

Rev. Thornton Substitutes

Furnishes Sermon, Music at Services in Unionvale

UNIONVALE—Rev. Leo Thornton, pastor of the Liberal Evangelical congregation of Portland, was supply pastor at the local church services here Sunday during the absence of the pastor, Rev. Robert Bennett. Mrs. Thornton was sojourning with Mr. Thornton playing the trombone accompaniment. Mr. Thornton also sang.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Thornton of Salem, accompanied the pastor and his wife here and to the Hopewell church services, returning to their home in Salem for dinner before the night service.

Unionvale residents were particularly interested in hearing Mr. Thornton because his parents are natives of this community. His mother was Miss Rada Antrim, daughter of George Antrim, who resides here. For several terms, she taught the primary grades of the local school.

UNIONVALE—D. C. Miller was a weekend guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Stoutenburg. His and Mrs. Stoutenburg's birthday anniversaries were Saturday. His grandson, Ralph, has been ill with influenza for several days.

Civic Club Makes Plans

MONMOUTH—The first meeting of the Civic club this fall was held Thursday, October 14 at the city hall. Mrs. E. M. Ebbert is the new president; Mrs. Van Crider, vice president; Mrs. D. A. Hoag, secretary; and Mrs. G. L. Russell, treasurer.

The club is planning to sponsor a rummage sale in November. This will be held in the Hall building, formerly occupied by Cooper's hardware store.

Silverton Troop Gets Spencer As Scoutmaster

SILVERTON—Silverton troop 52 has a new scoutmaster, Jack Spencer, the manager of the local variety store and the past chairman of the third war loan drive. Mr. Spencer has had considerable former Scout experience in Portland and has operated his own boys' camp.

Ted Hombart announces the addition of John Jordan to the committee of troop 52. Troop 52 is sponsored by the Methodist church.

Has Tonsils Out

UNIONVALE—Mrs. Ari Lauener underwent a tonsillectomy Thursday at the McMinnville hospital. Mrs. Lauener and son Jack, were guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Noble until Sunday.

Farmers Union News

BUENA VISTA—The Farmers Union local met Friday night for the first time since last spring. Because of the gas shortage, members voted to meet just the first Friday night each month and to make each meeting a pot-luck supper event. The next meeting will be November 5. Thirty were present for the business and social session last week.

Mid-Willamette Valley News

Reports From The Statesman's Community Correspondents

Salem, Oregon, Thursday Morning, October 21, 1943

PAGE THREE

Pioneer Assigned War Fund Quota of $50; Mrs. Frank Dornhecker Heads Solicitors

PIONEER—Quota for the community war fund campaign has been set for $50. Mrs. Frank Dornhecker is chairman and her helpers are Mrs. Earl Wood and Mrs. Howard Coy.

The hours for obtaining ration book 4 have been set from 4 p. m. until 6 p. m. October 24-25 and from 4 p. m. to 8 p. m. October 29. Mrs. Jay Calavan Ore, the teacher is in charge of the district for this work.

The Pioneer community club met at the play shed Saturday night for its regular business and social session.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Easter of Dallas visited at the Frank Dornhecker home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kent celebrated their wedding anniversary at their home Friday. Guests calling that night were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pennington and son.

Sylvia Slater of Ocean Lake visited at the John Keller, jr., home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keller had as their guests for dinner Sunday, Mrs. Carol Saling of Portland, Mrs. Carol Saling of Portland, Miss June Schneider of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, jr., and daughters, Dorothy, Shirley and Phyllis, Mrs. Gladys Frakes and Raymond, and Earl Barnhardt.

The Misses Shirley Woodhill and Ruth Dornhecker are visiting relatives and friends in Bellingham, Wash., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitts of Portland are visiting at the John Calavan home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dornhecker called at the Earl Wood home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Carol Saling of Portland visited friends and relatives here from Thursday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kinion and children visited at the John Keller, jr., home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Black and Elmo called at the D. W. Jackson home in Ellendale recently.

John Keller, jr., has accepted work at Cottage Grove and left Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Black visited at the Earl Wood home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Spence and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Spence all of Dallas, were dinner guests at the Andrew Theiss home Sunday.

Mrs. Carol Saling, Miss June Schneider and Mrs. Gladys Frakes were Salem shoppers Monday.

Miss June Schneider was a week end guest at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Odom of Willamina were weekend guests at the Ralph Weaver home.

