Wedding Rite Said In South

Miss Annetta Rasmussen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Rasmussen of Salem, became the bride of Mr. Kenneth L. Kindopp, son of Dr. and Mrs. David Kindopp of Auburn, California at a ceremony performed last Saturday night at 9 o'clock. The ceremony was read by Elder E. E. Beddoe, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church of Tucson at his home.

The bride wore an Alice blue suit of sheer wool crepe and turf tan accessories. Her sister, Mrs. John Frederick of Gladstone at-

Mrs. Kindopp is a graduate of Laurelwood Academy and for the past six months has been at the Davis Monthan air corps sub-depot at Tucson. Her husband is an instructor at the Ryan Aircraft company in Tucson.

Ann Judson Group at Church

Ann Judson society of the First Baptist church had its regular meeting Friday evening. Mrs. Muriel Curry presided over the meeting. Mrs. Ruth Engdahl presented the devotions. Mrs. Virginia Morley had charge of an interesting program which was a skit of a Chinese home presented by the Berean WWG

Hostesses for the evening were Doris Seitz, Gladys McCallum and Trudy Cates.

Picnic for War Mothers Club

American War Mothers held a picnic meeting and all day sew at the home of Mrs. J. J. Tallman on State street on Tuesday. Eighteen members were present.

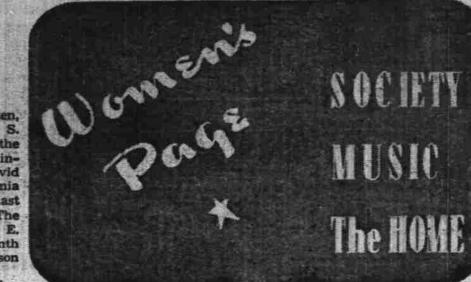

The luncheon was served on the lawn at noon, and members of the group sewed for the Red Cross during the afternoon.

CANTEEN CALENDAR

A list of organizations serving at the canteen in the Chemeketa street FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3 1st Congregational church. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

1 to 4—Woman's Relief Corps. 4 to 7—Free lance, Mrs. Vernon Perry in charge.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 5
9 to 11—Daughters of St. Elizabeth. to 7-Postal Clerks and Mail Carriers auxiliary.
7 to 11—Junior Woman's club.

CLUB CALENDAR

Relief Corps, 2 p.m.

TUESDAY American War Mothers. Sewing meeting in morning, cover-ed dish lunch at noon and husi-ness meeting following. USO. WEDNESDA Y East Central circle, First Meth-odist church, with Mrs. John Carkin, 495 Summer street, 1:15 salad luncheon.

Servicewomen

What they can do What they're doing about it

INDEPENDENCE-Miss Betty Compton who was elected recently to teach in the local high school, has resigned to enter officer training in the SPARS.

AUMSVILLE-Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bradley are awaiting the arrival here Friday of their daughter, Sgt. Virgie Bradley, in service with the Wacs at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Wedding Read At Home

At a double ring ceremony read at noon Saturday at the home of Mrs. Julia Strand, mother of the bride, Mrs. Florence Odenborg was united in marriage to Mr. Albert Harader of

Rev. M. A. Getzendaner officiated in the presence of immediate members of the two fami-

The bride wore an agua blue afternoon dress and her corsage was of Talisman roses and bou-

At the small reception which followed the ceremony, Miss sided at the urn and assisting with the serving were Mrs. Julia Strand, Mrs. C. F. Loveland and

Vows Said at

Church Exchanging their vows Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the First Evangelical church was Miss Betty L. Freeman, daughter of Mrs. Paul G. Freeman of Rickreall, and Lieutenant Roy T. Lindquist of Camp Adair, son of Mrs. Amanda Lindquist of Butte, Montana. The rites were read by Rev. Kenneth Wishart.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Joan L. Kortzeborn sang and William Fauk accompanied her. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Gerald Freeman.

> She wore a light blue suit with navy and white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Honor attendant was Miss Ruth Farmer, who wore a brown suit with lighter brown accesso> ries. Her corsage was of sweetpeas and carnations. Lieutenant Robert Becker of

Camp Adair served as best man, and ushers were Harold Freeman, Jean Estes, John Edwards and Lieutenant Joe Bucci. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Freeman chose a black suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. At the reception in the church parlors, the serving table was centered with an arrangement of white and pink gladioluses,

Mrs. Evan Davis cut the bride's cake and presiding at the urn was Mrs. Jean Estes. Mrs. Harold Freeman and Mrs. Gerald Freeman assisted.

flanked by white tapers.

After a short wedding trip to the Oregon beaches and Portland, the couple will return to Salem to make their home at 325 South Winter street.

Miss Freeman, who is a graduate of Independence schools and the Capital Business college, has been associated with the Nash Furniture company. Lieutenant Lindquist received his education in Butte, Montana.

Will Motor

A group of Salem matrons will motor to Portland today, to attend a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Claude Clif-ford. The affair, for which Mrs. Clifford and Mrs. H. Stoffel will be hostesses, is being given as a farewell party for Mrs. Kenneth Murdock who will leave Portland soon for Seattle, Mr. Mur-dock has been transferred from Portland to the Puget sound city. Prior to moving to Portland, the Murdocks were residents of Salem. Going from Salem to the luncheon are Mrs. Ralph Eggstaff, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. David Cameron, Mrs. Lawrence Lister, Mrs. Charles Feike and Mrs. Donald Madison.

