Where They Are—What They Are Doing

FERRIN FIELD, Texas — Aviation Cadet Benjamin F. Evans, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, 2025 Market street, Salem, has begun his basic training at this army air forces school. For nine weeks he will divide his training day equally between ground school and the cockpit of his 450-horsepower plane.

A graduate of Salem high school and former student of Willamette university, Cadet Evans received his primary flight training at Hicks Field, Fort Worth, Tex. His wife, Mrs. Phyllis Elaine Evans, lives at 1045 North summer street in Salem.

Harvey Griffen writes to his mother, Mrs. Nannie Griffen, that he is now in Camp Haan, Calif. His brother, Raymond, still is in Hawaii.

Ensign C. E. Rash, navy pilot who has been stationed somewhere in South America for the past year, is spending a few days in Salem with his wife and son, who joined him in Jacksonville, Fla. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill of Independence, he is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. G. Diehm, Salem. Since returning to this country he has talked by telephone with his brother, Ralph, who, stationed near San Francisco, is studying radar.

Aviation Cadet E. Merritt Diehm is now an upperclassman and is taking basic flight training near Ontario, Calif., where he completed his primary flight course.

Aviation Cadet William Elby Sizemore has returned to Texas for pilot training following a brief furlough in Salem with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sizemore. The young cadet, graduate of Salem high school with the class of 1941, took his basic college training at Gainesville, Fla., and at San Antonio, Texas, was classified as a pilot.

Ensign Tom Hill, jr., accompanied by his parents, left Friday night for Burbank, Calif., to take a few weeks' more training in the naval air force before receiving assignment to active duty. He was commissioned shortly after graduation from his aeronautical engineering course at Oregon State college last June and was sent to University of Minnesota for work in naval aeronautics, a course he completed with third highest average in the class. Ensign Hill is a graduate of Salem high school and had two years of work at Willamette university prior to entering OSC.

Cadet Leonard Reimann, son of Rich L. Reimann, 1275 Fairmount street, has completed basic flying training at Marana army airbase, Tucson, Ariz., and is to receive further training at an advanced flying school. Former Sa-

DAYTON — Robert M. U'Ren (above), 24, is now at the University of California for naval officer's training after having recently spent a few days' leave at his home in Dayton. He received this assignment after having been in service since May, 1942, aboard an airplane carrier with aviation metal-smith second class rating. He has been awarded the Purple Heart and a certificate of citation, as a member of a crew cited by the president of the United States "for consistently outstanding performance and distinguished achievement during repeated action against enemy Japanese forces in the Pacific war area from December, 1941, to November 15, 1942."

Salem high school pupil, Cadet Reimann was employed by the Reimann Truck company before entering the service.

Stationed in England since last spring, Wesley M. Corning has recently been promoted to grade of sergeant. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corning, 290 Mahrt avenue, Salem, is an assistant crew chief in the ground force of the army air corps, and writes that he likes England, finding it in some ways similar to the Willamette valley. Upon one occasion he saw Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the king, and has had the opportunity to visit a number of historic places.

Theodore C. Lord, private first class, US marine corps, has recently been graduated from the naval air technical training center, Norman, Okla., it was announced by the 13th naval district. Lord is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Lord of 245 South Winter, Salem.

MEHAMA—Willard and Merle Johnson have enlisted in the Seabees, the construction battalion of the United States navy. Their wives are living together in the Merle Johnson home for the duration.

Robert W. Carpenter, machinist's mate second class, is spending a ten-day furlough at his home, 1635 Roosevelt. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carpenter, 1057 Highland avenue, and has just completed basic training in the Seabees at Camp Peary, Va. He will return next week to Camp Clark, Oakland, Calif.

Word has been received from Mrs. Otto Skopli, jr., that her husband, Lt. (jg) Skopli has arrived safely in the Solomon. First Class Petty Officer Bill Schneider, Lt. Skopli's brother-in-law, is with him.

While in the middle west to attend a conference of the American Legion national executive committee at Indianapolis, O. E. "Mose" Palmateer will hold reunion at Lawrence, Kan., with his two sons, Robert Palmateer, machinist mate third class who is with the flag utility unit of the Atlantic fleet air force based at Norfolk, Va., and Wallace Palmateer, a navy V-12 student at University of Kansas. Warren "Bud" Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Wolf, will go to Lawrence to visit with Wallace at the same time. Palmateer and Jerrold Owen will attend the legion committee meeting which opens November 17.

Three young men from Salem are among 38 Oregonians assigned by the army to specialized training in Indiana university at Bloomington, where approximately 2500 men are being prepared through intensive instruction for officer and technical service. The Salem men are Donald C. Burton, son of Dr. Delbert C. Burton, 110 Fairview avenue; David M. Frees, son of Norman W. Frees, 1355 State street, and Richard L. Senter, son of L. B. L. Senter, route three, Charles W. Corrigan of Valsetz is another member of the Oregon group.

SILVERTON—Lt. (jg) Edward Johnson was in Portland several days recently, but was unable to come to Silvertown to visit old friends as he had planned. It was reported by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Johnson and Kathleen Johnson of Oregon City and Mrs. James Johnson of Portland, who were recent guests of Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman.

MT. ANGEL — Pfc. Jack Fenimore, one of the seven sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fenimore in the US service, is home on his first furlough in two years. Fenimore is stationed at Anchorage, Alaska, and has been granted a 20-day furlough.

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. —(AP)—A red-faced Augusta hunter today returned home without that doe he should have had.

After tramping through the woods for hours, the hunter finally was afforded an open, broad-side shot at a good sized deer and pulled the trigger—but there was only a click.

He had hunted all forenoon with an empty rifle.

Editor Charges FDR Discriminating

PORTLAND, Nov. 13 —(AP)—McAllister Coleman, former editor of coal miner's newspapers, charged today that President Roosevelt had attempted to prevent John L. Lewis from returning to the AFL.

"This is the first time in history that the President of the United States has attempted to keep labor leaders from joining the organization of his own choice," he told an interviewer.
