Evangelicals Will Hear Fall Program

In spite of the inroads of the war effort, the fall program of the First Evangelical church, Marion and Summer streets, is getting under way. Sunday night, the pastor, Rev. J. Kenneth Wishart, will begin a series of sermons dealing with the practical application of Christianity to the individual's life problems. He has selected for his theme, "You Need God." The service will start at 7:30 p.m.

Last year's musical program will be continued with Ernest Friesen selected as choir director. William Fawk will be organist. The choir will start the fall program on Thursday, September 30. Continuing with the programs on the air, the church will offer "The Back Home Hour," broadcast each Sunday night from 9:30 to 10 p.m. "The Spiritual Interlude" on Mondays from 9:15 to 9:30 p.m. and beginning Saturday, September 25, a "Junior Church of the Air" will start from 5:45 to 6 p.m. All programs are broadcast over station KSLM.

Alta Davis Named Director Of Presbyterian Youth; Rev. Ehmman Visits Sunday

Accepting the call of the First Presbyterian church of Salem, Miss Alta F. Davis, graduate of Linfield college, arrived Wednesday to take up her duties as director of Christian education here. She has been taking additional work at Willamette university and the University of Oregon and received her master of arts degree in religious education from the University of Pittsburgh in 1941.

Miss Davis has taught in the public schools and held the position of director of Christian education in the First Presbyterian church of Pomona and the Third Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh. She served the Pittsburgh church, one of the strongest in the east, for a period of 12 years, and is well-known for her work among youth in Pennsylvania. She taught in the week day religious education program in Pittsburgh and helped write their lesson materials. She has conducted many leadership training courses, both in the church which she served and for interdenominational groups.

She will be in complete charge of the educational program of the local church, taking over the position formerly held by Miss Gertrude Hynes. Sgt. Don Douris will return to the church staff following the conclusion of the war as boy's work director.

Along with the new pastor, Rev. William F. Ehmman, field representative of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, will be introduced to the congregation Sunday. The local church contributes approximately $500 per year to the seminary.

Rev. Mr. Ehmman will assist the pastor, Rev. W. Irvin Williams, with the morning service and will report on the seminary. The sermon topic will be "What Are You Doing With Jesus?"

At night, Rev. Mr. Williams will speak on "The Psychology of Drunkenness." Special music will feature both services. In the morning the choir will sing the anthem "Build The More Stately Mansions" by Andrews and Agnes Drummons will sing Harker's "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" as an offertory solo. At night there will be a number by the mixed quartet.

Following the night service, the young people of the church will have a brief party and devotional hour together in honor of Miss Davis.
