

Women Urged To Hold Jobs

WASHINGTON, September 2. (AP)—The nation's working women were urged tonight by war manpower officials to stay on their war jobs "despite drudgery, monotony and home-making difficulties" — and even if their work holds little glamor.

Participating in a discussion in the Washington Star radio forum on the blue network were Miss Margaret Hickey, chairman of the commission's women's advisory committee, R. Randall Irwin, executive assistant to the management-labor policy committee, and Miss Elizabeth Christman, alternate member of the WMC women's advisory committee and secretary-treasurer of the national women's trade union league of America.

Miss Hickey declared that women in surplus labor areas should "stay right where they are unless the local United States employment office tells them to move."

The labor needs in already jammed war production centers, Miss Hickey added, "must be filled by women non-workers already in the over-crowded community. That means women of all ages, from all walks of life, of all creeds and color, must step in and take their rightful place in the battle line."

Irwin, assistant to the vice president of the Lockheed and Vega Aircraft corporation, said that one southern California aircraft factory "is losing women employees faster than it can hire them."

"It is not enough for a woman merely to take a war job," he said. "It is just as important, if not more important, that she stick to it."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Relieves Backache

Many sufferers refuse to believe that backache is a sign of kidney trouble until they have tried the old treatment. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the waste out of the blood. They help most people feel better. When disease of kidney function prevents the waste from being taken out of the blood, it may cause backache, headache, rheumatic pain, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, pressure under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty urination with smarting and burning sensations shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait until your doctor has prescribed pills, and you are still suffering from backache. They give happy relief and will help the kidneys do their job. Get Don's Kidney Pills from your dealer. Get Don's Kidney Pills.
