Rites Performed On Saturday

Miss Hazel Bowman, daughter of Mr. Ray Bowman, became the bride of Mr. William T. Myers Saturday night at a quiet ceremony read by Rev. J. C. Harrison at the studio of Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts.

The wedding took place at 8 o'clock and Professor Roberts played several organ numbers and the wedding marches. The couple exchanged their vows before an improvised altar of gladioluses and candles.

The bride wore a royal blue suit with navy blue accessories for her wedding. Miss Alice Kirby was the honor attendant and wore a soldier blue dress with navy accessories. Mr. Hugh Roberts was best man for Mr. Myers.

A reception for the wedding guests was held after the ceremony. The couple will live in Salem where Mr. Myers is employed at the Oregon Pulp and Paper company.

Eyerlys Hosts To Soldiers

Fifty soldiers from Camp Adair were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lee U. Eyerly at their Flying E ranch south of Salem on Sunday afternoon. The visit was sponsored by Mr. H. R. Anthony of the Chemeketa street USO.

"We have always heard of western hospitality and it is good fortune to be guests so soon after our arrival in Oregon," said a soldier spokesman. Many of the guests had just come from the east and were on their first pass.

Upon arrival, the men were met by Mr. Eyerly, who explained the characteristics of Arabian horses and answered questions about the horses and colts. The guests were then invited to ride one of the horses, saddled with a beautiful silver-trimmed outfit. Pictures were taken of the riders and of the host.

Following inspection of the horses, a collection of saddles and of guns was shown. Mrs. Eyerly served cold drinks and cakes on the porch, which overlooks the valley.

GSO Chorus to Be Organized

A Girls Service Organization chorus has been organized and will be under the direction of Mrs. Joan Kortzeborn, it was announced at the USO on Monday. Interested members of the GSO may attend a meeting of the chorus tonight at 7 o'clock at the Chemeketa street USO.

The group will meet each Tuesday night. Mrs. Kortzeborn, well known as a singer in Salem, has a good musical background and plans an interesting winter program for the singers. A library of non-classical, folk and light opera music will be at the chorus's disposal.

GATES—Mrs. Blanche Dean was hostess to the Birthday club Friday afternoon at her home in Kings Prairie. The occasion was Mrs. Dean's 62nd birthday. Club members attending were Ruby Winters, Mabel Knutson, Ruby Horner, Daisy Richards, Lou Collins, Blanche Syverson, Marrietta Smith, Eva Bevier, Mabel Taylor, Katherine Turnidge, Martha Bowes, Maud Davis, Babe Young, Velma Carey, Irma Green and Frankie Johnson. Visiting guest was Mrs. Halle Milsap.
