

Slip Cover School Starts

Salem Heights Women Learn War Economics

SALEM HEIGHTS — Actual work started Monday morning at the four-day slip cover school being held at the Salem Heights community hall. Miss Lois Lutz, home furnishing specialist from Oregon State college, is directing the school the first two days with Miss Janet Taylor also from the college and Miss Frances Clinton, Marion county home demonstration agent, assisting. Miss Taylor will take charge the last two days. The preliminary meeting was held last week when women brought their chairs for measurement and instruction for getting the materials ready. In addition to slip covers being made at the school, a few workers are making repairs to upholstery.

The two-day clothes remodeling school held at the Maceley grange hall last week concluded Friday with 15 garments remodeled at an estimated savings of $115. Miss Lucy Lane, clothing specialist from the college, and Miss Taylor were in charge.

"Dry Cleaning at Home" demonstrations are to be given this week at Union Hill, Hubbard, Liberty and Edina Lane. The Union Hill home extension unit with Mrs. W. F. Krenz as chairman, will hold an all day meeting beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the grange hall on Tuesday. The Hubbard Women's club with Mrs. Edward Schor as chairman will have the demonstration Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Stuart. On Thursday afternoon Miss Clinton will conduct the cleaning demonstration at the Liberty Women's club which is taking the home extension program for the first time this year. Mrs. S. B. Davidson is chairman, and the place of the meeting is to be announced. The Edina Lane unit will meet Friday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. James Keys.

On Saturday, the county home extension committee will hold its bi-monthly meeting with Miss Clinton at the home of the vice-chairman, Mrs. Harry Martin, in Maceley. Mrs. Azalea Sager, home demonstration leader from Oregon State college, had been scheduled to be present but due to her being out of the state, will be unable to attend. Members of the committee include: Mrs. C. A. Lynds, Mrs. Floyd Fox, Mrs. Verny Scott, Mrs. James Keys, Mrs. H. R. Woodburn and Mrs. Grace Cramer, and Mrs. Marl n.

Miss Clinton is to talk on school lunches for children on the county farm and home radio program over KSLM Thursday morning at 9:30.

Hayesville Club Elects

Noran to Head Community Group; Meetings Cut Down

HAYESVILLE — The first meeting of the Hayesville Community club was held Friday night with Albert Stettler presiding.
The following officers were elected: president, Oscar Noran; vice president, Frank Pitts; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Cleora Parkes.
Gasoline rationing and shortage of entertainment materials were reasons given for the decision to hold meetings every other month. The next meeting will be the Christmas program presented by the school children.
The members voted to accept federal aid and have hot lunches for the school children this winter. Mrs. Galen Siddall will be chairman of a committee to act on the subject.
Mrs. Lyle Carrow will take charge of the community service flag. Names of service men who have left the community since February are to be handed to her, that they may be represented with a star on the flag, and names on the honor roll.
At the close of the meeting, lunch was served with Mrs. Lyle Carrow acting as chairman.

Mrs. Lake Leads Swegle Chest Drive
SWEGLE — This community will also do its part in the united war chest campaign. Mrs. Elmer Lake has accepted the responsibility of appointing workers, distributing working kits and turning in all money received.
While war bonds are classified a safe investment, a gift to the united war chest is doing a kindness for the less fortunate of this world, leaders of the drive point out. Men in the community who work in Salem have given to the community chest and other service organizations before but never has the house to house canvass for help to a national war fund been made before.
One worker was asked if the USO received any of the help and the answer is that group heads the list followed by the United Seamen's service and war prisoners aid and then 12 different European relief societies and two refugee relief societies and one of those for care of homeless children.
At least five women will assist

