

Reception Attended By Many

Over 100 adults and youths attended the reception held at the YMCA Wednesday night honoring Mrs. Elaine Clower Fisher, Girl Reserve secretary and other Girl Reserve leaders. Leaders honored as well as Mrs. Fisher were Miss Ethel Pierson of the school for the deaf; Mrs. Ellen Fisher, Mrs. Lloyd Hockett, Miss Irene Hollenbeck, Miss Carolyn Wilson, Mrs. Albert Cohen, Mrs. Marjorie Carson of the Salem high school; and Misses Delvon Long, Margaret Forsythe, Laura Jean Bates, Marian Carter, Phyllis Nelson, Frances Metter, and Patricia Otis, Willamette university students and former Girl Reserves.

In addition to Girl Reserve members and their parents, various adults working with youth and board and committee membership of the YMCA, members of the service men's wives' group, the Tagalong club, attended the reception in a body. The Tagalong club present were Mrs. Lillian Wechsler, Mrs. Velma Franks, Mrs. Ione Ahsemacher, Mrs. Sunny Weise, Mrs. Kay Wallin and Mrs. Marjorie Pitts.

Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Claude Glenn and Mrs. L. W. Clower presided at the tea table, which carried out the fall motif with a centerpiece of fruits and rosewood tapers arranged by Mrs. George Allen.

Those in charge of the service were Mrs. Frank Spears and Mrs. Arthur Selander. Girl Reserves assisting were: Dolly Davidson, Parrish 7; Vivian Barham, Parrish 8; Marilyn Morse, Parrish 9; Gayle Juve, Leslie 8; Jacqueline Notick, Leslie 8; Helen Shelton, Leslie 8; Ruth Fuller, Leslie 8 and Marilyn Hill, Leslie 9.

Those who assisted as hostesses and in the receiving line were Mrs. Guy Hickok, Mrs. N. J. Lindgren, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. Earl Barham, Mrs. Helen Goodenough and Mrs. Esther Little.

The November meeting of the Ministers Wives association has been postponed until the Christmas meeting. The group was to have met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. David Nielsen. The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. C. Harrison.

Zonta Birthday Is Celebrated

The Salem unit of Zonta, international service organization, observed Zonta's twenty fourth anniversary Thursday evening, November 11, at the home of Miss Helen Yockey on South High street. Mrs. H. W. Winkler was hostess for the event and was assisted by Miss Yockey.

Miss Lillian McDonald, who arranged the program, introduced as guest speaker Mr. Irl McSherry, state director of the war chest. The anniversary proclamation of the international president was read by Miss Nellie Schwab, and Dr. Helen Pearce, past international president, conducted the impressive initiation ceremony and told of the aims and achievements of the organization. Of special interest was the report of the rapid growth of the Amelia Arehart aeronautical scholarship, introduced in memory of a world renowned Zontian.

New members welcomed were Miss Neva LeBlonde, Mrs. Lucia Dare Tyler, Mrs. Effie Arehart and Miss Edna Luckner. Additional guests at the social hour were Miss Jess McDonald of Salem and Mrs. Franklin Thordarson of Portland.

CDA Holds Busy Session

Meeting in the Woman's club house this week for their regular November business meeting, the Catholic Daughters of America made plans for fall initiation December 1. Court Queen of Peace, Stayton, will join with Court Capital City for the ceremonies and will bring 15 candidates.

Mrs. Teresa LaRoche was elected sentinel to replace Mrs. Bernice La Dou who has moved to California.

On December 12 Court Capital City will receive holy communion in a body at the 7:30 mass at St. Vincent de Paul church. Afterwards a breakfast will be served in the cafeteria with Mrs. Herman Wilde as chairman.

Mrs. Helen White, grand regent, introduced Mrs. Rose Bell of Stayton, state regent, who gave a very interesting report of her trip to the national Catholic Daughters of American convention held in Cleveland, Ohio, in August.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Josephine Kenyon, chairman of the program committee, presented Mrs. Caroline Free, who read a paper on the history of "Catholic Religious Orders in the Northwest."
