Where They Are—What They Are Doing

Edwin J. Busick, above, was one of 16 young Oregonians who recently were commissioned second lieutenants in graduation exercises of the army air force Gulf Coast training center. Lt. Busick, whose Salem home is at 1520 North Fifth street, received his advanced flight training at Altus field, Altus, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, 100 Fairview road, were surprised by a telegram from their son, Cpl. David N. Smith, advising them to expect him home on furlough. He arrived Sunday night and will have 30 days off duty. Smith has been in the marine corps since December 10, 1941, and has spent 13 months overseas, all of them in the south Pacific and the last six in Guadalcanal. He received his training at camp Elliott, Calif. Before enlisting, Cpl. Smith was employed here by the state highway department. His unexpected telegram and surprise visit were the first word the Smiths had received from him in the last two months.

WEST SALEM—Vernon White of Madrona street left Wednesday for the Farragut naval training station. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. White of Cascade drive. His wife, Betty, will remain in the home that they had just completed here.

UNIONDALE—Milo Kuhn of Camp Adair is spending a 14-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kuhn, here.

GRAND ISLAND—Leonard Will in the navy training at Chicago arrived home Tuesday on a five-day furlough.

James Worthington, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, is in a hospital at Amarillo, Texas, receiving treatment for a minor ailment. He is an airplane mechanic.

Carlus Congias in the army air corps is receiving his training at Dover, Del.

LYONS—Second Class Seaman Bob Brassfield, who is stationed at Seattle, spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brassfield.

Cpl. Archie Day of Camp White spent several days at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Day.

WOODBURN—Pfc. Robert Hecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hecker, is training as a radio operator-mechanic at the technical school of the army air forces command at Sioux City, SD. The two-weeks course will prepare him for membership in a bomber crew.

Beryl A. Bonaeker is in training at Farragut, Idaho, in the navy hospital. After a thorough six-weeks course, he will become a member of a hospital unit under navy command.

Ralph Harlan, veteran of World war I, is now serving again with the armed forces as a marine Seabee. Mrs. Harlan recently returned from a visit with her husband at Camp Peary, Williamsburg, Va. Pvt. Ronald Harlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harlan, recently returned to Salem on furlough from his infantry training camp at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri.

Wendell U. Macklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Macklin of route three Salem, has returned to Salem on leave from the Farragut, Idaho, naval training station.

Lt. Marcus George, 31, (above) younger son of US Senator Walter F. George of Georgia, is reported aboard an overdue plane. He has been stationed with the navy at Floyd Bennett field.

where he has been training during the past seven weeks.

Sidney F. Wells, son of F. F. Wells of 296 Gerth avenue, Salem, is now stationed at the army air force basic training center in Kearns, Utah, where he is learning the use of small arms and the gas mask.

LeRoy E. Barker of route seven, Salem, has been advanced to the grade of petty officer 2/c at the naval air station in Norfolk, Va., where he is an instructor in final engine assemblies.

Ray Cleecker, seaman 2/c, has returned to Salem on leave from the Farragut, Idaho, naval training station where he had been in training for the past eight weeks. Cleecker is a graduate of Mt. Angel prep and is a former student of Oregon State college. On his return to Farragut he will receive his opportunity for further study in one of the navy's specialized training schools.

Elmer L. Griepentrog, son of Mrs. Martha Griepentrog, has enlisted in the navy Seabees and has the rating of chief petty officer. He will leave for duty on August 18.

PORTLAND, Aug. 12—(AP)—Salem contributed 29 of the 68 men signed at the navy recruiting station here Thursday. It was one of the largest groups to come from the capital.

The Salem men were Clement J. Butte, Carroll A. Butte, Robert W. Carpenter, Ronald R. Clark, Merle A. Cox, Arthur L. Daugherty, George F. Davis, Harold D. Erickson, Jr., Richard E. Goebel, Gene G. Bunz, Elmer L. Griepentrog, Earl M. Hall, Herman J. Hemann, Leo E. Hopp, Eugene M. Kelley, Roy L. Lewis, John E. Marr, Arthur G. Matherly, Richard V. McCallister, Francis A. Meier, Floyd R. Mulcrone, Robert H. Niemeyer, Jr., Clair E. Priem, Louis O. Sachtler, Calvin E. Samuel, Ralph A. Smither, Norman F. Stone, Robert C. Warren, Arthur G. Wyatt.