Ankeny Grange Gives Annual Fruit, Vegetable Exhibit

ANKENY — The annual fruit and vegetable exhibit was held at the grange hall in conjunction with the regular grange meeting at which time reports were heard from standing committees.
Mrs. C. F. Johnston told of her experience in raising sorghum cane, receiving a good return in syrup from the effort. She expects to improve on the crop for next year. She stated that sodium chlorate for killing morning glory, which is named as the leading weed enemy, it growing roots of ten feet, which this poison is very effective in eradicating.
She reported that soybeans are taking a prominent place on the American table in various ways as well as the common uses.
Rex Hartley led a discussion on legislative affairs, concerning the problem confronting the American farmer to raising and marketing of cattle and hogs, the supply being greater than the present wholesale market demands.
It was decided to give the usual harvest dinner on the next regular meeting, November 6. All new applicants for membership will be invited to attend.
The program conducted by Lecturer Mrs. George Henderson consisted of group singing; a grange quiz; roll call; reading, "Christopher Columbus," by Bettie Wintermantal; "Halow'en Stew," Florence Mariatt; "Camp cooking," Wayne Johnston.
After closing of grange, the exhibits of fruit and vegetables were reviewed with interest by all.
The 4H club project had only two exhibits, those of Wayne Johnston, who received first prize, and Betty Wintermantal, second. Upon the table was a beet weighing 20 pounds, two-pound onions, a 25 pound squash, an immense sunflower and box of perfect tomatoes, two varieties of sweet corn, also peppers, pimiento and bell, a very large bunch of celery, cabbage and other vegetables, all gathered from gardens that day.
A display of canned fruit and jelly, and apples also were exhibited.
Lunch was served in the dining room by Mrs. Lawrence Finlay, assisted by members.
Next grange meeting will be November 6.

Community To Revise Flag

Middle Grove Club To Plant Shrubbery On School Grounds

MIDDLE GROVE — The first community club meeting of the school year was held Friday at 8 p.m. with a small attendance.
Among projects for the year is one of special importance, that of planting shrubbery on the school grounds. It was also decided to revise the service flag, presented last year by Dr. Roy Scofield.
Mrs. Esther Barker announced the quota of $425 for the coming war chest drive. Helpers are Minnie Goode, Ruth Van Cleve, Helen Hilflker, Lillian Fromm and Thelma Scharf.
The program was in charge of Vera Bassett and Medora Hyett, and opened with salute to the flag and singing of "God Bless America"; readings by Jack Hyett, with musical accompaniment by Mrs. Hyett and other musical numbers with accordions played by visiting musicians Lois Gillings and Anna Doerfler from the Priscilla Meisinger studio. The meeting concluded with audience singing of "America."
Refreshments were served by the committee, Helen Dow, Minnie Goode and Geneva Scofield.
The November meeting will be in charge of Boy Scouts, 4H club and union Sunday school, with Thelma Scharf, Esther Van Laanen and Lydia Scharf serving refreshments.

Mission Bottom Nut Pickers Set Record; Walnut Harvest Nearly Ready

MISSION BOTTOM — People here who read the news of the woman who earned $10 in a day picking filberts feel they are on the map too. In the Fred Viesko orchard Jane Wolverson picked 425 pounds and her sister, Mary Luke, was a close runner up with 421 pounds in one day. They had an average of 400 pounds a day for the first picking.
Mrs. William McGilchrist has been in charge of the picking and reports finishing the middle of this week with a yield of 15 tons.
In the Frank A. Massee 30 acre orchard, Mary Massee led all others for speed when she gathered 500 pounds in one day. There were many others who picked up as many as 300 to 350 pounds per day in the first picking. In the second time over, wages were raised and many pickers made from $10 to $13.50 per eight hours. Mrs. Massee was in charge of the picking and will finish the first of this week.
Mrs. Joe Ryan is asking for pickers for the second time over. She employed Mexicans to help with the first picking and is now holding her regular pickers to a one-half cent bonus.
Walnut picking is expected to start soon, though these nuts have been very slow in falling. Picking is considerably later compared with other years when October 14 has been the latest.
