

Lyons WSCS Names Bazaar Committees

LYONS — The Womens Society of Christian Service from the Lyons Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. George Clippell in Fox Valley, Mrs. J. A. Rook was in charge of the devotions. The afternoon was spent in doing fancy work for the bazaar which will be held some time this fall, with various committees being appointed.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. J. A. Rook, Mrs. Oral Toland, Mrs. Robert Fetherston, Mrs. Hal Howard, Mrs. Douglas Gavette, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Alex Bodeker, Miss Fannie Wilson, Mrs. Marvin Toland, Mrs. Rudolph Brador, Mrs. Wallace Power and Mrs. Clippell.

Mrs. H. C. Shields of Salem is visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith. Mrs. Shields is a sister of Mrs. Smith. The Lyons Southern Pacific depot has been rearranged so that the office is larger. The depot also has received a new coat of paint inside and out. All other buildings belonging to the SP including the section foreman's house has been repainted.

Miss Janielou Haney of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting at the home of Mrs. Lora Stevens and daughters. She is a cousin of Otto and Raymond Haney, former residents of Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thoma and sons, Richard and Jimmie, of Stayton were Sunday visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hiatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trask and Mrs. Dean Trask and daughter, Sharron of Albany were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ring.

Mrs. Anna Keaton who has spent some time at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spa, left Wednesday morning for Seattle where she will make an indefinite stay at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Ben Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Huber attended the McDonald reunion held in Scio Sunday. Guests at the Huber home this week are Mrs. Huber's nephew and niece of St. Helens.

Farmers Start Grain Harvest, McAlpin

McALPIN—Farmers are all busy getting their grain harvested. All combines are working, with grain making a good yield. The Waldo Hills threshing machine plans to start its yearly run the first of next week. Fred Hottinger's machine will also thresh in this community.

SCIO—Hay and small grains are yielding heavily this season in the Scio locality, according to many who have completed garnering and threshing.

Mrs. Humphreys Visits Relatives at Toledo

McALPIN—Mrs. Orlo Humphreys is spending a few days with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gray and infant daughter, Nancy Carol, at Toledo.

Alice Jean Fisher is visiting this week with her cousins, Darleen and Irene Phillips at Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Argus Pearson and daughters of Willamina were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Pearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilmour.

Mrs. Call Named County Clinic Nurse

ALBANY—Replacing Mrs. Crystal Foster, who has held the office of clinic nurse under direction of Dr. Edward Bostrom, head of the Linn county health department, is Mrs. Hazel Call, RN.

Mrs. Call, who was born and reared in Albany, has been engaged in nursing at the Albany General hospital for several months. Previously she had been in California where she was engaged in the same occupation.

Purdys Mark Birthdays With Party

SCIO—On the 13th birthday anniversary of Dawn Purdy Friday, the 27 boys and girls met on the lawn of the Purdy home near the east outskirts of the city. Refreshments followed games, music and visiting.

Thirteen red, white and blue candles on the cake, together with small American flags, afforded a patriotic slant at the party. A flag was given to each guest as a souvenir of the event.

Dawn's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Purdy, also observed her birthday at the same time, she also having been born on the same day.

Several of his young friends attended a birthday party at his home Saturday for Gordon O'Reilly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil O'Reilly of south Scio. Games and refreshments were featured. The boy is six years of age.

Melvin Sweet and family of Grand Ronde visited relatives and friends in Scio and vicinity a few days ago. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Sweet's mother, Mrs. Clarence Leffler. Mrs. Sweet attended high school here a few years ago.

Recent visitors in the Scio community from Portland included Kenneth Westenhoe and family of Portland. Kenneth is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Westenhoe, pioneer farmers on Thomas creek, and taught in Linn and Lane county schools for several years.

Imogene Miller is expected home this week from a visit of two weeks with the family of her sister, Mrs. George Powell, at Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, farmers a short distance southeast of Scio, plan to attend next Sunday at Redmond the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. Miller's sister, Mrs. Dean Van Meter.

Albany to Get New 'V' Center

ALBANY—Construction of a new victory center for Albany is to be started soon, authorization for the same having been received here by G. T. Hockensmith, Albany postmaster.

The center will be located on the postoffice block between the postoffice and the Greyhound terminal building, tentative plans calling for either a building or housed platform, the cost of which is to be between $1300 and $1500. Construction also calls for the erection of a fence to enclose the entire lot.

Hockensmith asked for and received the permission to erect the buildings on the postoffice block at the request of Harold Farris, Linn county bond sales chairman. Permission was received from W. E. Reynolds, commissioner of public buildings for the postoffice department.