Silverton sent Joseph H. Brown and Fred A. Rogers.

From Sicily came the V-mail letters which Thursday reached Mrs. Paul Slaughter, 482 South High street, from her husband, Pfc. Slaughter. First word from him in a month, they told of the welcome in homes and churches of Italian people on the island. A spaghetti dinner served by the wife of one of the railroad men brought praise from Slaughter, who said he was learning some of the Italian language.

Allan J. Gilbert, who entered the navy Thursday, August 5, is now stationed at Farragut, Ida.

USO Seminar Leader Is Author

Dr. Charles T. Holman, whom the Chemeketa street USO is bringing from Chicago to lead a three-day seminar on personal counseling, is the author of three books: "The Cure of Souls," "The Religion of a Healthy Mind," and "Getting Down to Cases." He is one of the founders of contemporary religious and pastoral counseling, and an entire generation of theological students has studied under his guidance as professor of pastoral duties and Dean of the Baptist Divinity House at the University of Chicago.

Meetings will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings, August 17-19, from 10 a. m. until 12:30 p. m. at the YMCA. Social workers, as well as ministers, will be welcome, according to Robert R. Boardman, USO director in charge of the seminar.

Books on the subject of personal counseling will be on display. Afternoons will be reserved for personal counseling with Dr. Holman. Thursday afternoon a seminar of military chaplains will be held at Camp Adair.

Infantile Paralysis Hits San Francisco Area
STOCKTON, Calif., Aug. 12—(AP)—The prevalence of infantile paralysis in the San Francisco Bay region has brought the cancellation of the 12th regional sea scout regatta scheduled here labor day week. Chairman Harry Hoffmann announced Thursday.

Registration High for Summer Christian Endeavor Session

More registrations are in now than at this time last year for the annual Christian Endeavor summer conference to be held at Turner, from August 24 to 29.

Rev. C. P. Gates, superintendent of Evangelical churches in Washington and part of Oregon, will be the featured night speaker, centering his address around the conference theme, "If I Be Lifted Up."

Rev. W. H. Lyman of Salem will begin the daily morning classes with a Bible study. Other classes are: "CE Essentials," Vernon Fishback of Roseburg; "Better Meetings," Dr. Walter L. Myers of Beaverton; "CE Society in Principle and Practice" and also "Union CE Work," Howard C. Cole of Salem; "Great Bible Chapters" and also personal work; Rev. James Aiken Smith of Salem; recreation plans; Mrs. Ross Guiley of Eugene; junior society work and daily children's hour for the children on the grounds, Mrs. Emmett Rickard, Lebanon; worship, Mrs. Howard C. Cole of Salem, and discussion group, Rev. Mr. Gates.

Dr. Walter L. Myers of Beaverton will be dean of the conference; Mrs. Ross Guiley, dean of girls; Rev. H. L. Bronson of Tulelake, Calif., dean of boys; Miss Elcy Walker of Forest Grove, business manager; Mrs. Howard C. Cole, song leader; Mrs. Walter L. Myers, hostess, and Mrs. W. E. Bish of Portland in charge of kitchen arrangements.

Afternoons are given over to rest, relaxation and sports such as volleyball, baseball, ping pong and swimming under the direction of Rev. H. L. Bronson. Friday night is the traditional night for the conference banquet.

The conference will begin Tuesday morning, August 24. Delegates may come on Monday and have sleeping accommodations for the night if they provide their own food until breakfast Tuesday morning. The conference will have a full schedule Sunday morning, August 29, with recognitions and awards for those who have completed certain study requirements, a communion service, and a sermon by Mr. Gates, and will close in the early afternoon.
