

Grain Trading More Active

Prices Firmer as Commission Houses, Short Sellers Buy

By GILES FINDLEY
CHICAGO, August 24 (AP)—Grain prices had a firmer undertone Tuesday with the trading pits showing more activity.

Purchasing by commission houses, professional traders, and some covering by recent short sellers lifted prices moderately above the previous close and despite some profit taking the gains were maintained.

Wheat closed 1/4 cent a bushel above yesterday's finish, September $1.44 1/2, oats 1/4 cent up, September 72 1/2, and rye unchanged to 1/2 higher. September $1.00 3/4.

There wasn't much news to affect the market.

Cash interests were moderate buyers of wheat futures at times, and shipping demand was fair. Reports at the board of trade said government owned feed wheat was being sold at the rate of 20,000 to 100,000 bushels daily. Brokers said they expected that some spring wheat would be delivered on September contracts, a somewhat unusual circumstance.

Rye showed fair strength, a continuance of yesterday's upward movement, but trading was light. Traders said the cash rye market was rather narrow.

Oats were fairly active. The September contract sold at the season's highest prices — 72 1/2 cents a bushel, which surpassed the previous high of 72 cents. Cash oats also sold at a new seasonal high. No. 2 white oats sold in the cash market for 76 1/2 cents a bushel, highest in 15 years. There was no pressure on the market and buyers of the September future had to bid up prices in order to obtain grain.

Industrials, Rails Recover

Many Market Leaders Have Difficulty in Making Comeback

By BERNARD S. O'HARA

NEW YORK, August 24 (AP)—Selected industrials and rails gave a fairly good account of themselves on a recovery shift in Tuesday's stock market but many leaders found the comeback a bit difficult. The revival was of the slow motion variety in comparison with yesterday's largest sell-off in about three weeks.

Bidding cropped up at the start for a number of issues that have been depressed lately and, at the close, advances of fractions to a point outnumbered declines of as much.

Commitments apparently were reinstated here and there on the theory the more than 4 points decline in the averages from the mid-July high had served as a healthy correction and had put the list in a position to respond to any worthwhile bullish news.

War dispatches were exceptionally cheerful, particularly the record air bombing of Berlin and the Russian mop-up at Kharkov. These events, however, strengthened peace psychology and kept many customers in neutral territory. Persistence of caution also was attributed partly to the thought big events would follow the ending of the Churchill Roosevelt conferences.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was up .2 of a point at 49.1, first advance after four consecutive setbacks. The upturn lacked breadth, only 745 individual issues being traded against 836 yesterday. Of these 334 were higher, 202 down and 209 unchanged. Transfers totalled 482,530 shares compared with 719,490 the day before.

Cutting of Elk Season Asked

GOLD BEACH, Aug. 24 (AP)—Curry county residents asked the state game commission Monday to cut in half the newly declared open season on elk here in order to save the animals from decimation.

Farmers estimated there are only 150 elk in the county, all quite tame because there has been no open season for years.

Sees Japs Shelled From Ringside Seat

HONOLULU, Aug. 24 (AP)—Major Robert W. Kenny, of Tacoma, Wash., had a ringside seat at one shelling of a Japanese position on New Georgia.

He was so far forward as an artillery observer that he saw American shells drive 25 to 35 Japanese out of a fortified stronghold. Quickly relaying the new range to the gunners, Major Kenny had the satisfaction of seeing the next shell burst in their midst as they scurried for new jungle cover.

Andrei A. Gromyko (above) has been appointed Russian ambassador to the United States, replacing Maxim Litvinoff. He has been serving as a counselor with the embassy in Washington.

Ecuador Reports Revolt Quelled

QUITO, Ecuador, Aug. 24 (AP)—The foreign office announced tonight that a revolt by a group of sailors in the town of Puna against the government of President Arroyo Del Rio had been quelled and a number of arrests made.

Sailors involved in the uprising, a government statement said, were connected with the hydrographic service. The insurgents were said to have been unable to obtain help from the townspeople.

New Committee To Deal With Slumps

WASHINGTON, August 24 (AP)—Organization of a national labor requirements committee to deal with production slumps caused by manpower shortages was started Monday by Charles E. Wilson, executive vice chairman of the war production board.

Among the first problems expected to come before the committee, comprised of officials of ten agencies, is the critical labor situation in the Pacific coast aircraft industry.

Charles Butterworth, as the unhappy bugler in the Warner Bros. film version of Irving Berlin's "This Is the Army," sounds the one call that is always identified with Irving Berlin. Reveille is the call that inspired Berlin to write the most famous of war songs, "Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning." There are just a few more days in which to see this great picture now playing at the Elkslore. This picture, produced for and donated to Army Emergency Relief, continues to play before packed houses. A March of Time feature, "New Canada," and a "Bugs" Bunny cartoon completes the program at the Elkslore theater.
