

Women Take Part In Drive

The "Buy A Bomber" drive, sponsored by the Federation of Women's Clubs, was the outstanding project, among several, outlined by Mrs. Ruth Lear, president of the Salem Women's club, at the November meeting held on Saturday at the clubhouse. The Women's clubs of this state and every state are participating, and each club is contributing a certain quota. Another vital project, undertaken by the club, is the contributing of funds to help finance four student nurses.

Mrs. David Cameron, music chairman, introduced and presented Mr. Corydon Blodgett, guest artist, who sang two beautiful solos, "Calm As the Night" and "Jean" and for an encore number, responding with "I Want What I Want, When I Want."

Mrs. Herbert Rahe acted as chairman for a panel discussion of four members, each of whom contributed to the discussion on, "The Repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act." Mrs. Rahe introduced each member of the panel, and her respective topic, after giving a resume of "The Act." Mrs. George Alling led the talks, her subject was, "The Ideology of China"; Mrs. J. M. Devers presented her topic, "Labor's Attitude Towards the Repeal"; Mrs. Irving Fox discussed "Propaganda and Its Effect on Repeal"; Charles Johnson talked on "The Postwar Effect on the Repeal."

During the tea hour, Mrs. J. A. Brownson, chairman of the committee, introduced her assistant hostesses, Mrs. R. B. Boardman, Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Daniel Fry, Sr., Mrs. C. C. Geer, and Mrs. M. P. Dennis.

Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Daniel Fry, Sr., presided at the tea table which was covered with a lace cloth, and centered with a bowl of red and white chrysanthemums, flanked on either side by tall white tapers in crystal candleabra. The clubrooms were lovely with autumn flowers.
