Auxiliary to Give Benefit Bridge

Calendared for Tuesday, November 16 is the benefit bridge party for which members of the Marion county Medical auxiliary will be hosts. Proceeds from the affair will be used to purchase kits for sub-chasers.

Bridge will be in play in the evening at 8 o'clock at the homes of Mrs. William Lidbeck on East Center street and Mrs. Burton A. Myers on North 24th street. Refreshments will be served later in the evening.

The committee arranging the affair includes Mrs. Willard Thompson, Mrs. John Ramage, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson and Mrs. Tom H. Dunham. Those wishing to make reservations for the benefit may call any of the above named committee.

Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield is president of the auxiliary this year and her officers are Mrs. Carl Emmons, vice president; Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, secretary; and Mrs. J. O. Matthis, treasurer.

Wedding Takes Place in East

MT. ANGEL — Details of the wedding of Miss Leona Boedigheimer, who left here September 30 to become the bride of Sgt. Darrell Sample at Perham, Minn., were received Monday. The marriage was solemnized in St. Lawrence church on Saturday, October 16, with Rev. Father Killian performing the double ring ceremony and reading the nuptial mass. "Ave Maria Stella" was sung at the offertory and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother" at the conclusion of the mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Boedigheimer of Perham, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sample of Morris, Minn.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocaded satin, simply fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt terminating in a long train. Her fingertip tulle veil fell from a Mary Stuart headdress outlined with seed pearls. Her only ornaments consisted of a gold locket and chain and bracelet, gifts of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and gardenias with streamers and rosettes.

Attending the bride as bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Marie Boedigheimer. She wore a gown of pink satin with matching Mary Stuart headdress and shoulder veil. She carried a bouquet of red carnations.

Miss Irene Weis of Salem, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of aqua taffeta and chiffon and matching Mary Stuart headdress and shoulder veil. Her flowers were pink carnations.

James Boedigheimer, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress with pink and white corsage. The bride's mother was unable to attend the wedding due to a sudden illness.

The wedding dinner was given by the bride's parents at their home. Decorations were in pink and blue and a four-tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and military groom, centered the table.

A reception was held from two to five o'clock at the bride's home. Later the couple left on a short wedding trip.

The bride graduated from Perham high school and for the past two years has been employed as a linotype operator at the Benedictine Press at Mt. Angel. The groom is a graduate of Morris high school. Prior to entering service in the United States army, he was employed at the Rexall drug store in Wadena. Sgt. Sample only recently returned from foreign service in India and for the past two months has been a patient in Halloran General hospital, Staten Island, N.Y.

Sgt. Sample returned to New York October 23 and Mrs. Sample will remain at her parents' home until her mother has recuperated from her illness.

What they can do
What they're doing about it

Emily M. Sweetland (above), aviation machinist mate third class, daughter of Mrs. M. K. Sweetland, 385 River street, arrived Friday to visit her mother and sister, Margaret. This is her first leave since enlisting in the WAVES in December, 1942. Miss Sweetland is stationed in Minneapolis.

Yeoman Third Class Evelyn White, a WAVE, will arrive today by train to spend her leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White, of Cascade Drive. She is stationed at the naval air station near Norman, Oklahoma.

President Will Visit Rebekahs

Salem Rebekah lodge met on Monday night with Mrs. Merlin W. Ready, noble grand, presiding. Plans were made for the state president's visit here November 28, at which time the lodge is planning a banquet at the Argo hotel in her honor.

Three Link club will sew all day on Wednesday for the Red Cross. Past noble grands will meet on Wednesday night at the home of Grace Taylor, 1215 North Liberty street.

Wednesday is Navy day and the Navy Mothers have planned a program at the USO. All are invited to attend.

The lodge voted to have their annual homecoming dinner on November 22. The noble grand will announce her committees and definite plans later. Next Monday night the lodge is planning a card party. There will be prizes and refreshments. Mrs. Emil Ojien is in charge of arrangements.