Coopers Visit Monmouth During Trip

MONMOUTH—Visitors here Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Armine Cooper of Corvallis. Mrs. Cooper formerly operated the Rex confectionery here until she sold the business to Jean Crippen. The Coopers are going on a vacation trip to Aloha, Centralia and Olympia, Wash. Later they will be joined in Corvallis by Mrs. Cooper's sister, Mrs. Ross Alexander of Ocean Lake, who will spend several weeks with them while her husband is serving on the federal grand jury in Portland. The Alexanders have been operating a service station and auto court at Ocean Lake, but are ceasing operating same this winter. Cooper is a painter and decorator at Oregon State college.

Mrs. Lulu Parker has moved back into her Monmouth home on West Main street after an absence of several years spent in Corvallis. Mrs. Parker is a cook at the hospital kitchens at Camp Adair.

Mrs. Lydia Carmichael has been hired as high school teacher at Pedee. Mrs. L. E. Forbes of Monmouth is the other high school teacher there. Grad teachers are Mrs. Alice Murphy and Mrs. Marilyn Price. Mrs. Carmichael taught a grade school last year at Hoskins, and had taught there the last month. Her place is being filled by Mrs. Clara Cross.

Teaching at Orchard View this year are Mrs. Forest Martin of Dallas, upper grades, and Mrs. S. J. Williamson of Monmouth, lower grades.

Nelsons Fete Seaman on Leave

WOODBURN—The Saren Nelson family including all the children and grandchildren, gathered Sunday to honor Harlan Nelson, who has just completed his initial training at Camp Farragut, Idaho, and is at home on a 15-day leave. The dinner, which was to have been held at the home of a daughter, Mrs. A. C. Bonacker, was changed because of the illness of her little daughter, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Saren Nelson.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Don Grady and two sons of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Oberst and three sons of Portland, Mrs. Rose Bonacker and two children, Mrs. Larry Darnell of Hillsboro and daughter, Roberta, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Nelson and baby son, all of Woodburn. Two little granddaughters were absent because of illness.

At the end of his leave, Nelson, a second class seaman, will return to Farragut for assignment for further training. He is hoping to be assigned to aeronautics.

Townsend Group Hears Glee Club

FAIRVIEW—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews entertained the Dayton Townsend club at their home Monday night. There were 44 present. Mr. Smith of Portland was the speaker and 11 members of the Missouri Glee club from Portland furnished an hour program consisting of singing and whistling numbers.

A short business meeting preceded the program. Dinner was served at 8 p.m.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lyman in the Webfoot district.

Emerys Return From Visit, Tour of Vanport, Shipyards

JEFFERSON—Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Emery have returned from a week's visit with relatives in Portland, Canby and Beaverton. They visited Mr. Emery's daughter, Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell, and Mr. Ramsdell in Canby; and also their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Fuqua in Portland. These relatives took them to Vancouver where they visited former Jefferson residents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stewart and family.

The elderly couple received quite a thrill in seeing Vanport and the large trailer camp and seeing the ships which are being built.

They also visited a granddaughter, Mrs. Zilla Taylor, at Beaverton, who operates a restaurant and stage terminal there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson have sold their three and a half acre improved tract in Jefferson to Clifford Cole of Marion. The Coles formerly lived in Jefferson; they plan to move into their new home the first of November. The Wilsons haven't made any plans for the future, but may take a trip to Lakeview to visit Rev. and Mrs. George Wilson and daughter.

Mrs. C. O. Foster of Crabtree spent Tuesday afternoon visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Powers and family. Mr. Foster is employed at the flax plant near here.

Cpl. Harry Wall, who has been in the service for over a year, has received an honorable discharge from the army because of his age, and has returned home from Hawaii where he has been for about a year. He was in construction work, operating a rock crusher. He visited with his mother, Mrs. Evalyn Wall a few days and left Wednesday for Forest Grove where he will be employed in construction work as before.

Rev. Paul Petticoat, district superintendent, was guest speaker Sunday forenoon at the local Evangelical church, and also held the communion service. A covered dish dinner was served at the noon hour followed by the first quarterly conference for the year.

Rev. Petticoat outlined the work for the year. Mrs. Paul Petticoat of Jennings Lodge, and the pastor, Rev. D. Wilson Jaycox, and Mrs. Jaycox of Albany, and Mrs. Jaycox's mother, Mrs. Zilla Yeagle of Marion, Ohio, were present for the service and dinner.

