

Newcomer Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Gerlen Simpson will be a tea hostess on Saturday afternoon at her Fr street home. The affair will honor Mrs. Conzelius Bateson, who with Mr. Bateson and their three sons, Cornelius, jr., Gilbert and William, have come here from Boneman, Montana to reside. Mrs. Bateson will be remembered by Mildred Gilbert and formerly made her home in Salem. She attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Phi Beta Phi. The Batesons have purchased a farm near Pratum.

Mrs. Simpson has invited guests to call between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock to meet Mrs. Bateson. Mrs. Leon Perry will greet the guests at the door.

Mrs. Elbert Roberts and Mrs. Edwin Keech will preside at the tea table the first hour and Mrs. Earl Cooley and Mrs. Raymond Bonesteale will pour the last hour.

Assisting in the serving will be Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Clayton Foreman, Mrs. Edward Roth and Mrs. Bruce Cooley.

Miss Williamson Now Mrs. Green

MONMOUTH — The Baptist church was the scene of a four o'clock wedding, Sunday afternoon, when Miss Betty Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Siebert J. Williamson, became the bride of Mr. Lester I. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Green of Valsetz.

In a setting of pastel autumn flowers the Rev. Jesse Baker of Independence read the service before 150 relatives and friends. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white satin made in princess style with round neck and long sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book white streamers and sprays of bouvardia.

Miss Melva Williamson, her sister's maid of honor, wore blue silk net over taffeta. Miss Marleah Burch of Independence, Mrs. James Marr, and Miss Betty Jane Nelson of Monmouth, the bridesmaids, wore, respectively yellow, blue and pink, floor length gowns and carried arm bouquets of gladioli.

Mr. Lester Douthit, US navy was best man. Ushers were: Raymond Jensen, US navy, Portland; Bud Garten, US navy, San Francisco; and Wallace Wilson, Portland.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Inez Kellog, Portland, sang "I Love You Truly," and Miss Ila Schweizer, Portland, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Accompanists were Miss Marie Fleischman, Monmouth, and Miss Delores Bracken, Portland. Miss Ruth Denney, Monmouth, played the wedding marches. Miss Fleischmann played "Love Divine" as a recessional.

Lighting the altar tapers were Miss Ruth Noble, Monmouth, and Miss Renay Dingman, Independence, both gowned in pink. Little Alice Jensen of Halsey, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl, and wore yellow taffeta. Robert Bostrack of Jefferson, cousin of the bride, wore a white sailor suit and carried the ring on a white satin cushion.

A reception was held at the Williamson home. The lace covered table was centered with the bride's cake. Mrs. E. A. Dickson and Mrs. Carl Byers of Independence served the cake. Mrs. William Wood of Independence presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Max Keiser, Sweet Home, at the punchbowl. Mrs. Leroy Measur of Milwaukie cut the ices. Mrs. Foster Hiltbrand, Monmouth, was in charge of the gift room.

Miss Williamson, was graduated from Monmouth high school and attended Salem secretarial school. For the last year she has been cashier at the J. C. Penney Co. store in Independence. Mr. Green, a graduate of Silverton high school, has served 19 months in the navy at Dutch Harbor, and is now stationed at the Sand Point Naval Air station, Seattle, where the young couple will make their home.

The first fall meeting of the Macleay Community club will be held at the schoolhouse Friday night. Mrs. Art Spelbrink and Mrs. Wilbur Miller will have charge of the program. Supper committee will be Mrs. John Gruchow and Mrs. Tom Burton. Everyone in the community is invited.

Mrs. F. W. Poorman and son, William, are leaving today for a visit in Roseburg with her aunt, Mrs. George Sewell.

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY MUSIC The HOME

Breakfast at Berwick Home

Miss Doris Berwick was hostess for a farewell breakfast party Sunday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Berwick, on South 23rd street.

The affair was in honor of a group of Miss Berwick's friends who left Monday to enter college. Guests were seated at a long table covered with a yellow cloth and centered with a bouquet of white and yellow button chrysanthemums.

Covers were placed for Miss Miriam Becke, Miss Beverly McGilchrist, Miss Sharon Burnett, Miss Lisbeth Kennedy, Miss Ann and Miss Jane Huston, Miss Jean Newman, Miss Virginia Cover, Miss Mary Jane Kealy, Miss Shirley Ann Bailey of Eugene, formerly of Salem, and Miss Berwick.

