

Great Rambler Eleven Trips 'Hawks, 14-13

holding the Irish errors to 187 yards by rushing — the lowest count of the season for them — did not permit Notre Dame to advance beyond the midfield stripe in the first quarter. Today's remarkable punts, two going out of bounds on the four and two-yard lines, never gave the Irish a foothold from which to start.

As time was running out in the opening period, Jimmy Smith, formerly of Illinois, and Todd collaborated for a Seahawk rush which carried from the 38 to 8, from where Art Guepe, one of Marquette's all-time greats in 1936 crashed over.

Barney McGarry of Utah, and a four-year veteran with the Cleveland Rams, kicked the point and the Preflighters went into a 7-0 lead which they protected until the half.

Notre Dame's T began showing power at the outset of the third period with Jim Mello, Creighton Miller and Johnny Lujack's passing burning up yardage. Sub Bob Kelly finally topped a 64-yard parade by lashing over from the three.

The Seahawks pushed over their second touchdown at the start of the last period. After a 73-yard march had been stopped on the six and the Irish had taken over the ball, Lujack fumbled with George Tobin recovering on the 13. Todd promptly whipped a pass to Duck Burk, reserve end from Minneapolis, for a touchdown. McGarry's try for extra point failed, the ball bouncing off one of the uprights.

After the ensuing Seahawk kickoff Notre Dame sprung Miller and Mello from its deceptive T on a 55-yard drive. Miller crashed over from the six and Early's placekick clinched the victory.

Before the final gun, the Seahawks romped 49 yards to the Irish 11 with Guepe's 12 yard pass to Perry Schwartz, twice an all-league end for Brooklyn, doing most of the damage. McGarry was called upon to try a desperation field goal from the 16-yard line, but it fizzled. Later, the Seahawks regained the ball on the Irish 33 when Schwartz captured Miller's fumble. But last-minute passes were grounded.

Miller, Notre Dame's leading ground gainer, was a marked man today, but he picked up 88 yards in 20 carries. Lujack attempted 15 passes and completed seven for a gain of 97 yards.

Notre Dame was outgained on the ground for the first time this season, allowing the Seahawks 197 yards by rushing. The Irish also were limited to 12 first downs while their opponents made 14, all of them by rushing.

Parrish Cops Football Title

Putting together two scoring thrusts late in the second half, the Parrish 9th grade All-Stars rang up a 13-0 victory over Leslie's Missionaries to annex the city junior high school touch football title Friday.

The teams battled on even terms throughout the first half and Leslie came back to make two serious threats in the second. But both failed to match the Pioneer thrusts.

Halfback Boggs and Quarterback Dick Hendrie notched the six-pointers for Parrish while Hill, the Pioneer center, accounted for the one conversion.

Stacey Holds Lead Turkey Meet In Final Day

After next-to-last-day firing yesterday in the first annual Salem Golf club Turkey Tournament Bill Stacey's net 129 remained all by itself at the top of the entry list of 25. Eleven more participants are expected to post final scores today to wind up the men's club frolicking, but it is unlikely any will keep Stacey from hitting the bicarbonate after feasting on the 20-pound first prize come Thursday.

Mild complications arose yesterday when Steve Krause, who had the best chance of overhauling Stacey, finished up with a net 135 and tied Millard Pekar for second place. Just how the two will divide the 15-pound hen second prize remained in doubt last night. And since it is Pekar who is donating the birds it made it all the more difficult.

Others who have finished the 36 holes and posted results are: Glen Lengren 140; Bot Waterman 140; Tony Painter 142; Jack Nash 142; Leo Estey 143; Dave Eyre 144; Don Hendrie 145; Ross Coppock 146; John Heltzel 148; O. E. McCrary 151; and Hi Haman 158.

Lengren Nabs 'Stakes Meet

Glen Lengren yesterday won a 9-hole sweepstakes meet held by 16 Salem club golfers by shooting a sub-par 34 and deducting 3 1/2 handicap strokes for a net 30 1/2. George Seales was second with a net 34.

Net scores for other participants were: Jack Nash 35; Bud Waterman 35 1/2; Jim Russell 36; Millard Pekar 36; Steve Krause 36 1/2; John Emien 37; O. E. McCrary 37 1/2; Don Hendrie 37; Vic Convey 38; Ted Chambers 38 1/2; Bill Goodwin 39; B. Thompson 39 1/2; Hi Haman 40; and Lea Estey 40.

Silverton Sets Duration Sched

SILVERTON — Coach Guy "Pop" DeLay yesterday announced the Silverton basketball schedule to include the first Duration league game at Silverton with Mount Angel on January 7; Silverton at Chemawa, January 14; Canby at Silverton, January 14; Silverton at Woodburn, January 21; Silverton at Molalla, January 28; Silverton at Mount Angel, January 28; Chemawa at Silverton February 1; Silverton at Canby, February 4; Woodburn at Silverton, February 11; Molalla at Silverton, February 18. On December 21 at 8 o'clock, Silverton will join the other Duration league teams in a jamboree at Mount Angel. Other games are planned for December, but no dates have been arranged. Silverton will have no lettermen back this year, as Art Zahler, the only veteran returning to school this fall, has one foot in a cast as a result of a football accident.

DALLAS — C. P. Dennis has returned to San Francisco after visiting his brother, L. M. Dennis and family. It was his first visit to his old home in 20 years.

Big-10 Title Ends in Tie

Oklahoma Sooners in the Big Six title scramble by scoring a surprise 7-6 triumph over Missouri. Missouri's defeat, the Tigers' second in the conference, assured the Sooners of the crown.

Northwestern's Wildcats, turned back by Notre Dame and Michigan, completed their most successful campaign in several years by downing Illinois 53-6.

For the number of long runs, however, Army topped the field while whipping Brown 59-0. Jack Minor went 88 yards, Carl Anderson 83, and Bob Dobbs 61. The game was little more than a warm-up for the Cadets who meet the Navy at West Point next Saturday.

After a scoreless first quarter Duke started rolling and went on to whip North Carolina, 27-6, in the outstanding Southern conference game. Georgia Tech whipped Clemson, 41-6, while Tulane turned in an upset triumph over Louisiana State, winning 27-0.

Great Lakes' Sailors, who a chance to stop Notre Dame comes next Saturday, worked out against Marquette, 25-6. Wisconsin finally managed to score, but not enough, bowing to Minnesota, 25-13. Iowa, trampled on all season, found a team it could beat in winning over Nebraska, 33-13. Iowa State trampled Kansas State, 48-0, and Ft. Riley won the midwest soldiers' championship by defeating Camp Grant, 10-6.

In the east, Columbia and Princeton took their usual beatings. The former lost to Colgate, 41-0; the latter dropped a 42-13 decision to Dartmouth. Penn State had too much power for Pittsburg, winning, 14-0. Villanova beat Temple, 34-7; Lafayette won over Rutgers, 9-2; Sampson naval training station easily defeated Muhlenberg, 28-7, while Boston Southern Methodist, 7-6.

college and Harvard ended up in a 6-6 deadlock.

Down in the southwest the also-rans had their innings while Texas and Texas A and M rested for their Thanksgiving day title clash. Rice tossed out Texas Christian, 13-6, and Texas Tech decimated Southern Methodist, 7-6.