To Party

Today

Wives Meet at YWCA Rooms

At the weekly meeting of The Tagalongs, matters of vital interest to servicemen's wives were discussed and a preliminary report on the application of army emergency relief to army wives in Oregon was given by Mrs. Ray Weiss. The president, Mrs. Milton Levine, appointed members to look into this matter more fully and also to report on laws governing the employment of women and minors in this state.

Four new members were enrolled, Mrs. Verne Wallin of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Henry Franks, jr., of Houston, Texas; Mrs. W. Saul Mand and Mrs. Sydney Katz, both of New York City. This brings the membership to eleven.

The meeting was held in the social rooms of the YWCA, with tea following the business meeting. Plans were made for optional activities on Sunday, one of which will be a trip to the state pententiary scheduled by the USO. The next meeting will be held at the YWCA next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Felicitations from Salem friends are going to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Justice of Peoria, Ariz., who are parents of a daughter, Carla Diane, born August 28. Mrs. Justice was, beof this city. Mr. and Mrs. Jus-

Today's Menu

We'd better get under the line before raisins are rationed, that is if you can get the raisins. Today's menu begins with a salad that takes raisins. Golden salad

Crab-cracker cakes Scalloped potatoes Fresh sliced tomatoes Ice cream, plum sauce top

Crush crackers and add about an equal quantity of broken crabmeat. Moisten with milk or other desired liquid, adding an egg if desired. Roll in egg and crumbs and fry lightly brown.

GOLDEN SALAD 1½ cups orange pieces 14 cups finely cut carrot

½ cup raisins Toss ingredients together; add desired salad dressing to moisten. Serve on lettuce or shredded cabbage; garnish with 1/2 cup chopped peanuts, if desired. Serves six.

RATION CALENDAR

Canned Goods — Blue stamps R, S and T valid from August 1 to September 20. Meat, cheese, canned fish and edi-ble fats-Red stamps T, U, V and W valid through August 31 Sugar—Coupon No. 14 expires October 31, good for 5 pounds. Nos 15 and 16 valid for 5 pounds each canning sugar Apply to ration board for additional ration if needed.

Stamp No 18. book brough October 31. GASOLINE Book A coupons No. 7 good four gallons each, usable now.

FUEL OIL

Allies Using Million Tons

French Ships

By A. I. GOLDBERG LONDON, Sept. 2-(P)-Rene Mayer, comm ications and merchant marine of the French committee of national liberation said here that united France has 1,000,000 tons of merchant shipping serving the allied war effort. Mayer, at a press conference, hinted that negotiations were im-pending aimed at restoring to the French flag the USS Lafayette, the former liner Normandie which was gutted by fire and capsized in New York and is now being

"I can't say much on that question now," Mayer added. He said that the British and Americans, who used a great amount of French tonnage in the North African expedition, would be asked to help rebuild the merchant marine. He said that "dickering" on a broad scale already had begun.

Mrs. Powell Breaks Ribs

SILVERTON-Mrs. F. M. Powell is suffering from broken ribs which she reports she sustained when she slipped and fell in her bath tub Wednesday morning. She was alone when the accident occurred, and called a doctor as soon as she was able to get to a

Greatest Equestrian Clown

Poodles" Hanneford, recognized as the world's greatest riding clown, will appear with Cole Brothers Combined Circus at performances here Monday afternoon and night on the Leslie school grounds. Other equestrian numbers include the Seven Flying Thrillers, the Anteleks, the Great Latinos and Cyse O'Dell, all features which help to make Cole Brothers' 1943 program outstanding. .

Buy every other pound of GOLDEN WEST in the temporary War-Time Package Golden Coffee WE'VE SOLVED TWO unusual coffee problems, caused by the government's severe restrictions on the use of glass for coffee packaging, and the lifting of coffee rationing. First: what to use for a package! This is answered by the glassine-lined bag. Second: how to insure freshness and flavor! Speedy delivery to your grocer, in small quantities, is now a part of our service, for our roasting plant is located in this area. Here's how you can help - patriotically - "Let every other pound you buy, be the wartime package". The price will be slightly lower than the glass jar. · Drip or Regular Grind, of course!

Golden West

Coffee

IN THE WEST-IT'S GOLDEN WEST COFFEE

So that the public will not be stampeded into non-essential, ill-considered buying, the War Produc-tion Board has definitely established the fact that there is an adequate supply of textiles to meet all essential civilian needs.

In order to provide for their proper retail distribution, and to assure the civilian population an even flow of textile products, the Chairman of the War Production Board has asked retailers to co-operate by elim-inating the use of fear of scarcities as an appeal in promotion and selling efforts, particularly:

1. "Scare" Advertising.

2. "Buy Now" Advertising.

3. Selling statements, such as "We may not be able to get more."

This is to advise you that we have ample stocks of merchandise to supply the needs of our customers; merchandise of traditional Price's quality, consisting of wide selections in coats, suits and other wants

> AND INCLUDING SALEM'S MOST SUPERB COLLECTION OF FUR COATS AND FUR PIECES!