Home Wedding On Sunday

Married at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents were Miss Ermyl Kipple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester S. Kipple and Mr. Howard Obershaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Obershaw.

Dr. Weaver V. Hess performed the double ring ceremony before an arch decorated with ferns and asters. Miss Elvira Satter played the wedding march and Miss Betty Kipple sang "I Love You Truly" and "Calm as the Night."

The bride wore a pink, floor-length dress with net skirt and silk bodice. She carried a white Bible with gardenias.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Betty Kipple, wearing a pink net dress and carrying a bouquet of mixed flowers. The groom was attended by Mr. Robert Smith.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The older sister of the bride, Mrs. David Olson, cut the cake and Miss Vera Wood assisted. Miss Loretta Hansell, Miss Marie Lough and Miss Vivian Birdsall served.

Mothers of the bridal pair wore flowered silk jersey dresses and corsages of red roses and gardenias.

After a short trip to the coast Mr. and Mrs. Obershaw will live in Salem. The bride is a graduate of Salem high school, attended Oregon College of Education. The groom is a Salem high school graduate.

Felicitations of Salem friends are going to Lt. and Mrs. Millard Ramsdell (Catherine Eaton) of Alameda, Calif., on the birth last Saturday at Alameda hospital of a daughter, Carol Anne. The little girl is granddaughter of Mrs. Laura Eaton of Salem and the second great grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bates, also of this city.

MONMOUTH — A wedding of local interest was solemnized very simply, Sunday afternoon, when Miss Ruby Ann Lorence, became the bride of Mr. John Woodford Denny, at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. Lorence.

The Rev. Willard A. Elkins, minister of the Christian church, read the service before immediate family members.

Miss Lorence, a native of Monmouth, was graduated from local schools, from Oregon state college, and from the school of music, Columbia university, New York. She has had a wide experience in music teaching in the east and south, was on the music staff of Oregon College of Education for a time, and for several years was a member of the music teaching staff at Mills college, California. Since December 1, 1942, she has served as official USO hostess here.

Mr. Denny, a native of Alabama, was stationed at Camp Adair in the US army until recently. He is now engaged in defense work in Portland, where they will make their home.

ARE YOU A NEGLECTED WIFE?

Insure personal charm and distinctiveness for your daily routine ritual use CERTANE FEMININE HYGIENE.

CERTANE FEMININE HYGIENE

Servicewomen What they can do

What they're doing about it

FORT OGLETHORPE, Ga.— Sisters in khaki are Pvt. Mildred Elizabeth Christenson and Pvt. Marjorie Lucile Christenson, high school teachers from Salem, who are beginning their basic training together at the Third WAC training center here.

Several relatives are already in the service. They are nephews, Midshipman Harold Adams, USNR; A/S Richard Adams, a V-12 student in the USNR, and a cousin, Lt. Wallace Larkin, who is stationed at Camp Ritchie, Md. Another cousin, Maj. Reid Fendall, is prisoner of the Japanese in the Philippines.

Pvt. Mildred Christenson received her Ph.B. degree from Linfield college, McMinnville, Ore., and her M.A. degree in French from the University of Washington, Seattle. During the summer of '38 she studied at the Sorbonne in Paris.

Pvt. Marjorie Christenson holds a M.A. degree in education from Willamette university, in Salem.

The former teachers are daughters of N. C. Christenson, Newberg, and sisters of Mrs. Alice A. Adams, of Eureka, Calif.

Auxiliary Has Business Session

Mrs. James A. Garson, president of Capital unit, American Legion auxiliary presided at the meeting held Monday night in the Salem Woman's clubhouse. Reports of committee chairmen were heard. Mrs. T. J. Brabeck was named as Christmas seal sale chairman for Salem.

Mrs. Stanley Krueger, junior activity chairmen, entertained the young group at her home Monday afternoon from 4 to 7:30 p.m. Election of officers was held with the following elected: president, LaVonne Cannon; vice president, Alice Louise Ohling; secretary, Beverly Krueger; treasurer, Beverly Beakey.

Mrs. Krueger will again act as department junior activity chairman for this year. A letter was read from Mrs. Breyman Boise with an appeal for volunteer nurses aides and aide Mabel McGee, a member of the auxiliary dressed in her uniform told of her experiences and urged as many as possible to enroll in the class to start October 11.

