

Reunion Fete House Guests

Mrs. Hoffman Is Honored at Affairs Given by Family

SWEGLE—There were a few guests and some going for short trips in Swegle district last week. Mrs. Elvina Hoffman has had as her guests her daughter and grandson from Orange, Calif. Two family reunions were held while they were here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoffman entertained with a family dinner on their twin sons' birthday last week and Mr. and Mrs. George Pepper of Salem entertained the different families at dinner on Sunday. Mrs. Emma-gene Miller came down from Vanport where she is teaching to spend the weekend with her mother and sister and attend the reunions. Visiting in the home of Miss Grayce Dunagan and her mother on East Turner Road from Thursday to Sunday were Mrs. Dunagan's daughter, Mrs. Gordon Wooford, and daughter, Janice, from St. Helens and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dunagan and children, Dennis and Sandra, from Portland. Mrs. William McKinney has returned to her home on Garden Road from a visit at the home of her aunt in Medford.

Mrs. E. E. Welty spent several days visiting in the home of her son, Homer, and family in Portland.

Planes Entertain House Guests

MIDDLE GROVE—Mr. and Mrs. George Plane have had as recent guests a cousin of Mrs. Plane, Stella Dakan, grade school teacher from Nampa, Idaho! Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burr and nine-month-old daughter, Roberta, and Mrs. Burr's father, E. N. French of Yakima, Wash. Mr. Burr is an orchard man in that section and Mr. French also assists in similar work. The Burrs left Tuesday and the Planes will take Mr. French to Portland today where he will meet the Burrs for transportation home. Mrs. Plane is a sister of Mr. French.

Leedys Attend Birthday Picnic, Tigard

LABISH CENTER—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Leedy, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Aker attended a birthday picnic at Tigard honoring Mrs. Flora Leedy Wednesday on her 80th birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Leedy of Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leedy and Alan of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilbur of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, Betty and Lois of Sherwood and Mrs. Chris Christensen of Tigard.

Visiting at the Nathan Kurth home for several weeks is Dick Nichols, nephew of Mrs. Kurth, who lives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Klampe are entertaining Mrs. Nina South, who is from Clark, SD. She plans to stay for several weeks.

A large number of members and friends of the Kum-Join-Us class attended the annual picnic at Silverton park on Thursday. The Ladies' Aid also will have a picnic some time in August, the exact date to be set later, at Olin-grove field in Salem. Mrs. Frank Weinman, Mrs. Harvey Aker and Mrs. Clyde Leedy are in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Beard Back From Wisconsin

DETROIT—Mrs. H. W. Beard and Jimmy have returned from a visit to her former home in Wisconsin. They were accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Roy Welch of Dayton.

James and Harlow White, Eugene Rice and Laurence and Eugene Finlay are returning Sunday from a week at the junior boys' camp at Turner. Leaving the same day are Clifford White and Richard Rice, who will spend a week at the senior boys' camp.

Mennonites Slate Events

Sunday School Picnic Set at West Salem Sunday Afternoon

WEST SALEM—The Rev. A. A. Loewen will have charge of the morning services at the Mennonite church Sunday. Following the services, a picnic dinner will be held under the trees on the parsonage grounds. All children are welcome whether or not they are regular attendants at Sunday school.

Sunday afternoon a group from the church will sing at the convalescent home in Salem. The group consists of Mr. and Mrs. Buhler, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Harns, Betty Buhler, and Lorraine Hart. Wednesday night will be the regular prayer meeting; Thursday night the young peoples' choir practice; Friday the junior choir practice, and Sunday from 9:30 to 10 p. m. is the broadcast over KSLM.

HOPEWELL—Rev. Chester Goodman of Salem held the quarterly conference at the Hopewell United Brethren church Tuesday night. Clyde M. LaFollette of Wheatland was elected trustee.

Mrs. Ross Rogers and Mrs. Howard Stephens were chosen delegate and alternate to attend the annual denomination's conference to be held at Walla Walla, Wash., in August.

Has Appendix Out

DETROIT—Mrs. Harold Champion underwent an appendectomy at the Deaconess hospital recently.

Mrs. Scofield, Visitor Attend Alumni Picnic

MIDDLE GROVE—Recent visitors at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ray Scofield were Mrs. N. A. Clodfelter and son, Floyd, of Portland. At the end of their visit, Mrs. Scofield accompanied them to Eugene where they attended an alumni picnic above Skinner's Butte, honoring a former high school teacher, Mrs. Kabler of Creswell, who has completed her 50th year of teaching and has signed a contract again this coming year.

Mrs. Clodfelter and Mrs. Scofield were two of the ten present from the old Crow high school group besides many others from various schools where Mrs. Kabler had taught. Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Derflinger of Salem attended, he having been a pupil of hers in the east in 1903. Another of the high school group there was Carroll Ford, service station operator from Salem.

After visiting at the homes of Mrs. Henry Relek, Mrs. Hasel-ton and other friends in Eugene for several days, they returned to their homes Tuesday.

Mrs. Eda Rood of Marshfield spent a week recently with her niece, Mrs. Ray Scofield.

Mrs. Mary Herndon has returned from a week's visit in Portland at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William O'Donnell. Another daughter, Eva Wilson, accompanied her mother to Portland and has taken secretarial work with a defense housing project at Vancouver.