Mrs. C. W. Livingston and children, Jean and Linda of Portland are spending a week visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. H. Goin and Mr. Goin.

Miss Anna Klampe was in Albany Tuesday afternoon where she called at the Albany General hospital to visit Mrs. Rose Buchanan, who has been ill for a long time and now confined in the hospital for several weeks. Mrs. Buchanan formerly lived in Jefferson.

Trasks Spend Sunday at Rings

LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trask of Albany visited Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ring.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wiltrout and daughter Dixie Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith and son Wayne of Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith and daughter, Joyce of aPaco, Wash., were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson. They also visited relatives in Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bassett and son Cecil, who have spent the last two years in Portland, have returned to their home here. Bassett will be employed at the Hammond Logging company shops near Lacombe. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cribbs, who have been living in the Bassett house, have moved to the Engdahl house.

Silverton Officials Eret Bulletin Board

SILVERTON—"That all the world may read" might be the name of the city of Silverton's new acquisition. The city administration has constructed a bulletin board and placed it on South Water street above the city hall on the former Fischer warehouse property, now the property of the city. The board is to be used for posting ordinances and other city information. Already the new zoning ordinance is being weathered on the new board.

For Good Food
TRY THE NEW
ARGO CAFETERIA
Self-Service 11:15 A. M. to 1:30 P. M. Quick service, tasty food, reasonable prices. Also Table Service 5 to 7:45 P. M.
We Will Be Glad to See You - Large Dining Room

Bishop Baxter Rededicates Lyons Church

LYONS—The 50th anniversary and rededication of the Lyons Methodist church was held Sunday, October 17, at the church. Following the Sunday school hour, Bishop Bruce Baxter gave the address and dedicational service which was followed by a covered dish dinner served at the noon hour.

The meeting opened at 2 o'clock with a song service led by George Clippell and Miss Elaine Clippell, pianist. A young men's quartet was presented from the Mennonite church of West Salem and sang several numbers. Mrs. Daisy Johnston, oldest member of the Lyons church, gave in brief the history of the church, telling of the hardships, small donations, and ways and means of erecting a church 50 years ago.

Rev. Bagley was minister at that time. W. R. Surry of Lebanon, Frank Potter of Mill City, Herbert McClain of Detroit, Mrs. Helen Vaughn of Silverton, Mrs. May Swank of Portland and Mrs. Ethel Downie of Wheeler were the pioneer members present.

Paul Johnston, present superintendent of the Sunday school, was master of ceremonies during the reminiscence period and read many letters from former pastors and members who were unable to attend. Rev. and Mrs. Rook sang a duet and Mrs. Alice Mercer and daughter, Carroll of Albany, sang too. Dr. Robert M. Gatke, professor at the Willamette university, who was the pastor of the Lyons church 23 years ago, was the speaker of the afternoon.

Liberty Sets Book 4 Signup

LIBERTY—Registration for ration book four will be held here for Liberty residents on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 26, 27 and 28, in the community hall. Registration time has been set for 3 to 6 o'clock and from 7 to 9 p. m. each of the three days.

It is necessary for only one person from each household to apply for the new ration book but three for each of the members of the family for whom book four is desired.

The one applicant may apply for every person related by blood, adoption or marriage, who customarily lives in one household. Other persons living in the house who are not related to the applicant must make separate application.

If a member of the household is away temporarily, his or her book may be applied for. If, however, such member will be away from home for more than 60 days, he or she must get the new book at the place of present occupation and may not apply through the home community.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Prather visited at the John Banta home near Lebanon Sunday.

Ramsey Schadwitz of Willamette university visited over the weekend at the Clifford Wells home.

Pastor, Family Entertains Sunday Guests

ROSEDALE—Guests Sunday of Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wehl and three daughters of LaCenter, Wash., and Rev. and Mrs. T. Clio Brown of Newberg.

Rev. Brown left Monday morning for Sprague river to hold a two-weeks' revival for the pastor of that Friends church, Rev. Evert Tuning. This work is among the Indians on the Klamath Falls Indian reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates and Barbara visited Sunday in Vancouver with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crozier. Mr. Crozier has been bedfast for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cole visited Sunday in Tillamook with Mr. Cole's daughter, Mrs. Cliff Smith. Rev. Charles Haworth, Salem, will preach Sunday at the local Friends church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Brown.