The treasurer reported that three one hundred dollar defense bonds were purchased during the loan drive.

The executive committee will meet with Mrs. Garson Monday for a business session. Mrs. Frank Marshall has invited the membership committee to her home Friday.

Pattons Hosts At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Patton presided at dinner Monday night at their South High street home for the pleasure of their son, Sergeant Lloyd Claggett, who is home on leave this week. Sergeant Claggett is in personnel work in regimental headquarters at Camp Lee, Virginia.

Present at the family gathering were Sergeant Claggett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Claggett and Patricia, Miss Rita Claggett and Mr. Farmer Franklin of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Jory and Mr. and Mrs. Patton.

GIVE YOUR CHILD this cold-relief used when QUINTUPLETS CATCH COLD

It promptly relieves coughing and makes breathing easier. Whenever the Diones Quintuplets catch cold—their chests, throats and noses are immediately rubbed with MUSTEROLE. Musterole gives such wonderful results because it's MORE than just an ordinary "cure." It's what so many Doctors and Nurses call a modern counter-irritant. It actually helps break up local congestion in upper bronchial tract, makes breathing easier, promptly relieves coughing, sore throat and aching chest muscles due to cold. Use Musterole today! IN 3 STRENGTHS: Children's MILD, Regular and Extra Strong.

MUSTEROLE

Ruth Fromm Married Sunday

Miss Ruth Alice Fromm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fromm, was married to Mr. Clarence Lohse, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lohse of Aumsville, on Sunday at the Bethel Baptist church.

Rev. J. F. Olthoff officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony. The church was decorated with pastel flowers and lighting the candles were Miss Erna Lohse and Miss Delma Fromm.

Mr. Henry Neuman sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony. A trio composed of Mrs. Alice Willecke, Miss Viola Schrenk and Mrs. Iris Reischke sang "Because." Mrs. William Fawc was the accompanist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt ending in a train. Lace inserts embellished the waist and long sleeves extended in points over the wrist. Her full length lace edged veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of tallisman roses.

Mrs. Jack Helton was the honor attendant and wore a blue taffeta gown with fitted bodice and gathered skirt. She carried tallisman roses. Mr. Helton served as best man.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Dan Sheets cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Robert Fromm poured. Assisting were Miss Alma Baal, Miss Arlene Fromm, Mrs. Martha Baal and Mrs. M. Lohs.

The bridegroom is stationed in San Francisco with the navy and his wife will accompany him to the bay city. Mrs. Lohse attended Salem schools.

Dance to Honor Navy Seniors

"Anchors Aweigh" is the theme of the informal dance to be held in the Willamette university gymnasium Saturday night in honor of the Navy V-12 seniors who are leaving for midshipman school.

Ed Ferguson is general chairman of the evening and arrangements have been made to obtain the 104th cavalry band from Camp Adair for the dance. An intermission program is being planned.

Committees include John Cuthbert and John Christerson, program; Andrew Christall, decorations; with Bill Stroud, Bob Shea, Glen Lyons, Jim Dyer, Bob Warner and Ben Director assisting; Ross Williams and Hugh Mill, refreshments; and Warren Durham, publicity.

Fast presidents of Hal Hibbard auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, met at the home of Mrs. Lester Davis on Saturday. Co-hostess was Mrs. J. B. Parker.

Dakota club will hold a covered dish supper at 6:30 o'clock Thursday night at WCTU hall. All former Dakotans are invited to come and bring supper. Coffee is served by the committee.

Business Girls At Conference

The Young Business and Professional Girls' club of the YWCA held its covered-dish dinner meeting Monday in their clubroom at the YWCA. A report of the planning committee meeting which was held in Tacoma, at the College of Puget Sound in August was given by Eida Ridgeway and Melba Conrad, Salem delegates. The meeting was for the purpose of planning the fall weekend conference which will be held in Yakima, in November. The theme chosen is "Living Creatively in a Free World." Each club attending the conference will present ten minute skills depicting some world country. The Salem group was chosen to present a skit on China.

Eleanor Schaefer and Eida Ridgeway were appointed to represent the club at the public relations committee meeting which will be held at the Y Monday, October 18.

