty Babe Herman grabbed fourth place from San Diego's George Deiore by bringing his average up to .333. San Diego's George McDonald completes the big five with a mark of .324.

The league leading Angels continue to lead in team hitting with .285. Hollywood is in second place, 15 points behind.

Individual Batting (Regular players in 30 or more games. All regular local players listed.)
Player and Club G AB H Hr RBI Pct.
Pafko, LA.....38 200 148 13 24 380
Dickshot, Holly.....37 258 137 8 66 374
Searnsella, Oak.....36 371 134 1 132 354
Herman, Holly.....35 111 37 0 23 333
McDonald, S. Fran.....33 239 84 0 27 354
Deiore, SD.....34 214 65 0 21 302
Deiore, SD.....48 118 37 0 16 322
English, LA.....36 374 119 13 66 318
E. Maloney, LA.....35 197 64 5 21 318
Luby, Oakland.....34 309 117 3 43 317
Hill, Holly.....31 78 26 1 6 316
Donohue, Holly-Sea.....35 188 56 0 23 312
Carroll, Seattle.....37 393 63 1 17 310
Clements, Holly.....36 372 115 0 38 308
Morgan, SEY.....31 49 15 0 5 306
Youngers, Holly.....37 354 76 8 47 309
Moran, Holly.....36 372 111 3 43 308
Gabrielson, Sea.....30 282 78 0 27 288
Moran, LA.....35 188 56 0 23 302
Gill, Portland.....37 319 68 1 24 307
Mullen, Seattle.....47 179 59 0 7 379

Sideshow Odd Angles On Day's News

CHARLOTTE, NC—(AP)—"Sergeant" William Turner Funderburk, Jr., is the youngest member of an American air force squadron.

Young Bill, a husky eight-pounder, was born July 13 to Mrs. Funderburk. His father, a master sergeant who formerly was based at Morris field here where he met the girl who is now Bill's mother, was killed in England May 27 when a jeep overturned.

In memory of their comrade, the 315 members of Funderburk's air force squadron wrote Mrs. Funderburk requesting that they be permitted to "adopt" the unborn baby and send it a monthly allowance.

Young Bill now has 25 pounds in English money and will receive the same amount monthly. His mother has a check for $150 from the squadron to help pay the expenses of the young "sergeant's" arrival.

SEATTLE—(AP)—A sergeant who returned from the Attu campaign with one hand missing expressed the belief that "some of those Japs were just plain crazy. Personally, I think a lot of them were 'hopped up' and didn't know what they were doing."

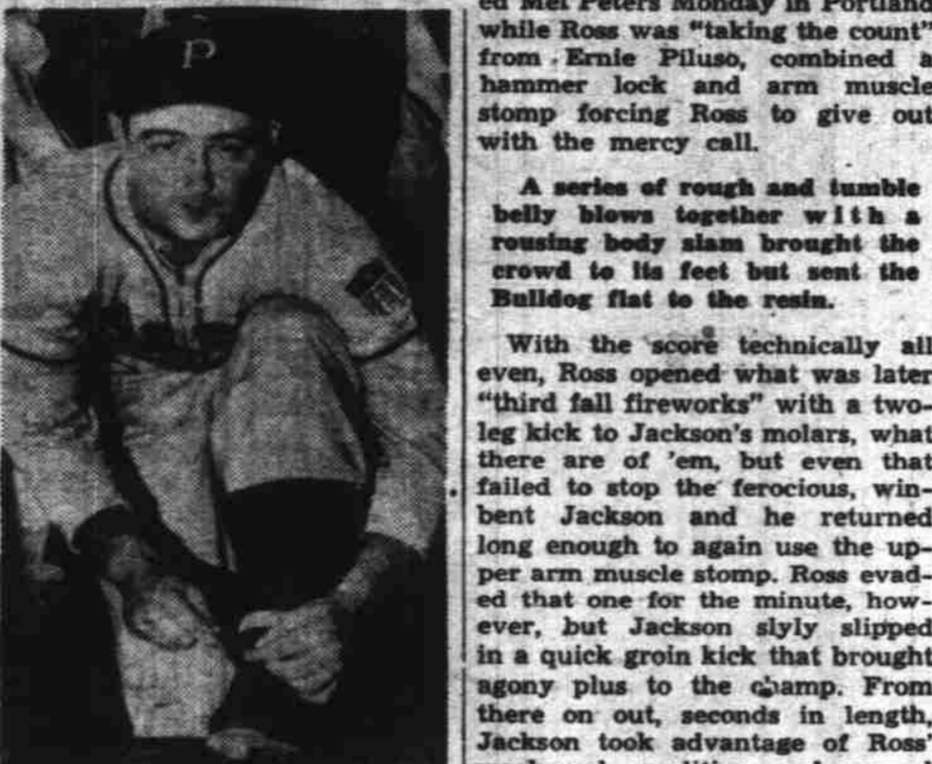

The wounded veteran, Sgt. Blufford Head of Durant, Okla., said a Japanese prisoner told him, through an interpreter, that when they run out of sake (the Japanese alcoholic drink) "the devil gets in them."

Head was one of 54 Attu casualties who arrived here today. He said he lost his hand when a "booby trap" grenade exploded during the gathering of Japanese bodies.

Head was not known as it was a gift. Gardeners are invited to inspect the bloom and to identify it.

Bierly Visits 4H Gardens, Union Hill

UNION HILL—Amos Bierly, 4H club leader, visited the gardens of Guy Scott, Rollin Heater, Donald Peters, Charles and Edna Morley, Floyd Fox, Gene Mulkey, Don Priddy, Richard Krenz and Marjorie Tate on Saturday. These children all belong to the Union Hill grange 4H garden club.

EUGENE GEARY of the Pittsburgh Pirates, known now to major league baseball followers as "Homestek Huck" who failed to show up for the third time recently, as a result drawing indefinite payless suspension. It was later learned he had returned home.

THEY'RE BOTH CHAMPIONS.—Pretty Peggy Flinn poses with her handsome horse, "Carben Copy," after winning first place honors in the Western event at the Riverside Country Club's horse show at Santa Monica, Calif.

How They STAND

COAST LEAGUE	W L Pct.	W L Pct.
Los Ange 48 25 723/Seattle	44 49 473
San Fran 57 27 686/Holly'd	42 52 453
Portland 48 45 515/Oakland	40 54 455
San Diego 45 51 489/Sacram'o	31 62 333

Tuesday Result:
San Francisco 4, San Diego 0
(Only game stated.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE	W L Pct.
New York 47 29 619/St. Louis	38 494
Washington 44 28 537/Clevala'd	37 41 474
Chicago 48 45 515/Oakland	40 54 455
Detroit 48 38 560/Philadel.	34 48 415

(No games played Tuesday.)

HEMORRHOIDS (Piles)

Hemorrhoids (Piles), Fissures or Strictures

Such conditions require your health—your dignity—your peace. For 20 years we have successfully treated thousands of people for these ailments. No hospital operation. No confinement. No loss of time from work. Call for examination or send for FREE descriptive booklet.

Open Evenings, Mon., Wed., Fri., 7 to 9:30

Dr. C. J. DEAN CLINIC

Physician and Surgeon

11 E. Cor. E. Broadway and Grand Ave. Telephone East 3018, Portland, Oregon

DR. T. LAM, M.D.

Physician and Surgeon

421 North Liberty

Updates Portland General Electric Co. Oiler's open Saturday only. 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; 4 to 7 p.m. Consultation free of charge. Practice since 1911.