Protecting the Home Front

Home Keeper Plan
Insurance Protection Tailored to the Growing Family
(Example with $10,000 policy)
1. Pays $2,000 and up to clean up family debts.
2. Pays $100 a month while children are dependent.
3. Pays $10,000 after children are grown.
4. "Fills Out" Social Security benefits.

OREGON MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
C. S. McELHINNY
Breyman Building

Stayton Legion Post Active

Election, Armistice Plans, Membership Drive Listed

STAYTON—Stayton post 58, American Legion, has started a banner year with election of officers, increased membership, assistance in the third war loan drive and in raising funds for cigarettes for men overseas, and in plans for an Armistice program.

Officers commanding the post for 1944 include: Fred Dickman, commander; John Christensen, first vice commander; Oscar Haggen, second vice commander; Harry Rishel, chaplain; Charles Johnston, adjutant; sergeant-at-arms, Anton Swoboda; finance officer, Virgil Tuel; historian, Dave John; service officer, George Duncan. Executive committee members are E. A. Ditter, Robert Spohn, J. C. Kimmel, Julian DeJardin and George Huffman.

The traditional past commanders' breakfast will be given Armistice morning. George Duncan is in charge. Other plans include a pot-luck supper at night and a short program including the history of the post.

Participation in the war loan drive just completed assisted in Stayton's going over its quota by more than at hand. The cigarette drive is being launched in a local theatre and already has been given a boost by a check for $22 forwarded from the dance proceeds of the Mill City fire department.

Because of the unusually high record in membership, 80, the Stayton quota has been raised 20 more but the post expects more than 115 members to join before the drive ends.

Arlene Bouchie Given Party

TURNER—Honoring her daughter, Arlene, on her 12th birthday anniversary with a surprise party, Mrs. Forest Bouchie entertained members of the Methodist youth fellowship group as guests on Sunday afternoon at the Bouchie home. Games were played and music presented. The guest of honor was presented with many gifts and a large decorated birthday cake. Refreshments were served to Arlene Bouchie, Geraldine Edwards, Betty Peetz, Alice Lee Locken, Margaret Prather, Betty and Marjorie Lou Bouchie, Rev. Paul Jaquith, Bernard Lowery of Corvallis, Gaylord Lowery, Jerry McGuire, Melford Lowery and Wallace Riches.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellison Whiteaker attended a dinner party Thursday at Woodburn in honor of their daughter, Mrs. R. L. Andersen, on her birthday anniversary. Accompanying the Whiteaker's to Woodburn were Joan and Harry Jull and Jimmie Blake.

Mrs. Emma Francis of Portland spent the weekend here at the country home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ulin E. Denyer. Additional guests on Sunday at the Denyer home were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hamner and son, Allen, of Newberg. Mrs. Hamner was formerly Emma Denyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Nydigger are the parents of a girl born Saturday night at the Salem Deaconess hospital. She has been named Barbara Ann.

Mrs. Harry Elmer and infant son, Gail Francis, were brought home Monday from the Salem Deaconess hospital.

Valley Births

LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. Vern Nydigger are the parents of a girl born Saturday night at the Salem Deaconess hospital. She has been named Barbara Ann.

Mrs. Harry Elmer and infant son, Gail Francis, were brought home Monday from the Salem Deaconess hospital.

Sublimity KC Initiates 25

Members Plan Attendance At Portland Event

STAYTON—Twenty-five new members received degrees of the order of the Sublimity Knights of Columbus at the Stayton Catholic Forester hall last Sunday.