A waffle supper was planned for the next club meeting which will be held at the YWCA October 18 at 2:30 p.m. after which the group plans to go ice skating. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, jr., are leaving Thursday for Washington, DC, St. Louis, Mo. and Chicago. In St. Louis the Farrells will attend the secretary of state's conference. While the Farrells are away Mrs. Farrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Carpenter, will occupy their home on North Capitol street.

CLUB CALENDAR

WEDNESDAY
YEP Teachers club meet at Children's Yr. 1:30 p.m.
Book section, AAUW, with Mrs. Raymond Wash, High Street, 8 p.m.
Knight Memorial ladies guild, business meeting and lunch with Mrs. E. W. Harland, 144 South 15th street.
St. Paul's guild and Woman's auxiliary, Episcopal parish house, 1 p.m. no-host luncheon.
Fringe Women's club, clubhouse, all day.
Royal Neighbors sewing club with Mrs. Minnie Williams, 1275 Oxford street, all day meeting, no-host luncheon at noon.
THURSDAY
Fruitland Woman's circle, 3 p.m. at church annex.
Fringe Episcopal parish house, all day with Mrs. W. H. Grabenherst.
First Methodist church executive board, Carrier room, 3 p.m.
DAV auxiliary at VFW hall, covered dish dinner, 5:30 p.m., business meeting 8 p.m.
Keiser sewing club with Mrs. Joseph Bartruff.
FRIDAY
Sigma Tau Mothers, with Mrs. Carl Williams, 1229 North 18th street, 1:30 p.m.
SATURDAY
Salem Woman's club, Past Presidents' luncheon, 1:30 p.m.

AAUW Group at Portland Meet

A conference of branch presidents and state committee chairmen of the American Association of University Women in Portland this Saturday will be attended by Miss Carolyn Wilson, president of the Salem branch, Miss Beryl Holt, member-at-large of the executive board, and Dr. Helen Pearce, state social studies chairman.

Plans for the year's work in education, international relations, legislation, social studies, arts, fellowship and war service will be discussed at both morning and afternoon sessions. Mrs. Frederick A. Kiehl, president of the Oregon state division will report on her visit to national headquarters in June.

At noon a joint luncheon meeting will be held with the Portland branch. Mr. George Sberikov, assistant superintendent of Vanport public schools, will speak on "The Child in a War and Post-War World."

Marion auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will have a sewing meeting for the Red Cross at the sewing machine company office, 142 South High street on Thursday night. Officers of the VFW auxiliary will meet at Veterans hall tonight at 7 o'clock. Officers and members of the drill team have been asked to attend.

Mrs. Gordon Bennett and her daughters, Janice and Joan, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown E. Sisson.

make SEARS your headquarters for

FALL and WINTER COAT FASHIONS

Thrill to all the coats worth having...at Sears! Because your coat is the most important purchase for your winter wardrobe, because it must be your standby for warmth, lasting good looks and durability...we've lined up the smartest of this year's success styles! Pick and choose yours from a wide range of sensible prices. Young classics! Girls' coats! Furred coats! Tuxedo-front coats, and coats with button-in extra fur or leather linings. Sizes for everyone!

Classic Casual SPORT COATS 16<sup>95</sup> to 24<sup>95</sup>

Handsomely tailored long-wearing fabrics in trench coat types, Chesterfields, boxy and fitted styles. Young swingy coats to toss on over everything from tailored suits to soft little dresses! 9-15 and 12-20.

BACK THE ATTACK BUY MORE BONDS

Softly-Tailored Casual COATS 18<sup>95</sup>

Year-around investments! Choose from gabardines, covert, worsted, cavalry twill, wool-and-rayon mixtures. All beautifully finished for seasons of service. Popular colors, 10-20.

Richly Blended Stripe-Dyed Coney FUR COATS 49<sup>00</sup>

Flattering styles with excitingly new collars and sleeve treatments. Expertly blended dusky brown stripe-dyed coney.

Classic Winter GIRLS' COATS 8<sup>95</sup>

Trim, tailored coats in plaids, herringbones, diagonal and monofones. Grown-up styling and careful workmanship. 7-14.

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

484 State Street Salem, Oregon

Additional Society On Page 12

If you suffer MONTHLY FEMALE PAIN

You who suffer such with tired, nervous, irritable blue feelings—due to functional monthly disturbances—should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such distressing periods. It is also a fine stomachic tonic! Follow label directions. Work it right.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND