

Home Nursing Course Starts

MT. ANGEL—Arranged under the auspices of the Red Cross, a home nursing course has been arranged for Mt. Angel women and girls, the classes to be conducted by three local nurses, Mrs. Melvin Keegan, Miss Juliana Dehler and Mrs. James Shaffer.

Registration of the classes can be made at either the White Corner or at Bauman's store.

The course will give practical advice and methods of procedure for the home care of patients. The increasing shortage of doctors and nurses is viewed with alarm and the Red Cross is taking this method of preparedness to lessen the danger of the situation. All who can find time are asked to enroll for the course.

Missionary Society Presents Program

GERVAIS — The Clara Jones Missionary society held its Thanksgiving meeting Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banick. Mrs. J. C. Adams gave a talk on stewardship; Mrs. D. L. St. John presented the topic with short articles by others. Interesting facts were given about the country of Thailand and the mission schools of the United States.

Mrs. Robert Harper read a letter from Miss Irene Forsythe, a returned missionary to China. Mrs. E. J. Brown assisted Mrs. Banick in serving refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.