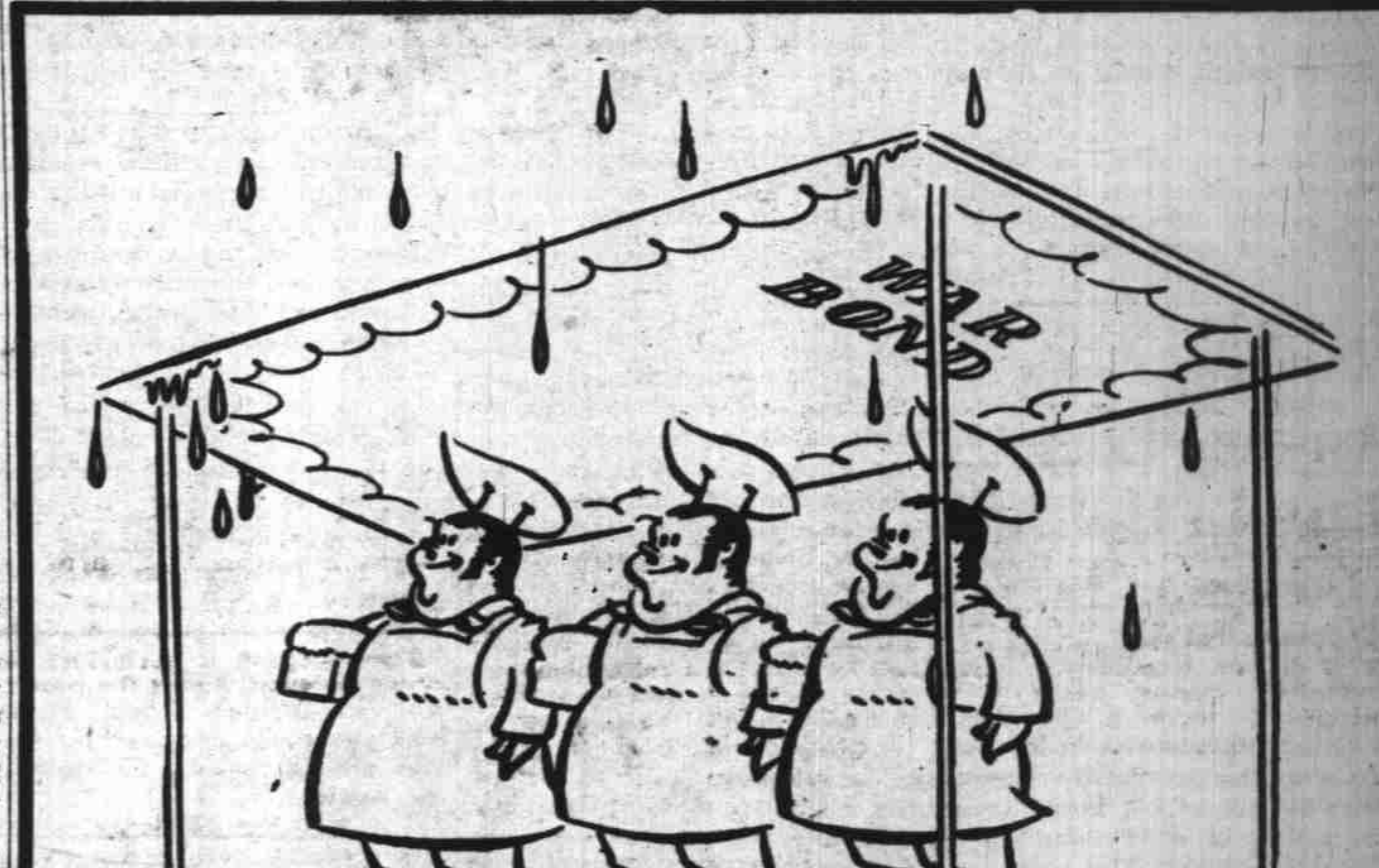

The day's program started with a corporate communion at the church at 8 o'clock mass, the degrees commencing at 1 o'clock. The first two degrees were conferred by the local council officers, directed by the grand knight, Ed Jacoby, and the major degree by the past state deputy, Edward J. Bell, assisted by Roy Pickett of Klamath Falls.

Many visiting officers of Oregon were present including the state deputy, Otto L. Smith of Klamath Falls.

The regular meeting of the council was held at Sublimity Tuesday night, a "smoker" at which meeting plans were laid for attending the Portland initiation Sunday and that to be held at Klamath Falls on October 31.

The Portland council, 878, will initiate more than 35 new members at the Cathedral hall, 17th and Davis streets, this Sunday. Last year the Portland knights received national recognition in attaining the "century club" for increase in membership and view the same prospect this year.

Conferring of degrees will start at 12:30 and continued through the afternoon. District Deputy Lawrence "Bud" O'Neill and Grand Knight John R. Murphy of the Portland council will direct the ceremony. Visiting members of the order will participate in the exemplification.

Breads FOR THAT 'RAINY DAY'
MASTER^{Extra} Enriched BREAD
FOR EVERY DAY

The Merry Master Bakers urge you to keep healthy... invest your earnings in War Bonds today! Create a Healthy and Wealthy old age.

Good bread is one of the 7 basic foods recommended by the government for healthful living—eat more of it!

MASTER^{Extra} Enriched BREAD
To standard enrichment we've added Calcium and Vitamin D. Master Bread is your best source of food energy.
Popular -- because it's Good!