

Candlelight Ceremony Read

In a candlelight ceremony performed in an all-white setting at the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, Miss Maxine Rogers became the bride of Lieutenant Robert D. Welden. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maude Rogers of Salem and Mr. Charles N. Rogers of St. Helens. The groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Welden of Lewiston, Montana.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length dress of white, with a top of faille and a full marquisette skirt. The dress was made with a sweetheart neckline and Gibson sleeves. The bride wore no veil, but on her hair was a crown of white luscious begonias and orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book, on which were stephanotis and a white orchid.

Mrs. Alden Adolph, matron of honor, was gowned in a powder blue lace dress and carried a fan shaped bouquet of pink gladioluses and white dahlias. In her hair were matching flowers.

Lt. Richard Hughes acted as best man for the groom, and Lt. W. L. Shoup and Lt. R. H. Rock were ushers. Rev. W. Irvin Williams performed the ceremony.

Prof. Frank Churchill played the wedding marches and other music during the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rogers wore a dress of turquoise marquisette and a corsage of peach begonias and blue delphinium. Mrs. Welden wore a dusty rose crepe dress, and a corsage of pink rosebuds and white delphinium.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Adolph on West Washington street. Mrs. Wheeler R. English greeted guests at the door, Mrs. Carl Porter poured and Mrs. Richard Cooley and Miss Dorothy Hardie served.

When the bride and groom left for a honeymoon at Gearhart, the bride was wearing a gray wool herringbone suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Welden attended schools in Kansas City, Missouri, and went to University of Missouri. She was formerly employed at Needham's book store and later was employed by the navy in Portland.

Lt. Welden is a graduate of Culver Military academy and before entering the army air corps, was with the United Airlines in Oakland, California. He is a graduate from Yuma, Arizona airfield and has been stationed for the past few months at the Salem air base.

They will live at the Olympic apartments.

Mrs. Billhmer Is Hostess

A former Salem resident, Mrs. Harold C. Billhmer, nee Helen Bergh, was hostess for Incheon at Schneider's on Wednesday afternoon, inviting a group of employees from the office of the state police, where she formerly worked.

Mrs. Billhmer is here on a short visit at the home of Mrs. Charles Boelens. She lived in Chicago for two years after leaving Salem, and for some months has been living in Olympia, where Lt. Billhmer is stationed with the signal corps.

Guests of Mrs. Billhmer at the luncheon were Mrs. Charles Prine, Mrs. Charles Coleman, Mrs. W. H. Nadvornik, Mrs. W. H. McClain, Miss Jessie Starr, Mrs. Ida Riley, Mrs. Charles Bowlers and Miss Eula Beckner.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, 372 North Winter street will be the scene of a meeting of the Cootiettes on Sunday beginning at 2 o'clock. A no-host dinner will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Cooley are the parents of a baby girl, Cheryl Lynn, born August 28, at Pasco, Wash., where Mr. Cooley is stationed at the naval air station. Mrs. Cooley is the former Patricia Roberts.

The Woman's Relief Corps aid society will meet with Mrs. F. M. Hoyt, 733 North Winter street for an all day session today.

SWEGLE—Mr. and Mrs. William Hensell observed their 20th wedding anniversary Monday night with a dinner party at their home on East Turner road. Bouquets of large purple and pink asters were used to center the dinner table and to decorate the guest rooms, with the table centerpiece flanked by tall pink tapers all in china bowls.

Enjoying the dinner and social time following were: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scheffe, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Macklin and daughter, Donna Jane, Mr. and Mrs. William Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Hensell and sons, Robert and James. Their son, Fred, is somewhere in the south Pacific with the US army.

Couple Wed In Gervais

GERVAIS—Miss Maxine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Smith, former residents of Gervais, was married August 28 to Corporal Robert Lippis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lippis of Pueblo, Colorado. The wedding service was read at Camp Shelby, Miss., by the chaplain of the camp in the presence of army friends. Mrs. Lippis is a graduate of Gervais high school and the Merritt Davis school of commerce in Salem and has been employed at the Salem credit bureau for the past year. Corporal Lippis is with the armed forces stationed at Camp Shelby.

WOODBURN—Mrs. W. D. Simmons was pleasantly surprised at the weekend by the arrival of her grandson, Robert Wesley Simmons, Jr., and his bride. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simmons of Tacoma. His marriage to Miss Janet Marie Bagley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Bagley, took place at 8 o'clock, Wednesday night, Sept. 1, at St. Paul's Methodist church, Tacoma. The wedding is of interest to the older Woodburn residents, for the groom's parents grew up, graduated from the Woodburn schools and were married here. The young people will make their home in Tacoma, where they have purchased a home.

In the evening Mrs. Simmons' daughter, Mrs. Larry Flagg and her husband and daughter from Salem, also visited the Simmons home to felicitate the young couple.

The Ullmans have two daughters, Dolores, now Mrs. Homer Zelinski and Mary Ann.