After the close of the business session the FL club was hostess for a Halloween party. The carnival idea was carried out with a fat lady, skinny lady, bearded lady, snake charmer, fortune telling, fish pond, beano game and darts. Mrs. Vern Suko won a prize for one of the best costumes. Mrs. Roy Hill as the fat lady and Mrs. Lola McFarland as the witch also won prizes for costumes.

Luncheons Are Event of Week

Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel and Mrs. Merrill Ohling will be hostesses for two informal bridge luncheons this week in compliment to a group of matrons. The parties will be held at the Bonesteel home on Saginaw street on Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Covers will be placed for sixteen guests each day and bouquets of chrysanthemums, zinnias and cosmos will provide the decorative note on the small tables.

Returning today from Santa Ana, Calif. will be Mrs. M. B. Findley of Rickreall and Miss Pollyanna Shinkle. They went south several weeks ago to visit Mrs. Findley's son, Robert, who is an aviation cadet. Miss Shinkle's engagement to Mr. Robert Findley, was announced late this summer.

Salem Girl Weds in East

Coming west on their honeymoon are Ensign and Mrs. Robert Hugh Hamilton. The bride, the former Marjorie Zoe Waters, and her navy husband were married Wednesday, October 20 at the Little Church Around the Corner in New York City. The newlyweds will arrive in Portland today where they will be met by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Hamilton of Gardiner. They plan to be in Salem Thursday and will be at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Waters.

The new Mrs. Hamilton left earlier in the month for the eastern seaboard and was present for her husband's graduation from midshipman's school at Columbia university.

The afternoon ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by Dr. Herbert Ray.

Marjorie wore a striking turquoise blue crepe gown for her marriage. The dress was fashioned with a draped front and corde fringe embellished the gown the side. Her accessories were black and her calot felt hat was enhanced with a veil. Her flowers were orchids.

Miss Jean Van Skyke and her fiancé, Mr. Gil Leiser, attended the couple. They are former Willamette students and Mr. Leiser has also been attending Columbia university. Miss Van Skyke wore a mulberry crepe frock with navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Ensign and Mrs. Hamilton plan to live in Washington, D.C. where he will be stationed at Solomons, Maryland. The couple will be on the west coast for a week.

The bride is a graduate of Willamette university where she was vice-president of the student body and a member of Beta Chi society. She later attended the University of Oregon on a scholarship.

Ensign Hamilton is also a Willamette graduate and a member of Blue fraternity. Since July he has been attending Columbia university. Out of his class of 1130 men he was selected as honorary regimental sub-commander, based on general aptitude for service and good conduct.

Committee Holds Regular Meeting

The Marion county home extension committee held its bi-monthly meeting with Miss Frances Clinton, home demonstration agent, at the home of Mrs. Harry Martin, vice chairman, Saturday, at Macleay.

Covers for luncheon were placed for Miss Clinton, Mrs. C. A. Lynds, Mrs. Vern Scott, Mrs. James Keys, Mrs. H. R. Woodburn, Mrs. Grace Cramer, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Alta Wells. Mrs. Floyd Fox who has been out of the state was unable to attend.

The business meeting opened with two vocal selections by Mrs. Wells who sang "The Rosary" and "Comin' in on a Wing and a Prayer." A report on the labor prizes and refreshments. Mrs. Emil Ojien is in charge of arrangements.

Plans were discussed for the project leader training meeting to be held at the YWCA in Salem at an all day meeting January 3rd. This will be the first of its kind in the county and conducted by a specialist from Oregon State college.

The next meeting of the committee will be at the home of Mrs. Grace Cramer in Hubbard the first Saturday in December.

Next week begins the November program on "Women and the Law." The Marion county Bar Association is making arrangements by which a lawyer will accompany Frances Clinton to each meeting in 15 communities, taking the program in full. Questions will be authentically answered on legal matters of interest to women such as how to make a will, income taxes, property rights etc. The names of lawyers who will assist in the work are to be announced later.

COMING HERE—Larry Adler and Paul Draper, harmonica-dance team, who will appear in Salem on Friday night on the Salem Community Concert association's series. The program is open to members of the association. Adler, sensational mouth organist, will include classical and "hot" numbers on his program. Draper, known for his individual style of dance has used both classic and popular music as a background for his tap-dancing.
