

Seal Sale Plan Discussed at Silverton

Mrs. Glenn Briedwell, Guest Speaker for Auxiliary Group

SILVERTON — Mrs. Glenn Briedwell, member of the Christmas seal sale committee, was guest speaker at a regular meeting of Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary, Monday night at the club rooms of the armory with Mrs. F. M. Powell, president in charge.

Mrs. Clifton Dickerson, American chairman, gave her report with Mrs. George Towe presenting it, concerning the patriotic programs at the high school and in conjunction with the Veterans of Foreign Wars on Armistice day.

Membership at 89, was over the top by 14 members. The unit will work on 24 ditty bags at the Wednesday night sewing club meeting at the Carl Haugen home. A quilt will be tied Friday night when the past president's club meets at the South Third street home of Mrs. A. J. Titus. Homecoming with the post will be observed at the December 6 meeting. Around $50 was realized by the juniors and senior members in a rummage sale during the past week with the junior girls buying a $25 bond. Christmas cheer for child welfare centers, hospitals and the adopted veterans has been generously met.

The annual Christmas party for families of the unit will be at the December meeting with officers of the auxiliary, hostesses for the evening.

Foresters Lodge Plans for Meeting

Woodburn Church Has Thank Offering Service

WOODBURN — The annual thank-offering service sponsored by the Women's Missionary society was held at the Woodburn Presbyterian church last Sunday. Mrs. Olive Smith, president, was leader. Special music included a solo, "How Long Must We Wait" by Mrs. John Templeton, a duet, "The Answered Call" by Mrs. Templeton and Mrs. J. W. Richards and an offertory response by the juniors who assisted in the service.

The address was given by Mrs. R. W. Achor of Oregon City, who also read the latest letter of her sister, Miss Irene Forsythe, missionary to China, who is a member of the Woodburn church. Miss Forsythe was one of the passengers to return from the orient last year on the Gripsholm and after spending some months in Florida recovering from her trying experiences, she now has her headquarters in Chicago, from which point she goes on speaking appointments at the direction of the Presbyterian board of missions. If she is able to stand the test of cold weather this winter, she hopes to return to southern China next year.

Mrs. Achor also spoke to the congregation at the Bethel church. Rev. and Mrs. Achor spent the first eight years of their ministry in charge of the Woodburn and Bethel churches, and Miss Forsythe prepared for her work in China while Woodburn was still her home. The missionary gifts from the two churches contribute to her salary.
