"Strictly Private" Stocks Trip, Then Recover

Market on Way Up

As Session Closes; Many Leaders Lose By BERNARD S. O'HARA

NEW YORK, Oct. 13-(P)-The stock market stumbled today over Italy's declaration of war on the ailled side, then recovered smartly and was moving upward at the close although fractional losses still were on the board for many Aircrafts, rails, motors and me-tals—war stocks generally—ran into considerable selling after announcement of Italy's new position in the war. At the worst losses ranged to more than a point. Volume aggregated 591,830 shares for the full session against 479,585 Monday. Of 844 issues traded, 412 finished under water, 241 were unchanged and 191 gained. The Associated Press 60stock index slipped .1 of a point to 49.6.

Carrier equities presented a mixed picture at the last. Santa Fe, Pennsylvania, Great Northern preferred and Baltimore & Ohio were off minor fractions. New York Central, Southern Pacific and Southern Railway managed small improvement,

Broad Upturn In All Grains

Smaller Farm Supply, Larger Population of Livestock Up Prices

By WILLIAM FERRIS CHICAGO, Oct. 13-(AP)-Smaller tocks of wheat, outs and corn on farms than a year ago, contrasted with a much increased livestock population, supported a broad up-turn in all grains today. Rye and barley gained more than a cent, wheat advanced almost a cent and oats were ahead fractionally.

The December wheat contract sold at $1.53%, equaling the seasonal peak established in March. This was the highest price for any wheat delivery in the past 15 years. In the cash market, No. 2 white oats brought 8 cents a bushel, another new high for the
