Break in Rye Affects Grains

Trading Quiet After Heavy Turnover of Preceding Session

CHICAGO, Sept. 2-(P)-A break of about 2 cents in September rye toward the close today with yesterday when turnover in $1.0216-46.

lower, September $1.45%, Decem-

Can Borrow

Trading was quiet in contrast rye was 14-1% lower, September the rye pit expanded to the sec-ond largest total on record. Wheat was also unsettled on news from Puerto Rico that the Trade reports that rye being delivered on September contracts apparently was not being taken as eagerly as in previous delivery months touched off the selling. Shipping sales of 3000 bushels possible to get the molasses into were reported. This was not large, but indicated there was some demand for the grain.

At the close wheat was 14-34

Supporting the market were trade advices of continued de-terioration in the corn crop in ome sections of the country.