Betrothed To Army Flier

A surprise announcement was made at the Beta Chi business meeting on Wednesday night, when a telegram was delivered to Miss Patricia Cannon, telling the news of the engagement of Miss Myra Madsen and Captain Wilmer McDowell. The meeting was held at the home of Miss Vesta Shinn.

The wedding will be performed on Tuesday night at the First Presbyterian church. Immediately afterwards, the couple will leave for Orlando, Florida, where Captain McDowell will be stationed as an instructor in tactics in the army air force school of applied tactics at the army air base.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Madsen. She is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Marylhurst and Willamette university. She is a member of Beta Chi. Captain McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Madsen, is also a graduate of Salem high school and later attended Pasadena junior college and then Willamette university. Capt. McDowell has just returned from active combat duty in China and India, and will be stationed in the states for the duration of the war.

MT. ANGEL—A party in celebration of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ullman was held in the club rooms of St. Mary's school Sunday night.

Hostesses were Mrs. Albert Diehl, Mrs. John B. Egin, Mrs. Cecilia Skonetzi, Mrs. Eugene Hoffer, Mrs. Forest Sauvain, Mrs. Minnie Dabney, Mrs. Homer Zelinski, Mrs. Fred J. Schwab, Mrs. R. T. Ebner and Mrs. Fred Hassing.

Twenty tables of "500" were in play during the evening, high score honors going to John Diehl and Mrs. Joseph Wavra.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ullman, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Jefferson; Jack Bach, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Zelinski, Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ullman, who were proprietors of the White Corner store at Mt. Angel for 12 years, were married in Los Angeles, Calif., by late Abbot Pius Furst of Mt. Angel. Mrs. Ullman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bach, Oregon pioneers.

The Ullmans have two daughters, Dolores, now Mrs. Homer Zelinski and Mary Ann.

GATES—Mrs. Blanche Syverson was hostess to the Birth-day club Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruby Horner. Mrs. Mabel Knutson won first in score, Mrs. Mabel Taylor second and Daisy Richards won low score in euchre. Those attending were Ruby Horner, Daisy Richards, Lula Collins, Mabel Knutson, Marrietta Smith, Mrs. Charles Smith, Eva Bevier, Mabel Taylor, Katherine Turnidge, Blanche Dean, Martha Bowes, Irma Green, Maude Davis, Frankie Johnson, and the hostess, Mrs. Hallie Millsap, Hazel Devine and Mrs. Edna Hall were invited guests. Mrs. Hall was awarded the visitors first prize and Hallie Millsap second. Mrs. Edna Hall, former resident of Gates, is spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Roy Taylor.

Miss Pence Now Mrs. West

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pence in Salem was the scene of a wedding Sunday, at 3 o'clock when their daughter, Jean, became the bride of Mr. Floyd Oakley West, USNR, in a double ring ceremony.

Rev. Ralph Waggoner of the Presbyterian church of Dallas performed the ceremony in an all-white setting before the living room fireplace.

On the mantel a massed arrangement of white gladioluses, asters, dahlias and daisies was guarded by white tapers, while tall floor baskets holding stately white gladioluses and greenery completed the picture.

Mr. Pence gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Ralph Waggoner played the wedding marches and music throughout the ceremony.

The bride's floor length gown of white satin was fashioned with a lace yoke which extended into narrow points in the long sleeves. Pearl embroidery outlined the neckline and was used on the coronet which held the fingertip veil in place. A necklace of pearls completed the costume. The bride's bouquet was of pink and peach roses and freesia.

Betty Auer of Rickreall was the bridesmaid and Miss Coral Cooper of Salem was maid of honor. Miss Auer's gown was of deep pink crepe and Miss Cooper's of powder blue flowered crepe. Both carried colonial nosegays of sweet peas and mixed blooms.

Mr. Donald Hamilton of Salem was Mr. West's best man. The ring-bearer, Bobbie Pence, was dressed in a white suit and carried the ring on a cushion of ivory satin. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pence chose a gown of dusty rose with a yoke of darker rose hue, and a gardenia corsage with orchid sweet peas. The groom's mother, Mrs. Floyd West, chose a soldier blue gown with a gardenia corsage with pink sweet peas.

After the ceremony the wedding cake was served from the lace-covered table in the dining room. Mrs. Harry Gustafson served the guests and Mrs. West poured. The sideboard and piano were decorated by a profusion of fall flowers.

For going away Mrs. West wore a salute blue suit with white blouse and darker blue accessories, and added a corsage of pink rosebuds with freesia. After a trip to the Oregon meachens, Mr. West, coxswain in the US naval reserves, will report back to Manchester, Wn., where he is stationed, and Mrs. West will continue her secretarial duties in the office of the secretary of state.

Out of town guests were Mrs. A. V. Pence of Portland and present also were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd West and son, Roy, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gustafson of Salem, and Mrs. E. A. Lettken, Marjorie Lettken and Mrs. Harry Dempel of Rickreall.
